Annexation Of 'Old City' Israel Goal

JERUSALEM (AP) — Apparently moving toward annexation of the Old City of Jerusalem, the Israeli Parliament approved legislation Tuesday night unifying municipal services in both sectors of the formerly divided city.

Israel wrested the Old City from Jordan during the Middle East war, and government leaders have made clear they would not give it up. Jordan seized the Old City in the 1948 Palestine war.

The Knesset, Israel's Parliament, also gave overwhelming approval to a bill promising protection to both Christian and Moslem holy sites in the Old City and in nearby Bethlehem, including the Church of tre Holy Sepulchre and the Church of the Nativity, both in occupied parts of Jordan.

The municipal law joins the water and electrical services in both sectors. A spokesman said houses in the Old City are already connected to the Israeli water system and electric services are functioning. Israel is supplying 60 per cent of the water for the Old City. The balance comes from the former Jordanian sector.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said before the Arab-Israeli war, inhabitants of the Old City could draw water only two days a week. Now they have water 24 hours a day.

Israeli Jerusalem is preparing to furnish the Old City with education, welfare and health services which previously were handled by voluntary organizations. Postal services are about to be resumed, and a spokesman said food supplies are moving and garbage is being collected again.

"The basic purpose of the municipal fusion law," the spokesman said, "is to ensure full municipal and social services to all inhabitants of the city for which Israeli authorities are now responsible, so that there should be no social inequality and legal differences in respect to services, welfare, education, etc."

Premier Levi Eshkol told a meeting of Christian, Jewish and Moslem leaders that the heads of the religious communities will be given the administration of their holy sites.

"The Israeli government on its part will secure a religious and universal character of the sacred places and secure the right of free access to them," he said.

Eshkol said his government plans regular consultation among representatives of the various religious denominations to make sure the new law functions smoothly.

No. 1 Loser In War

Hussein To Ask Help From LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — King Hussein of Jordan is expected to ask President Johnson to help bail out his battered nation—No. 1 loser in the Arab-Israeli war—when the two talk at the White House today.

U.S. officials said Hussein's expected appeal for help will meet with sympathy from the President. But they said Israeli occupation of some of Jordan's most valuable territory makes unclear what action the United States could take.

Behind administration sympathy for Hussein and his nation is the king's long-time stance as the most pro-Western head of state in the Arab world. There also is recognition that Jordan needs speedy assistance in easing the burden of daily increasing numbers of refugees from land now held by the Israelis.

Officials note, however, that the refugee problem is international in scope and has been handled most effectively by the U.N. Relief and Work Agency, financed to a great extent by the United States.

Hussein, officials feel, does not come to Washington to speak for all the Arabs. He accomplished this part of his mission when he addressed the U.N. General Assembly Monday.

On the main problem, how to settle the Arab-Israeli dispute and prevent new hostilities, there is little Johnson and Hussein can do immediately, officials believe.

Hussein must be very careful not to detach himself to the slightest degree from the rigid Arab policy line, American eperts say. His grandfather, King Abdallah, was assassinated in 1948 when it was only rumored that he was ready to negotiate peace with Israel.

Hussein, then a young man, was at his grandfather's side and saw the assassination.

But Hussein has a prime opportunity to talk about bilateral issues such as economic and military aid to his country.

All aid to belligerent countries was suspended, or put in the "under review" category—a State Department euphemism for suspension—when the war broke out.

Due Geneva Conference

U.S., Soviet Will Offer Proposal To Curb A-Arms

UNITED NATIONS (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union plan to submit to the Geneva Disarmament Conference shortly a joint proposal for a treaty to curb the spread of nuclear weapons.

When the treaty draft goes before the 17-nation disarmament group, probably within the next few days, it may still be minus a provision for safeguards against violations.

U.S.-Soviet negotiators have been unable for months to agree on the safeguards, or inspection, clause. But U.S. diplomats are hopeful of reaching Big Two accord on this soon after submitting the proposed treaty at Geneva, if not by then.

This became known today following a dinner meeting Tuesday night between Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko at the headquarters of the Soviet U.N. mission.

The Rusk-Gromyko session, a followup to the conferences last weekend between President Johnson and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, apparently finished the last phase of the summitry of Glassboro, N.J., the site of the Johnson-Kosygin parleys.

Rusk had no further appointments with Gromyko scheduled. He arranged to return to Washington to report to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the Cabinet today and to the House Foreign Affairs Committee Thursday.

Gromyko, who arrived June 17 with Kosygin, was reported considering returning to Moscow around the end of the week if the U.N. General Assembly decides to recess its emergency session on the Middle East. Kosygin went to Havana Monday.

The Middle East crisis and the proposed nuclear nonproliferation treaty were the major topics discussed by Rusk and Gromyko, who met for more than three hours. U.S. sources said Vietnam was not discussed because the deep U.S.-Soviet differences on this topic had been amply aired in previous talks.

Congress Action On Surtax Seen Off Till Late Summer

Debt Ceiling Bill Due OK By Johnson

Congress Approves $358 Billion Limit Which LBJ Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has sent to the White House for President Johnson's certain signature a bill to raise the national debt limit on Saturday to $358 billion, highest ceiling in history.

The measure, which Johnson asked for and is certain to sign into law by Friday — when the current $336-billion temporary ceiling expires — would raise the limit another $7 billion to $365 billion on July 1, 1968.

In practical terms, the proposed over - all increase in the ceiling represents the amount of cash it would take to buy 9 millions cars costing $3,000 each or more than 1.2 million homes priced at $22,000 each.

The Senate cleared the legislation to the White House late Tuesday on a 60-30 vote after an afternoon of debate in which administration forces narrowly beat off several amendments.

Had any of these been adopted, the bill would have been forced into conference with the House, causing uncertainty as to whether it could have gone to Johnson before Congress begins its 10-day July 4th recess Thursday.

The measure will bring an immediate $22-billion increase in the debt ceiling.

The temporary $336 - billion limit expires Friday midnight. Without the bill, the ceiling would revert on Saturday to the permanent debt limit of $285 billion, established in 1959.

This would mean the government would be insolvent, since the actual debt will be an estimated $327 billion as of Saturday.

The full $80-billion increase in the permanent ceiling provided by the bill when the $365-billion limit goes into effect in mid-1969 is the second largest in history. During World War II, Congress voted an $85-billion hike.

The bill cleared Tuesday apparently marks the end, for at least a time, of the practice of passing successive temporary debt limit increases. Congress has acted on as many as three of these in one year.

Senate backers of the measure said it would give the Treasury some breathing room in financing the Vietnam war and also some margin to deal with contingencies in the year ahead.

Crews Fill Holes In Thoroughfare

By TOM FUTHEY

Picketing by a group of aroused housewives has brought speedy action in their demand for repairs to a Newell thoroughfare.

West Virginia Road Commission crews from Pughtown this morning began filling in holes on the 900 block of Grant St. after the sign - carrying women, augmented by many of their children, slowed traffic along Washington St. Tuesday afternoon and night.

MRS. RUTH SMITH, a spokesman for the group, said today's work followed a conference about 3 p. m. yesterday among the women, Lawrence Ryan, foreman of the road projects, and Walter Nogay, newly - elected chairman of the Hancock County Democratic Executive Committee.

The picketing got under way about 1 p.m.

Mrs. Smith said that Nogay carried with him a petition signed by residents of the street in May which was to have been forwarded to Charleston "But it's still in the county," she pointed out.

Ryan said today the crews began repairing the street about 8, using ready - mixed asphalt. But first the holes were cleaned of debris scattered by cars and area residents.

The women went home to attend to domestic duties and then resumed their stand about 6:15 last evening when Waterford Park race track traffic became heavy, Mrs. Smith said. She added they slowed traffic along Route 66 by walking back and forth across the road. About 7, she declared the situation became acute and a deputy she identified as Lt. Mike Kource hurried to the scene in a cruiser. "Okay, don't leave; I want your names!" Kource reportedly yelled.

"But, we fouled him up so bad," Mrs. Smith added, "he

August Held Likely Time For Move

Martin In Favor Of Steeper Boost Than 6% Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite prodding this week from two influential administration figures, Congress is unlikely to begin considering until late summer the income tax surcharge President Johnson proposed six months ago.

Chairman William McChesney Martin Jr. of the Federal Reserve Board renewed Monday the call for a surcharge, saying he would support a steeper increase than the proposed six per cent if needed to combat inflation.

Then on Tuesday, Chairman Gardner Ackley of Johnson's Council of Economic Advisers again urged congressional consideration of the surcharge, saying no figure lower than six per cent would do the job.

But the congressional timetable appears to rule out hearings at least until August, even if Johnson were to send to Capitol Hill legislation spelling out his tax proposals—which he has not done.

There were indications Johnson, who originally asked for an increase effective Saturday, might be happy to have one six months later.

The House Ways and Means Committee, where all tax legislation must originate, is nowhere near finished with its consideration of a complex bill to amend the Social Security System and related programs such as medicare. The House begins a 10-day July 4 recess Thursday, as does the Senate.

Committee Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., has said the committee may have a Social Security bill ready in July, but other committee members speculate about dates like Aug. 15. Another week or 10 days would be required for House consideration and passage, and the committee would not take up another major measure during this period.

Hearings on a tax increase, if any are held, are likely to be prolonged. Although the administration would like to confine the issue to a simple yes or no on an increase in personal and corporate income taxes, spokesmen for a variety of views will be pressing for a chance to voice them.

Ackley, appearing Tuesday before the Senate-House Economic Committee, ran into demands that the administration consider closing loopholes in present tax laws to increase its revenues, rather than seeking an across the board raise.

Stay Granted In Execution Of Copestick

The Ohio Supreme Court issued an order Tuesday staying execution of the death sentence of Charles Copestick, 26, of East Liverpool, convicted Nov. 8 of first - degree murder.

Copestick has been in "Death Row" at Ohio State Penitentiary since last November when a jury convicted him of shooting his estranged wife, Rebecca Mae, 19, June 19, 1966, in a parked car near his parents' home on Valley Ave. She was shot five times in the head.

In granting the motion of Copestick's counsel, Donald Shay and G. William Brokaw of East Liverpool, the Supreme Court in effect delayed the Aug. 1 execution date set Friday by the Seventh District Court of Appeals.

The stay is in effect until final determination of the appeal before the Supreme Court, and is the second in the case. Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Com-

B52s Unload Bombs On 2 Red Sections

Strike Provinces Where U.S. Troops Are Threatened

SAIGON (AP) — B52 bombers unloaded a rain of bombs today on Communist positions in two provinces where U.S. ground troops face threatening enemy buildups.

The bombers plastered 180,000 pounds of bombs on Red infiltration routes in Quang Tri Province adjoining the demilitarized zone—where a heavy Red rocket and mortar barrage killed nine Marines and wounded 125 Tuesday—and unleashed a similar attack in the highlands of Kontum Province where infiltrating Red troops recently decimated an American paratroop company.

Ground fighting reported by U.S. military headquarters also centered in the DMZ and highland areas.

A sweeping force of more than 300 U.S. paratroops from the 173rd Airborne Brigade jumped about 50 patrolling Reds early today. In a sharp skirmish in the jungles of Kontum Province the paratroopers killed six North Vietnamese and took one prisoner. Two Americans were killed and eight wounded.

In Quang Tri, around the isolated western flank outpost of Khe Sanh, U.S. Marines kept up continual patrols to thwart Communist assaults. Ten Marines were killed in clashes Tuesday and 27 were wounded, but the Leathernecks said they killed 28 North Vietnamese regulars.

South Vietnamese military headquarters also reported a series of clashes with guerrillas in the Mekong Delta in which 49 of the enemy were killed.

'Frank Exchange' In Havana

Kosygin, Castro Seen In Discord

Tass reported from Havana that the two leaders had "a frank exchange" of opinions Tuesday on a number of questions of mutual interest.

Use of the word "frank" in such announcements normally means disagreement. There was no mention of "identity of views" or any other phrasing indicating accord, although Tass called the talks "friendly."

Tass did not disclose subjects discussed, but the makeup of the Cuban delegation meeting with Kosygin indicated military matters were covered. Four of the nine top Cubans listed by Tass as participating in the talks were military leaders.

They were Defense Minister Raul Castro, Fidel's brother; First Deputy Defense Minister Juan Almeida, and Deputy Defense Ministers Sergio Del Valle and Guillermo Garcia.

It was the first report of Raul Castro's return to his defense post since an announcement March 24 that he had stepped down temporarily. Fidel had said earlier in the year that Raul planned to take time off to study military, political, economic and technical subjects.

Disagreement between Kosygin and Castro had been expected. Diplomatic sources said they believed Kosygin's chief aim was to get the Cuban leader to mute his demands for the overthrow of Latin-American governments with which the Soviet Union is seeking to trade and that Castro was certain to refuse.

U.N. Still Far From Accord On Mideast

General Assembly Nearing End Of Its Debate On Crisis

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The emergency session of the U.N. General Assembly, nearing the end of its general debate on the Middle East crisis, remained far from agreement today on its best course to ease the bitter Arab-Israeli conflict.

Eleven nations were on the speakers' list for today's meetings, including Foreign Minister J.M.A.H. Luns of the Netherlands and Foreign Minister Georges Hakim of Lebanon. Fifteen nations are to present their views Thursday.

The general debate is scheduled to end Friday. A U.N. spokesman said assembly President Abdul Rahman Pazhwak of Afghanistan hopes to obtain agreement then on a deadline for submission of new resolutions.

The assembly has before it three resolutions—from the United States, the Soviet Union and Albania. None is given a chance of obtaining, in its present form, the two-thirds vote necessary for approval.

The assembly is expected to recess after the general debate ends, for perhaps as long as a week, while the private consultations continue.

Soviet sources said the Soviets are sticking by their resolution. It calls for condemnation of Israel as the aggressor against Egypt, Jordan and Syria, withdrawal of its troops from the Arab territory it seized in the six-day war that began June 5 and payment of reparations for Arab property destroyed.

Steubenville Firm Protests

Legal Action Threatened On City's Ambulance Pact

A Steubenville firm once chosen tentatively to provide ambulance service for East Liverpool — and then dropped in favor of an East Liverpool concern — notified Mayor George E. Willshaw today it is considering legal action on the grounds it was awarded a valid franchise by Council.

Hyman Stern of the law firm of Stern, Stern & Stern at Steubenville wrote the mayor on behalf of Ambulance Service, Inc., of Steubenville, operated by Robert D'Anniballe.

Council voted, 5-2, at an informal meeting June 9 to accept the Steubenville firm's proposal for ambulance service, provided the city and the company could work out a mutually agreeable contract. Council announced the next day, following a meeting with D'Anniballe, that an agreement had been reached.

But the contract never was awarded formally because Council could not find a source of funds to pay a $1,200-a-month

Burglars Run From Beaver Store Entry

BEAVER — Area police remained on the alert today for three men who smashed out of a jewelry store while police were checking the rear door during a burglary early today.

One of the men ran across the street into a neighbor who recognized him and asked, "What's going on?"

The suspect said, "Those guys are going to beat me," then added, "Let me go or I'll kill you."

The neighbor — whom police did not identify — let him go.

Beaver police had received a call about 1:19 of noise within the Kunsman Jewelry Store of 552 3rd St. and investigated. While they were at the rear door, the three used an ashtray

Eleven nations were on the speakers' list for today's meetings, including Foreign Minister J.M.A.H. Luns of the Netherlands and Foreign Minister Georges Hakim of Lebanon. Fifteen nations are to present their views Thursday.

The general debate is scheduled to end Friday. A U.N. spokesman said assembly President Abdul Rahman Pazhwak of Afghanistan hopes to obtain agreement then on a deadline for submission of new resolutions.

The assembly has before it three resolutions—from the United States, the Soviet Union and Albania None is given a chance of obtaining, in its present form, the two-thirds vote necessary for approval.

The assembly is expected to recess after the general debate ends, for perhaps as long as a week, while the private consultations continue.

Soviet sources said the Soviets are sticking by their resolution. It calls for condemnation of Israel as the aggressor against Egypt, Jordan and Syria, withdrawal of its troops from the Arab territory it seized in the six-day war that began June 5 and payment of reparations for Arab property destroyed.

Stay Granted In Execution Of Copestick

The Ohio Supreme Court issued an order Tuesday staying execution of the death sentence of Charles Copestick, 26, of East Liverpool, convicted Nov. 8 of first - degree murder.

Copestick has been in "Death Row" at Ohio State Penitentiary since last November when a jury convicted him of shooting his estranged wife, Rebecca Mae, 19, June 19, 1966, in a parked car near his parents' home on Valley Ave. She was shot five times in the head.

In granting the motion of Copestick's counsel, Donald Shay and G. William Brokaw of East Liverpool, the Supreme Court in effect delayed the Aug. 1 execution date set Friday by the Seventh District Court of Appeals.

The stay is in effect until final determination of the appeal before the Supreme Court, and is the second in the case. Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Com-

Steubenville Firm Protests

Legal Action Threatened On City's Ambulance Pact

A Steubenville firm once chosen tentatively to provide ambulance service for East Liverpool — and then dropped in favor of an East Liverpool concern — notified Mayor George E. Willshaw today it is considering legal action on the grounds it was awarded a valid franchise by Council.

Hyman Stern of the law firm of Stern, Stern & Stern at Steubenville wrote the mayor on behalf of Ambulance Service, Inc., of Steubenville, operated by Robert D'Anniballe.

Council voted, 5-2, at an informal meeting June 9 to accept the Steubenville firm's proposal for ambulance service, provided the city and the company could work out a mutually agreeable contract. Council announced the next day, following a meeting with D'Anniballe, that an agreement had been reached.

But the contract never was awarded formally because Council could not find a source of funds to pay a $1,200-a-month

Burglars Run From Beaver Store Entry

BEAVER — Area police remained on the alert today for three men who smashed out of a jewelry store while police were checking the rear door during a burglary early today.

One of the men ran across the street into a neighbor who recognized him and asked, "What's going on?"

The suspect said, "Those guys are going to beat me," then added, "Let me go or I'll kill you."

The neighbor — whom police did not identify — let him go.

Beaver police had received a call about 1:19 of noise within the Kunsman Jewelry Store of 552 3rd St. and investigated. While they were at the rear door, the three used an ashtray

School Board Okays Budget At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — The 1968 budget of $1,162,170 — the second consecutive year the figure has exceeded the million-dollar mark — was approved by the Board of Education Monday night.

The 1967 budget was $1,017,462. Major items include the general fund, $987,460; bond retirement, $74,710, and lunch room, 100,000. The board said it anticipates an increase in revenues from the state.

The board also employed three new teachers, accepted the resignations of two others and awarded various contracts.

Employed as elementary instructors were Chris Johnson of Youngstown, Clifford M. Reynolds of Beaver Falls and Mrs. Pauline Rudloff of 602 Park Ave., East Palestine. Mrs. Rudloff served the past term as a substitute.

This leaves one vacancy in the elementary system. Resigning were Mrs. Alice Ann Webster of Beaver, a fifth - grade instructor, and Mrs. Thelma G. Russell, junior high physical education and health instructor. Both have accepted employment at the Highland Suburban School near Beaver Falls.

Lloyd V. Myers of R. D. 1 resigned as a bus driver. Miss Retta L. Beight of R. D. 1 was hired as a replacement at a salary of $1,700 a year.

Richard Herr, Unity School principal, asked to be replaced as supervisor of the lunch room. He will continue as principal and coordinator of Title I and II federal aid funds. Applications are being accepted by the board for the post.

James McCarthy of East Palestine was awarded a contract for remodeling the home economics rooms at the high school on a low bid of $31,985. The other bidder was J. G. Maddo & Sons of East Palestine, $1,981.

Leo Guy of East Palestine won a contract for painting to be done in three buildings on a bid of $817. The other bidders were Orvil Reagle of East Palestine, $836, and New Waterford Painting Co., $1,096.

The board agreed to purchase two new 66-passenger buses and to ask the State Department of Education for authority to accept the bids.

The low bidder for the chassis was Brittain Motors of East Palestine, which asked $4,045 for each. Neil Motors of East Palestine bid $4,067 each.

The Myers Equipment Co. of Canfield bid $8,284 for bodies for both vehicles. This includes the trade-in of two 1957 buses.

The total cost of the two buses, including options, will be approximately $14,727. The state will pay 63 per cent of its ceiling price of $8,600 allowed for each vehicle.

Three Boys Conclude Canton Seminary Visit

Robert Meek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meek of Midway Ln., and David Bentz and Robert Bentz, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bentz of 729 Cartwright Ave., were among 100 at the seminary last week.

The group lived the life of a priest or brother candidate, many determining whether they wished to spend their high school years preparing themselves for priesthood or brothers in the Society of the Precious Blood. The seminary is a regular four-year high school, stressing college preparatory courses.

Progress Report Issued In Hancock School Study

Dr. Arthur N. Hofstetter of the Educational Field Services, College of Human Resources and Education at West Virginia University, appeared before the Hancock County Board of Education Monday night to present a progress report on the recently-completed evaluation of the county school system.

The report is contained in a specially - prepared booklet which presented the highlights of the study and accompanied by technical data sheets explaining the survey in detail.

According to Dr. Hofstetter the purpose of the survey, which covers the school years 1963-64 and 1965-66, was to show the schools' progress. This had been done by administering tests to a certain number of pupils in the elementary, junior and senior high schools. He said the senior high school evaluation was concerned with programs that had been in existence at the school the last three years.

According to Dr. Hofstetter, the independent research oriented program adopted in the senior high schools showed significant gains during the two testing periods, although he did admit the gains were not as pronounced in the 11th grade where only two of the seven areas on which the tests were based showed gains. It was also noted the 9th grade had not shown any improvement, and had in fact declined in 1965-66 testing.

He did state all other grades tested showed gains in the 1965-66 testing as compared with the 1963-64 testing.

Dr. Eli Weller questioned the validity of the tests. He said the prepared booklet "looks like a Madison Ave. report."

Dr. Weller then asked about the purpose of the study.

Dr. Hofstetter replied he had been asked to evaluate the research system and pointed out he was interested in the independent research program.

John Paul Jones, board president, wanted to know how the board could resolve some of the problems evident in the ninth and 11th grade reports.

Dr. Weller asked what direction the school should take.

Dr. Hofstetter stated "in-service" sessions should be spent with the teaching staffs going over and understanding the tables as presented in the technical data sheets. Special attention should be paid to the skill areas where deficiencies appear, he said, and continuing evaluation by the teacher should be made to aid them in ascertaining if they (the students as well as teachers) are making progress. He added he feels the student should be allowed to take independent study courses.

18 Get Notice For Hearings In Tax Counts

Eighteen persons have been served with notices directing them to appear in Municipal Court July 11 at 9 a. m. for hearings on charges they violated the city income tax ordinance by failure to file returns.

The affidavits were filed Thursday by Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilksinson, accusing each of the individuals of two violations — failure to file a final return on 1966 income and failure to furnish an estimate on 1967 earnings. Both reports were due by April 30.

Herman Hoppel of the Marshall Apartments on St. Clair Ave., Raymond L. Jarrett of 1230 Chaffin St., Stephen Kasunich of 1424 Pennsylvania Ave., Robert Lane of 1730 Etruria St., Will Mercer of 1175 Erie St., Robert G. Moore of 1717 Holliday St.

Francis F. Owens of 697 Palissey St., Dr. J. Keith Rugh of Post Office Box 1205, Station A, William W. Talbott of 1136 St. George St., Earl G. Tice of 968 St. George St., John W. Vantilburg of 1013 St. George St. and Douglass Williams of 1236 Harker Ave.

No appearance bond is required by the court in city income tax cases. The defendant simply is served with a summons to appear. Judge Samuel M. Chertoff set the hearing dates after Wilkinson filed the affidavits. Then Bailiff Louis Yanni served the notices.

Reminder Given On X-Ray Tests For Food Staffs

A reminder on requirements for food handlers to have annual X-rays and tuberculosis tests was issued today by the East Liverpool Health Department.

Department officials said the mobile X-ray unit of the Columbiana County Public Health League will be set up in the Diamond Thursday and Friday from 10 to noon, 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p. m.

Ohio food service law requires all food service employes to have yearly X-rays and employes are to have the reports of the tests on hand.

TB skin tests may be obtained free at the Columbiana County Tuberculosis Clinic in the Courthouse at Lisbon weekly from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. and Saturdays from 8:30 to noon.

Heads Democratic Committee

Nogay Selected Chairman Over Wright In Hancock

Walter W. Nogay of 3225 West St., Weirton, has been elected chairman of the Hancock County Democratic Executive Committee, succeeding Edward A. Zagula who resigned several weeks ago.

Nogay won over Dick Wright of Rt. 30, near Chester, in an 11-to-8 vote during a closed session at the Courthouse in New Cumberland Monday night. Wright was nominated for the position by his daughter, Donna Wright.

John Plesich of 105 Willow St., Weirton, was elected vice chairman to fill the vacancy created with the advancement of Nogay. Plesich received 8 of the 19 votes. Anthony DiBart of Weirton, received 7 votes, and Mustapha (Mickey) Mallas, also of Weirton, received 4 votes.

Helen Marino of 3120 Elm St. was elected to fill the vacant Second Ward committeewoman post, succeeding Loraine Palma who moved from that ward.

Only one proxy vote was submitted, that being Wedo Magnone of Weirton, who was represented by Dominic Brancazio.

Nogay was elected vice chairman in 1964 and became acting chairman at the request of Zagula until a successor was named. Zagula resigned from the board to devote more time to his law practice and his family.

Both Zagula and Nogay were named to head the county committee to a four-year term ending Dec. 31, 1968.

The meeting, unlike the stormy session held in 1964 when Zagula defeated Wright, was quiet and orderly, lasting 40 minutes.

Shortly after the meeting got under way, Mallas moved the press be excluded from the session. The motion was seconded by Joseph Zinaich and passed unanimously by the committee.

The committee went on record commending Zagula for his "dedicated efforts and cooperation in bringing about a new image to the Democratic Committee in Hancock County."

Ohio Assembly May Recess In July Or August

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 107th General Assembly may close up shop in July or August and return early next year to finish legislation crowded into the background by passing tax, school, and appropriations bills.

The House Government Operations Committee accepted Tuesday night a report that suggested a recess until next February after action on major matters now before the lawmakers.

The report came from a subcommittee which has been studying various proposals for annual sessions of the General Assembly, which now meets every two years.

Rep. Charles Fry R-9 Clark, chairman of the subcommittee and the Government Operations. Committee, said the subcommittee decided to recommend none of the annual sessions resolution but instead leave them all pending.

Fry said that if the recess is decided on "both the legislators and the citizens of Ohio will have an opportunity to assess the advantages and disadvantages of annual sessions without formal electoral endorsement and a change in our constitution."

Fry said copies of the subcommittee report would be passed along to leaders of both houses for their consideration. They had said previously that they had no particular objection to the idea of a recess.

Cleanup Continuing At Rail Wreck Scene

COLUMBIANA — Both tracks torn up Sunday night by the 19-car derailment of a 145 - car freight train just west of the Pittsburgh St. crossing are back in operation.

However, the westbound tracks still were tied up as Pennsylvania Railroad crews continue efforts to retrieve some of the cars which ran down an embankment.

Also remaining to be repaired were railroad communication lines knocked down by the derailed cars.

18 Get Notice For Hearings In Tax Counts

Eighteen persons have been served with notices directing them to appear in Municipal Court July 11 at 9 a. m. for hearings on charges they violated the city income tax ordinance by failure to file returns.

The affidavits were filed Thursday by Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilksinson, accusing each of the individuals of two violations — failure to file a final return on 1966 income and failure to furnish an estimate on 1967 earnings. Both reports were due by April 30.

The defendants are:

Herman Hoppel of the Marshall Apartments on St. Clair Ave., Raymond L. Jarrett of 1230 Chaffin St., Stephen Kasunich of 1424 Pennsylvania Ave., Robert Lane of 1730 Etruria St., Will Mercer of 1175 Erie St., Robert G. Moore of 1717 Holliday St.

Francis F. Owens of 697 Palissey St., Dr. J. Keith Rugh of Post Office Box 1205, Station A, William W. Talbott of 1136 St. George St., Earl G. Tice of 968 St. George St., John W. Vantilburg of 1013 St. George St. and Douglass Williams of 1236 Harker Ave.

No appearance bond is required by the court in city income tax cases. The defendant simply is served with a summons to appear. Judge Samuel M. Chertoff set the hearing dates after Wilkinson filed the affidavits. Then Bailiff Louis Yanni served the notices.

Reminder Given On X-Ray Tests For Food Staffs

A reminder on requirements for food handlers to have annual X-rays and tuberculosis tests was issued today by the East Liverpool Health Department.

Department officials said the mobile X-ray unit of the Columbiana County Public Health League will be set up in the Diamond Thursday and Friday from 10 to noon, 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p. m.

Ohio food service law requires all food service employes to have yearly X-rays and employes are to have the reports of the tests on hand.

TB skin tests may be obtained free at the Columbiana County Tuberculosis Clinic in the Courthouse at Lisbon weekly from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. and Saturdays from 8:30 to noon.

Nogay Selected Chairman Over Wright In Hancock

Walter W. Nogay of 3225 West St., Weirton, has been elected chairman of the Hancock County Democratic Executive Committee, succeeding Edward A. Zagula who resigned several weeks ago.

Nogay won over Dick Wright of Rt. 30, near Chester, in an 11-to-8 vote during a closed session at the Courthouse in New Cumberland Monday night. Wright was nominated for the position by his daughter, Donna Wright.

John Plesich of 105 Willow St., Weirton, was elected vice chairman to fill the vacancy created with the advancement of Nogay. Plesich received 8 of the 19 votes. Anthony DiBart of Weirton, received 7 votes, and Mustapha (Mickey) Mallas, also of Weirton, received 4 votes.

Helen Marino of 3129 Elm St. was elected to fill the vacant Second Ward committeewoman post, succeeding Loraine Palma who moved from that ward.

Only one proxy vote was submitted, that being Wedo Magnone of Weirton, who was represented by Dominic Brancazio.

Nogay was elected vice chairman in 1964 and became acting chairman at the request of Zagula until a successor was named. Zagula resigned from the board to devote more time to his law practice and his family.

Both Zagula and Nogay were named to head the county committee to a four-year term ending Dec. 31, 1968.

The meeting, unlike the stormy session held in 1964 when Zagula defeated Wright, was quiet and orderly, lasting 40 minutes.

Shortly after the meeting got under way, Mallas moved the press be excluded from the session. The motion was seconded by Joseph Zinaich and passed unanimously by the committee.

The committee went on record commending Zagula for his "dedicated efforts and cooperation in bringing about a new image to the Democratic Committee in Hancock County."

Ohio Assembly May Recess In July Or August

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 107th General Assembly may close up shop in July or August and return early next year to finish legislation crowded into the background by passing tax, school, and appropriations bills.

The House Government Operations Committee accepted Tuesday night a report that suggested a recess until next February after action on major matters now before the lawmakers.

The report came from a subcommittee which has been studying various proposals for annual sessions of the General Assembly, which now meets every two years.

Rep. Charles Fry R-9 Clark, chairman of the subcommittee and the Government Operations Committee, said the subcommittee decided to recommend none of the annual sessions resolution but instead leave them all pending.

Fry said that if the recess is decided on "both the legislators and the citizens of Ohio will have an opportunity to assess the advantages and disadvantages of annual sessions without formal electoral endorsement and a change in our constitution."

Fry said copies of the subcommittee report would be passed along to leaders of both houses for their consideration. They had said previously that they had no particular objection to the idea of a recess.

Cleanup Continuing At Rail Wreck Scene

COLUMBIANA — Both tracks torn up Sunday night by the 19-car derailment of a 145 - car freight train just west of the Pittsburgh St. crossing are back in operation.

However, the westbound tracks still were tied up as Pennsylvania Railroad crews continue efforts to retrieve some of the cars which ran down an embankment.

Also remaining to be repaired were railroad communication lines knocked down by the derailed cars.

Walking On U.N. Eggs

King Hussein of Jordan has added his demand to those already presented in the United Nations for return of all land taken by Israel in its brief war.

The Jordanian king said if the United Nations fails to act to prevent Israel from keeping the spoils of aggression, no nation will ever again listen to a U.N. call for a cease-fire.

Since the monarch has a record of using various situations in the best interest of his country, his consistency leaves something to be desired. His opinions carry little diplomatic weight.

His statement does, however, raise some perplexing questions for the United Nations. Their perplexing nature is one of the reasons the United Nations is having a difficult time acting on Middle East resolutions.

The United Nations is opposed to land acquisition by force. There is no two ways about that. The U.N. charter is dedicated to territorial integrity.

The point bugging U.N representatives is both types of aggression are wrong. They cannot very well condemn one type and let the other stand.

Can the United Nations conscientiously adopt a resolution saying a certain degree of aggression is acceptable under extenuating circumstances?

If the United Nations tells Israel to give it all back, how can it make the order stick?

What countries are going to volunteer services of their troops for an international army to drive out Israel?

Would the United States and Britain stand for taking the disputed land from Israel by force?

Would Russia and the Arab states see portions of their land bestowed upon the conqueror?

What if the Arabs had won? Would King Hussein and Premier Kosygin have made pilgrimages to the United Nations to plead for the return of Israel's territory to the defeated Israelis?

Dollars And Sense

A bill which would help legislators, taxpayers and state officials keep tabs on Pennsylvania expenditures has been introduced in the House.

The proposal would require every measure that might necessitate expenditure of state money be accompanied by a memorandum stating how much the cost would be and what taxes would be affected.

Rep. Max Bossert of Centre County, the sponsor, said the idea is to help every member keep track of what he is voting for or against in terms of money.

No doubt a lot of representatives would get a new perspective on the cost of legislation were the prices put in the margin.

State officials might also obtain a clearer understanding of the fiscal implications of the many programs, and certainly the taxpaver should get a break if there is any greater realiztion of relationship between dollars and sense.

Value Of The Warren Report

The reason for the Warren Commission report on the Kennedy assassination never was plainer than it is now.

There had to be an official report to offset the explosion of unofficial theories that were certain to come forth in due time.

Unofficial inquiries and reports will go on for years to come. Each will cast some shadow on the Warren Commission.

But each will be compared with the official version in the report — the technique being used by the CB inquiry on television. Until better versions are brought forth and verified, the report's version will stand.

It is helpful now to re-read what Saul Pett, special correspondent for The Associated Press, wrote in an introductory note to the AP's publication of the Warren Report:

"While the grief was slow to ebb, the incoming tide brought other feeling. There was now, in the minds of many, the suspicion that there must be more to the Dallas story. Perhaps it was because the human mind demanded a symmetry of cause and effect. Perhaps it was because the mind refused to believe that the President of the United States, an elegant sumbol of the most powerful and, we thought, the most civilized nation on earth, could so simply be shot in the light of day and his head exploded on one of our streets. Surely the motive if not the killer somehow had to fit the size of the victim, and there must have been a conspiracy relative to the world of Armageddon in which he lived. A gnat simply does not kill a lion."

At the end of his introductory note, Saul Pett asked if history would be content with the answers the Warren Report contained. "History is rarely content in these matters," he concluded.

Think of the chaos that would have ensued had there been no Warren Report. Every theorist with an idea could have popped off without fear of successful contradiction.

Whatever may be wrong with the Warren Report, it has been the test rack for every theory that has come along so far.

Two Ways To Skin A Cat

How he could have been stupid enough to let himself be quoted in favor of a thumping tax increase, without putting equal emphasis on a budget decrease, is beyond comprehension.

He says the mounting deficit must be stopped. But he said it wrong.

Martin played directly into the eager hands of inflationists. Among all the other things smart men are supposed to know these days is that prices go up automatically when taxes go up. When prices go up with no corresponding increase in quality or quantity, that is inflation.

Mr. Martin is, in effect, boosting inflation.

Inflation means wages go up, because the buying power of money is going down. When the buying power of money goes down, union negotiators demand compensatory damages, as it were.

The damages are taken out of the hides of all people living on fixed incomes. Elsewhere, every addition to the cost of survival is offset by an addition to prices, wage levels etc.

If the essential thing is to get rid of deficit financing, there is another way to do that besides collecting higher taxes in cheaper money and rubbing out fixed-income citizens.

It is to shrink the budget — to cut the coat to fit the cloth.

Mr. Martin mentions this possibility but he mentions it so maladroitly inflationists haven't even noticed it.

He puts on onus for inflation on Congress, where it properly belongs. The White House submits a budget, but only Congress can authorize spending. Inflation is its responsibility. Congress must decide, Mr. Martin declares.

It can boost taxes, thereby contributing still further to fising wages, rising prices and devaluated money.

Or it can cut spending, thereby stabilizing wages and prices and putting a foundation under tottering dollars.

Why didn't Mr. Martin say so in unmistakable language

Look, Mother, I'm Flying

By Truman Twill

Some ruddy fool of a woman sociologist at the University of Chicago has been calling airline stewardesses "airborne bunnies" and motherly types when flying.

We suggest that the lady sociologist fly her way and let us men fly our way—with bunnies. In my limited experience aloft, where I pay my own way and therefore enjoy the adventure for everything it's ,worth, I have had the opportunity to observe stewardesses of four nationalities — American, French, Indian and Italian.

There wasn't a bunny in the lot, yet I enjoyed being up there in the sky with them for another reason. They fascinated me because of a miracle they were the beneficiaries of and because I kept wondering why the miracle couldn't be performed routinely for all young women.

Incidentally, airline stewards are to be considered in this same light — as beneficiaries of a miracle of training.

These attractive people who take care of us when we fly were made that way by a systematic plan skillfully executed. They were ordinary people transformed by good costuming and skillfull training into some of the most admired functionaries of the era.

An airline stewardess is basically an airborne waitress doing extra duty as a hostess. Her job is to make you feel at home in a place as unlike home as anything ever could be. She does it with a combination of good manners and pleasant personality over an underlay of skill in serving food and drink, which surely is the toughest part of her job.

On today's gargantuan planes on long flights, these people literally walk and trot themselves into a state of collapse. Yet, whether they are bouncy American girls, rosy-cheeked and dazzle-smiled, solemn Indian girls in Saris, or buxom French femmes with a sideline of selling merchandise in flight, they keep smiling hours after ordinary people would have been morose and pooped — and looking like it.

The airlines knew they had to try harder when they went after passenger business, so they went in for food, drink, glamor and entertainment. The stewardesses became the glamor.

They were shown now to look beautiful and perform efficiently. It is not to be denied that they have a special wallop for girl watchers. They are well worth watching.

But they have more than eye appeal. They have been taught how to back up the eye appeal with efficient performance. No one who watches them do their work can keep from wondering what could be done with the same pitch in sprucing up railroads, for instance.

Or, as a matter of fact, in sprucing up any enterprise that wants to make a favorable impression.

Why should the airlines be the only industry to win fame and fortune for its component parts by training young women — and young men — to give efficient service with a memorable flair?

Backfire!

Reds Infiltrate U.S. Labor

By Victor Riesel

"Had Alexei Kosygin been born and raised in England,' replied the Queen's affable first minister, "he would have headed Imperial Chemicals Industry. He is a magnificent organizer and executive. He wastes nothing."

Victor Riesel

This analysis from on high sprang to mind the other day when this column learned that the Communist Party, USA, had been ample refinanced and was planning to seed labor cadres in concentrated industrial areas. It is the logic of Premier Kosygin's dialectics that he would not waste time or assets on futile projects.

True, the American Communist Party has but 12,000 members and is not about to besiege President Johnson's winter palace even to celebrate this 50th anniversary year of the Soviet revolution. True it has mighty few barricades left for street action. But those 12,000 men and women—including many young people now—are a pulsating property. They are hard-core faceless people of the apparatus.

They can make trouble when any summertime incident, any loudmouth in a crowd gathered in a slum district accident, any provocateur at a mass meeting triggers riots and violence.

THEY CAN BE expectionally troublesome on the tense industrial front now sensitively geared to war production. This auto city is one among many in which the Communist Party is preparing for old-fashioned action. This will spread to Pittsburgh, Chicago, the outskirts of Atlanta, and other factory centers from the East Coast megalopolis to California's aerospace concentration.

The party's cadres will be plentiful. This summer, says FBI director J. Edgar Hoover, the party will run special training classes in trade union affairs for a selected group of "party controlled youth."

The graduates of these courses will be dispatched from the special centers, some in the big cities, some to be held in summer camps, to "strategic areas" of the country. They will be under a strict directive to secure jobs in basic industries. They have been selected and ordered to become active in labor circles. They will be under a mandate to fight for union office.

LATE LAST DECEMBER at a meeting of Midwestern Communists called by the party's Trade Union Commission, Gus Hall, the American Communist Party's mini-Kosygin—a fast-driving, luxury-loving suburbanite—laid down a new party line on labor. All Communist Party members belonging to any union must run for some office or committee in that union.

This directive was tossed to one George Meyers, the Baltimorean who is the party's labor commission director. Working with him is a specialist from Pittsburgh, Arthur Ekdelman.

This is not a long-time project. Action must be swift. The Communist Party leaders have been scolded for not being able to produce more than a handful of pro-Soviet labor leaders in the U.S. willing to lead the party's own kind of "peace" demonstrations.

AMERICAN PARTY "Agit-props" (agitation-propaganda specialists) and members of its secretariat have been asked why they have not planted more young people—white and Negro—in the major war plants. Demonstrations, first begun—by young Negro and white workers — over grievances, promotions, pay, etc., in military equipment and aircraft plants are just what the Soviets need.

So the party is preparing to train young people—white and Negro—to colonize strategic industry. Labor is scarce. Jobs are easy to get. Riots and demonstrations are even easier to provoke. And what would better serve the CP-US than "peace" demonstrations led by workers at the gates of war plants.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Mrs. George Layne of W. 9th St. concluded a five-week tour of midwestern states.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gill and sons Jack and William of Pennsylvania Ave. left for a vacation at North Bay, Canada.

Mrs. John Wilson was installed as regent of Bethia Southwick Chapter of the D.A.R. at Wellsville.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Miss Shirley Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Smith of Main St., Wellsville, began summer studies at Sherwood Music School in Chicago, majoring in piano and minoring in organ.

The Wellsville United Presbyterian Church was incorporated at a congregational meeting, with Herbert Bar, John Miller and Edgar Brennen elected elders.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — A "Tom Thumb Wedding" was presented by the Junior Choir of the Shippingport Green Valley Methodist Church, with Betty Jean Kiss the "bride" and Donald Short the "bridegroom."

A 42-inch channel catfish, weighing about 22 pounds, was caught in Beaver Creek, near Grimms Bridge, by Eugene Bowyer of Westfield.

Russian People Unaware

On a white sheet stretched across the front of a family home about two blocks from the scene of the "summit meeting" in Glassboro, there were spread in red paint a few words that reflected the thoughts of hundreds of millions of people in this and other lands: "May God direct their way to peace."

Premier Kosygin and President Johnson were inspired in their meetings to try to find a basis for a better understanding between the two major powers in the world today.

They must have been encouraged by the many evidences of sincere applause and good wishes that came spontaneously from the small gatherings of country folks on the street.

Unfortunately, at the Glassboro meetings Premier Kosygin was by no means his own master. He could be friendly as an individual, and he was.

BUT WHAT HE might agree to depended on what the clique in the Kremlin—the Communist party committee—had told him in advance. This involves a slow-moving process.

It asks Moscow bureaucracy many hours and sometimes days to decide what shall be allowed to be said in the press and on the air. The premier's friendly remarks at Glassboro after the first conference as he acknowledged the applause of the onlookers and later as he talked enthusiastically at Niagara Falls got no mention in Soviet newspapers or radio.

The fact there was a second conference arranged was also ignored. The order was to play down both meetings with President Johnson because this might offend the Arabs or look like a retreat from the premier's speech at the U.N. General Assembly charging that America had participated in the Israeli-Arab war.

Coincidentally, Soviet President Podgorny was paying an official visit to Egypt's President Nasser in Cairo and promising military support.

Even assuming the American president and the Soviet premier understood each other's point of view thoroughly and sought to pursue a constructive course together, there is today, as always, staring both governments in the face in Vietnam the obstructiveness of the Red China regime.

A settlement of the war in Southeast Asia can hardly be accomplished unless both the United States and the Soviet Union agree to take a firm stand against Red China's aggressions.

As for the Middle East, the Soviets have a very important decision to make now.

Shall they keep on supplying arms for the Arabs and set the stage for another war? Can they expect the United States to remain aloof and refrain from furnishing arms to Israel if the Soviets actively support a buildup of Arab preparations for another war

Unless these questions are answered with a program about a desire for world peace will ments about a desire for world peace will prove meaningless.

The Glassboro meeting did provide a ray of sunshine. The friendly personal comments on both sides sent throughout the United States a wave of hopefulness.

IF ONLY THE TWO leaders could sit down together and work out a practical plan—this was the heartfelt wish of the people of America. The same feeling doubtless would have been expressed by the people of the Soviet Union if they only had had an opportunity to do so.

The whole episode shows on its tragic side the lack of effectice communication between the people behind the Iron Curtain and the peoples of the free world.

The Soviet autocracy is still in command in Moscow and repeatedly has demonstrated its ruthless quest for power throughout the world.

The assumption is that Communism must conquer and that the people of the Soviet Union must calmly accept the edicts of an oligarchy. Maybe this form of tyranny, which prevents the people from expressing themselves, will some day be overthrown by an enraged nation.

But until then such progress as is made toward peace will be measured by the selfish interests of the Soviet Communist leaders as their policy continues to be one of fluctuation based on expediency.

The American people will fervently pray that the news of the friendly meeting between Premier Kosygin and President Johnson will somehow gradually percolate by word-of-mouth through the many censorship barriers inside the Soviet Union. For "summit meetings" could someday give human friendship a real opportunity to build an enduring peace.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Time once was that in referring to a girl one envisioned laces, sashes, ribbons and bows, long flowing tresses and feminine clothes.

Somehow we survive the skyscrapers and the rainbow and froster coiffure. But why do the girls desire short haircuts that look like their 3-year-old sisters got shears and did the butchering job?

There was a period of wearing their father's big sloppy shirts, and then the extremely tight slacks. The sack dresses, they said, would hide a multitude of sins.

But now why do the girls want to wear the new tent dresses that look like maternity apparel so that when they wear them they look like they need them?

If girls would look and act like girls should, it would be an inspiration to treat them as ladies.

But each will be compared with the official version in the report — the technique being used by the CB inquiry on television. Until better versions are brought forth and verified, the report's version will stand.

It is helpful now to re-read what Saul Pett, special correspondent for The Associated Press, wrote in an introductory note to the AP's publication of the Warren Report:

"While the grief was slow to ebb, the incoming tide brought other feeling. There was now, in the minds of many, the suspicion that there must be more to the Dallas story. Perhaps it was because the human mind demanded a symmetry of cause and effect. Perhaps it was because the mind refused to believe that the President of the United States, an elegant sumbol of the most powerful and, we thought, the most civilized nation on earth, could so simply be shot in the light of dav and his head exploded on one of our streets. Surely the motive if not the killer somehow had to fit the size of the victim, and there must have been a conspiracy relative to the world of Armageddon in which he lived. A gnat simply does not kill a lion."

At the end of his introductory note, Saul Pett asked if history would be content with the answers the Warren Report contained. "History is rarely content in these matters," he concluded.

Think of the chaos that would have ensued had there been no Warren Report. Every theorist with an idea could have popped off without fear of successful contradiction.

Whatever may be wrong with the Warren Report, it has been the test rack for every theory that has come along so far.

Two Ways To Skin A Cat

How he could have been stupid enough to let himself be quoted in favor of a thumping tax increase, without putting equal emphasis on a budget decrease, is beyond comprehension.

He says the mounting deficit must be stopped. But he said it wrong.

Martin played directly into the eager hands of inflationists. Among all the other things smart men are supposed to know these days is that prices go up automatically when taxes go up. When prices go up with no corresponding increase in quality or quantity, that is inflation.

Mr. Martin is, in effect, boosting inflation.

Inflation means wages go up, because the buying power of money is going down. When the buying power of money goes down, union negotiators demand compensatory damages, as it were.

The damages are taken out of the hides of all people living on fixed incomes. Elsewhere, every addition to the cost of survival is offset by an addition to prices, wage levels etc.

If the essential thing is to get rid of deficit financing, there is another way to do that besides collecting higher taxes in cheaper money and rubbing out fixed-income citizens.

It is to shrink the budget — to cut the coat to fit the cloth.

Mr. Martin mentions this possibility but he mentions it so maladroitly inflationists haven't even noticed it.

He puts on onus for inflation on Congress, where it properly belongs. The White House submits a budget, but only Congress can authorize spending. Inflation is its responsibility. Congress must decide, Mr. Martin declares.

It can boost taxes, thereby contributing still further to fising wages, rising prices and devaluated money.

Or it can cut spending, thereby stabilizing wages and prices and putting a foundation under tottering dollars.

Why didn't Mr. Martin say so in unmistakable language

Look, Mother, I'm Flying

By Truman Twill

Some ruddy fool of a woman sociologist at the University of Chicago has been calling airline stewardesses "airborne bunnies" and motherly types when flying.

We suggest that the lady sociologist fly her way and let us men fly our way—with bunnies. In my limited experience aloft, where I pay my own way and therefore enjov the adventure for everything it's ,worth, I have had the opportunity to observe stewardesses of four nationalities — American, French, Indian and Italian.

There wasn't a bunny in the lot, yet I enjoyed being up there in the sky with them for another reason. They fascinated me because of a miracle they were the beneficiaries of and because I kept wondering why the miracle couldn't be performed routinely for all young women.

Incidentally, airline stewards are to be considered in this same light — as beneficiaries of a miracle of training.

These attractive people who take care of us when we fly were made that way by a systematic plan skillfully executed. They were ordinary people transformed by good costuming and skillfull training into some of the most admired functionaries of the era.

An airline stewardess is basically an airborne waitress doing extra duty as a hostess. Her job is to make you feel at home in a place as unlike home as anything ever could be. She does it with a combination of good manners and pleasant personality over an underlay of skill in serving food and drink, which surely is the toughest part of her job.

On today's gargantuan planes on long flights, these people literally walk and trot themselves into a state of collapse. Yet, whether they are bouncy American girls, rosy-cheeked and dazzle-smiled, solemn Indian girls in Saris, or buxom French femmes with a sideline of selling merchandise in flight, they keep smiling hours after ordinary people would have been morose and pooped — and looking like it.

The airlines knew they had to try harder when they went after passenger business, so they went in for food, drink, glamor and entertainment. The stewardesses became the glamor.

They were shown now to look beautiful and perform efficiently. It is not to be denied that they have a special wallop for girl watchers. They are well worth watching.

But they have more than eye appeal. They have been taught how to back up the eye appeal with efficient performance. No one who watches them do their work can keep from wondering what could be done with the same pitch in sprucing up railroads, for instance.

Or, as a matter of fact, in sprucing up any enterprise that wants to make a favorable impression.

Why should the airlines be the only industry to win fame and fortune for its component parts by training young women — and young men — to give efficient service with a memorable flair?

The first person in czarist Russia to be inoculated against smallpox was Catherine the Great, whose daring act was intended to encourage her superstitious subjects to do the same thing.

Reds Infiltrate U.S. Labor

By Victor Riesel

"Had Alexei Kosygin been born and raised in England,' replied the Queen's affable first minister, "he would have headed Imperial Chemicals Industry. He is a magnificent organizer and executive. He wastes nothing."

Victor Riesel

This analysis from on high sprang to mind the other day when this column learned that the Communist Party, USA, had been ample refinanced and was planning to seed labor cadres in concentrated industrial areas. It is the logic of Premier Kosygin's dialectics that he would not waste time or assets on futile projects.

True, the American Communist Party has but 12,000 members and is not about to besiege President Johnson's winter palace even to celebrate this 50th anniversary year of the Soviet revolution. True it has mighty few barricades left for street action. But those 12,000 men and women—including many young people now—are a pulsating property. They are hard-core faceless people of the apparatus.

They can make trouble when any summertime incident, any loudmouth in a crowd gathered in a slum district accident, any provocateur at a mass meeting triggers riots and violence.

THEY CAN BE expectionally troublesome on the tense industrial front now sensitively geared to war production. This auto city is one among many in which the Communist Party is preparing for old-fashioned action. This will spread to Pittsburgh, Chicago, the outskirts of Atlanta, and other factory centers from the East Coast megalopolis to California's aerospace concentration.

The party's cadres will be plentiful. This summer, says FBI director J. Edgar Hoover, the party will run special training classes in trade union affairs for a selected group of "party controlled youth."

The graduates of these courses will be dispatched from the special centers, some in the big cities, some to be held in summer camps, to "strategic areas" of the country. They will be under a strict directive to secure jobs in basic industries. They have been selected and ordered to become active in labor circles. They will be under a mandate to fight for union office.

LATE LAST DECEMBER at a meeting of Midwestern Communists called by the party's Trade Union Commission, Gus Hall, the American Communist Party's mini-Kosygin—a fast-driving, luxury-loving suburbanite—laid down a new party line on labor. All Communist Party members belonging to any union must run for some office or committee in that union.

This directive was tossed to one George Meyers, the Baltimorean who is the party's labor commission director. Working with him is a specialist from Pittsburgh, Arthur Ekdelman.

This is not a long-time project. Action must be swift. The Communist Party leaders have been scolded for not being able to produce more than a handful of pro-Soviet labor leaders in the U.S. willing to lead the party's own kind of "peace" demonstrations.

AMERICAN PARTY "Agit-props" (agitation-propaganda specialists) and members of its secretariat have been asked why they have not planted more young people—white and Negro—in the major war plants. Demonstrations, first begun—by young Negro and white workers — over grievances, promotions, pay, etc., in military equipment and aircraft plants are just what the Soviets need.

So the party is preparing to train young people—white and Negro—to colonize strategic industry. Labor is scarce. Jobs are easy to get. Riots and demonstrations are even easier to provoke. And what would better serve the CP-US than "peace" demonstrations led by workers at the gates of war plants.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Mrs. George Layne of W. 9th St. concluded a five-week tour of midwestern states.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gill and sons Jack and William of Pennsylvania Ave. left for a vacation at North Bay, Canada.

Mrs. John Wilson was installed as regent of Bethia Southwick Chapter of the D.A.R. at Wellsville.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Miss Shirley Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Smith of Main St., Wellsville, began summer studies at Sherwood Music School in Chicago, majoring in piano and minoring in organ.

The Wellsville United Presbyterian Church was incorporated at a congregational meeting, with Herbert Bar, John Miller and Edgar Brennen elected elders.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — A "Tom Thumb Wedding" was presented by the Junior Choir of the Shippingport Green Valley Methodist Church, with Betty Jean Kiss the "bride" and Donald Short the "bridegroom."

A 42-inch channel catfish, weighing about 22 pounds, was caught in Beaver Creek, near Grimms Bridge, by Eugene Bowyer of Westfield.

If Reds Knew

By David Lawrence

Russian People Unaware

On a white sheet stretched across the front of a family home about two blocks from the scene of the "summit meeting" in Glassboro, there were spread in red paint a few words that reflected the thoughts of hundreds of millions of people in this and other lands: "May God direct their way to peace."

Premier Kosygin and President Johnson were inspired in their meetings to try to find a basis for a better understanding between the two major powers in the world today.

They must have been encouraged by the many evidences of sincere applause and good wishes that came spontaneously from the small gatherings of country folks on the street.

Unfortunately, at the Glassboro meetings Premier Kosygin was by no means his own master. He could be friendly as an individual, and he was.

BUT WHAT HE might agree to depended on what the clique in the Kremlin—the Communist party committee—had told him in advance. This involves a slow-moving process.

It asks Moscow bureaucracy many hours and sometimes days to decide what shall be allowed to be said in the press and on the air. The premier's friendly remarks at Glassboro after the first conference as he acknowledged the applause of the onlookers and later as he talked enthusiastically at Niagara Falls got no mention in Soviet newspapers or radio.

The fact there was a second conference arranged was also ignored. The order was to play down both meetings with President Johnson because this might offend the Arabs or look like a retreat from the premier's speech at the U.N. General Assembly charging that America had participated in the Israeli-Arab war.

Coincidentally, Soviet President Podgorny was paying an official visit to Egypt's President Nasser in Cairo and promising military support.

Even assuming the American president and the Soviet premier understood each other's point of view thoroughly and sought to pursue a constructive course together, there is today, as always, staring both governments in the face in Vietnam the obstructiveness of the Red China regime.

A settlement of the war in Southeast Asia can hardly be accomplished unless both the United States and the Soviet Union agree to take a firm stand against Red China's aggressions.

As for the Middle East, the Soviets have a very important decision to make now.

Shall they keep on supplying arms for the Arabs and set the stage for another war? Can they expect the United States to remain aloof and refrain from furnishing arms to Israel if the Soviets actively support a buildup of Arab preparations for another war

Unless these questions are answered with a program about a desire for world peace will ments about a desire for world peace will prove meaningless.

The Glassboro meeting did provide a ray of sunshine. The friendly personal comments on both sides sent throughout the United States a wave of hopefulness.

IF ONLY THE TWO leaders could sit down together and work out a practical plan—this was the heartfelt wish of the people of America. The same feeling doubtless would have been expressed by the people of the Soviet Union if they only had had an opportunity to do so.

The whole episode shows on its tragic side the lack of effectice communication between the people behind the Iron Curtain and the peoples of the free world.

The Soviet autocracy is still in command in Moscow and repeatedly has demonstrated its ruthless quest for power throughout the world.

The assumption is that Communism must conquer and that the people of the Soviet Union must calmly accept the edicts of an oligarchy. Maybe this form of tyranny, which prevents the people from expressing themselves, will some day be overthrown by an enraged nation.

But until then such progress as is made toward peace will be measured by the selfish interests of the Soviet Communist leaders as their policy continues to be one of fluctuation based on expediency.

The American people will fervently pray that the news of the friendly meeting between Premier Kosygin and President Johnson will somehow gradually percolate by word-of-mouth through the many censorship barriers inside the Soviet Union. For "summit meetings" could someday give human friendship a real opportunity to build an enduring peace.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Time once was that in referring to a girl one envisioned laces, sashes, ribbons and bows, long flowing tresses and feminine clothes.

Somehow we survive the skyscrapers and the rainbow and froster coiffure. But why do the girls desire short haircuts that look like their 3-year-old sisters got shears and did the butchering job?

There was a period of wearing their father's big sloppy shirts, and then the extremely tight slacks. The sack dresses, they said, would hide a multitude of sins.

But now why do the girls want to wear the new tent dresses that look like maternity apparel so that when they wear them they look like they need them?

If girls would look and act like girls should, it would be an inspiration to treat them as ladies.

2 Forfeit $17 Bonds In City Radar Check

Two motorists cited in continuing police department radar checks on speeding forfeited appearance bonds of $17.50 each today in Municipal Court.

They are Ernest Steffel of Wheeling, who was cited Tuesday at 11:50 a. m. by Patrolman Charles A. Winters while allegedly driving 45 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on W. 8th St., and Everett M. Spencer Jr. of Steubenville, arrested Monday at 12:25 p. m. also on W. 8th St., on a charge of driving 47 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone.

Meanwhile, Carl S. Davis, 40, of Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, was fined $20 and costs and given a 15-day suspension of his driver's permit when he pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding 75 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. Davis was cited June 19 at 2:40 p.m. after his speed was clocked by a Highway Patrol plane. The judge granted him permission to drive to and from work during the time his license is suspended.

Roger Michael Irwin, 22, of 313 Jackson St. was fined $15 and costs on a charge of driving 70 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone June 17 on Route 30. He pleaded "no contest." David Alvin Alford, 19, of Park Way, LaCroft, was fined $10 and costs on a charge of crashing a stop light at Webber Way and Dresden Ave. and ordered to pay the costs on a charge of crashing another light at Jefferson St. and Webber Way. He was cited at 1:13 a .m. today by Patrolmen Paul Blevins and David Huffman.

Larry D. Siderich, 20, of 1705 Cleveland Ave. was fined $15 and costs on a charge of speeding 50 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on St. Clair Ave. He was cited Tuesday at 8:13 p.m. by Patrolman Charles Coen.

A hearing is due Thursday for Clarence Snediker, 41, of 125 Beechwood St., cited by the patrol Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. for driving a vehicle without a proper muffler.

Count Reduced; Chester Driver Pays $150 Fine

Ralph L. Waite, 72, of 241 Virginia Ave., Chester, was fined $150 and costs today in Municipal Court after a charge of driving while intoxicated was reduced to an allegation of being in physical control of an auto while under the influence of alcohol.

Waite also was given a suspended 15-day County Jail term and ordered to pay court costs on a charge of "abusing a police officer in the lawful execution of his duties."

Waite was taken into custody Thursday at 8:24 p. m. on Walnut St. by Patrolman Karl Samples after his auto struck the rear of a halted station wagon.

Waite was represented by Bernard Fineman, who entered a plea in mitigation before sentence was pronounced. The attorney told the court Waite is "a diabetic and a drink or two would hit him like a hammer." In asking consideration of a light fine, the attorney said his client is retired and would have to borrow money against future pension payments to pay the penalty. Fineman added that Waite had apologized to Samples for allegedly "abusing" the officer.

3 Pennsylvania Cars Involved In Mishap

Three Pennsylvania motorists were involved in an accident on Route 66 in Newell early Tuesday night.

Hancock County sheriff's deputies reported the mishap, in which no one was injured, occurred about 6:40 on Washington St.

A vehicle driven by Elijah R. Carter, 47, of 932 McDonald St., Pittsburgh, reportedly struck another car driven by John L. Bender, 25, of Edgewood Circle, Industry, from behind, shoving it into a third auto operated by Kenneth H. Bjers, 64, of Beaver.

Carter told officers his gas pedal stuck and he hit the two cars as they were stopped in a line of traffic.

Carter was charged with driving with defective equipment.

World production of vegetable oils is more than 32 billion pounds per year, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Traffic Cases Bring Fines

LISBON — Arnold F. Edmond, 19, of Hanoverton R. D. 1 was ordered to surrender his driver's license for 60 days at a hearing before Judge J. L. MacDonald in Columbiana County Southwest Court.

Edmond was fined $50 and costs for reckless operation and $50 and costs for failure to comply with a highway patrolmen's order. He pleaded guilty to both counts.

Truckrivers Loren B. Noble of Amsterdam and William J. Davis of Irondale were fined $184.20 and $146.20, respectively, for overloads of 7,980 and 6,060 pounds.

Fined for speeding were Enoch A. Bishop, Warren, $15; James D. Rice Jr., Salem R.D. 2; Roy N. Herron, Ashtabula; Clifford Westover Jr., Leetonia; Robert B. Manheim, Alliance, and Wilbur D. Harris, Century, W. Va., $15 each, and Louis Horvath, Youngstown, $10.

Also fined were:

Harvey S. Tullis Jr., Lisbon R. D. 2, operating homemade motorbike on township road without operator's license, $50 ($40 suspended on conditions imposed); Ralph Frautschy, Lisbon R. D. 1, failure to yield right-of-way, $15; George D. Coleman, Wellsville, same, $10, and Floyd G. Everhart, Hanoverton R. D. 1, same, same.

Raymond W. Moore, Leetonia R. D. 2, and Robert W. Little, 517 Fair St., Salem, failure to obey traffic signal, $10 each; John R. McCullough, Youngstown, same, $5; Sherry L. May, Lisbon R. D. 5; operating motor vehicle without muffler, $15; Robert R. Brown, Lisbon R.D. 3, operating vehicle with registration plates issued to another vehicle, $10, and James A. Skeels, Lisbon R. D. 4, no lights or stop light on trailer, $5.

Thomas L. Handerhan, Carnegie, Pa., and Kenneth De Vel, Beloit, both charged with fishing without a license, were fined $15 each.

Three drivers forfeited appearance bonds: Stanley Velenski, Warren, speeding, $20; Dennis L. Miller, Cecil, Ohio, passing without assured clear distance, $20, and Samuel F. Wilson, Cleveland, operating motor vehicle without muffler, $15.

Suspect Shot Racing From Police Officer

BEAVER FALLS — A 19-year-old New Brighton youth was in "satisfactory" condition today at Beaver Falls Providence Hospital with bullet wounds of the legs suffered when shot by a New Brighton police officer early this morning.

William Shields was seen running from Locke's Service Station in Beaver Falls about 1:30 a. m. today and was stopped by officers in a cruiser.

He said he had just been checking the door at the station after being left off by two friends. Police took him in the cruiser to verify his story with his friends, but when the cruiser was halted for a stop sign on the way, Shields jumped out and began to run, officers said.

Patrolman Richard Rhodes said he warned him twice to halt or he would shoot. "Then, I shot at his legs once." Rhodes said Shields grabbed at his leg, but raced on, escaping.

Later, Shields was taken to the New Brighton Unit of Providence Hospital by a friend, Joseph Thomas of New Brighton who notified police. Shields was transferred to the Beaver Falls Hospital with wounds of the upper left leg and right calf.

Authorities said the bullet apparently passed through the left leg and lodged in the calf of the other leg.

Shields has been charged with a Sunday entering at the Locke station, and faces charges of resisting arrest. He is currently free under $5,000 bond on two counts of burglary and two of armed robbery.

Ironworkers Union Okays New Contract

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The ironworkers are going back to their jobs, but the sheet metal union may strike.

Members of Local 3 of the Ironworkers Union voted 572-53 Tuesday night to accept a contract that gives them a $1.50 an hour raise over three years.

The night before, the boilermakers accepted a new $1.50 contract and went back to work. The two settlements eased the three-week-old construction industry tie-up caused by walkouts of nine unions.

Hearing Slated July 6 For Market Operator

By agreement of counsel, a Municipal Court hearing has been scheduled Thursday, July 6, for Glenn Thorne, operator of Thorne's Valu-King store at 1616 Pennsylvania Ave., accused of violating the city's so-called "anti-noise" ordinance.

Thorne appeared before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff Monday on the charge signed by seven residents of the area in which his store is located. No definite hearing date was set at the time because Richard D. Kennedy of Lisbon, defense counsel, told the court he wished to file a motion or motions. Jackman Vedrey is counsel for the complainants.

He was born Feb. 12, 1892, in Ravenswood, W. Va., a son of the late Alex McCauley and Martha Hoyt McCauley. He was preceded in death by his son, Foster McCauley Jr., in August 1936, who was killed in a truck accident.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Louise Dickey McCauley, at home; two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Machim of East Liverpool and Mrs. June Culp of Highlandtown; three brothers, Sam McCauley of Wellsville, George McCauley of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Charles McCauley of Parkersburg, W. Va.; a sister, Mrs. Margaret Stephens of Congo, five grandchildren and 16 great - grandchildren.

The MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville is arranging services.

Samuel Simon

Samuel A. Simon, 70, of Unity, a retired employe of the Adamson Tank Co. at East Palestine, died Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. at his home after an illness of 2½ years.

He was born in Bridgewater, Pa., Aug. 19, 1896, a son of the late Peter Simon and Mary Wilhelm Simon. He retired five years ago from the tank company, where he worked as a fitter. He was a member of the Unity Grange and the Unity United Church of Christ. He was married Feb. 15, 1928, to the former Clara Landsberger, who survives at home.

He also leaves a daughter, Miss Joann Simon, at home; three sons, Raymond Simon and James Simon, both of East Palestine, and Elmer Simon of Columbiana; a brother, Wilmer Simon of East Palestine, R.D. 1; two sisters, Mrs. Lucy Cummings of Pittsburgh and Mrs. Edith Black of East Palestine, and eight grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 3 p. m. at the VanDyke Funeral Home in East Palestine by the Rev. Marven Bowman. Burial will be in Unity Church Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Goldia Fitzpatrick

EAST PALESTINE — Mrs. Goldia Fitzpatrick, 80, of West North Ave., widow of Ray Fitzpatrick, died this morning at 6:15 at home. She had been in poor health for some time.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick was born April 24, 1887, in Bloomfield, a daughter of the late Archibald Watson and Ann Poole Watson. She was vice president, secretary and a board member of Fitzpatrick Industries here, which was founded by her husband. She was married Sept. 2, 1913. Her husband died April 8, 1948.

She was a charter member of the 20th Century Literary Club of East Palestine and was active in the Mental Health Association until recent years.

She leaves three daughters, Mrs. Herbert Reed of Charlotte, Mich., Mrs. Allan White of Columbiana and Mrs. Steven Torsky of Austintown; two sisters, Miss Zoe Watson of Marietta and Mrs. Dick Fitzpatrick of Columbiana; a brother, James Watson of Marietta, five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Saturday at 10:30 a. m. at the Van Dyke Funeral Home by the Rev. Thomas Hammerton of the Centenary Methodist Church. Burial will be in the Columbiana Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Friday from 7 to 9 p.m.

The family requests that material tributes take the form of donations to the Columbiana County Mental Health Association.

Rock Victim To Be Buried In Kentucky

Services will be held in Kentucky for a construction worker crushed to death Tuesday while working on Route 7 near Empire in Jefferson County.

Dead is Earl D. Fox, 39, who has been residing at the Echo Dell Trailer Court.

An equipment greaser for the Ralph Myers Contracting Corp. of Salem, Ind., he was struck by a boulder about 7:45 a.m. yesterday. He had been employed by the firm for 20 years.

Services will be at the Cox Funeral Home in Irvine, Ky., with burial to follow there. Mr. Fox was a former resident of Dip Rock, Ky.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jewell D. Durham Fox, and two daughters, Cheryl Ann Fox and Sharon Gail Fox, all at home; a brother, Archie Fox of Williamstown, Ky.; a sister, Mrs. Clay (Hazel) Blackwell of Dayton, and his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Cox Fox of Kentucky.

2 Forfeit $17 Bonds In City Radar Check

Two motorists cited in continuing police department radar checks on speeding forfeited appearance bonds of $17.50 each today in Municipal Court.

They are Ernest Steffel of Wheeling, who was cited Tuesday at 11:50 a. m. by Patrolman Charles A. Winters while allegedly driving 45 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on W. 8th St., and Everett M. Spencer Jr. of Steubenville, arrested Monday at 12:25 p. m. also on W. 8th St., on a charge of driving 47 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone.

Meanwhile, Carl S. Davis, 40, of Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, was fined $20 and costs and given a 15-day suspension of his driver's permit when he pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding 75 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. Davis was cited June 19 at 2:40 p.m. after his speed was clocked by a Highway Patrol plane. The judge granted him permission to drive to and from work during the time his license is suspended.

Roger Michael Irwin, 22, of 313 Jackson St. was fined $15 and costs on a charge of driving 70 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone June 17 on Route 30. He pleaded "no contest." David Alvin Alford, 19, of Park Way, LaCroft, was fined $10 and costs on a charge of crashing a stop light at Webber Way and Dresden Ave. and ordered to pay the costs on a charge of crashing another light at Jefferson St. and Webber Way. He was cited at 1:13 a .m. today by Patrolmen Paul Blevins and David Huffman.

Larry D. Siderich, 20, of 1705 Cleveland Ave. was fined $15 and costs on a charge of speeding 50 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on St. Clair Ave. He was cited Tuesday at 8:13 p.m. by Patrolman Charles Coen.

A hearing is due Thursday for Clarence Snediker, 41, of 125 Beechwood St., cited by the patrol Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. for driving a vehicle without a proper muffler.

Count Reduced; Chester Driver Pays $150 Fine

Ralph L. Waite, 72, of 241 Virginia Ave., Chester, was fined $150 and costs today in Municipal Court after a charge of driving while intoxicated was reduced to an allegation of being in physical control of an auto while under the influence of alcohol.

Waite also was given a suspended 15-day County Jail term and ordered to pay court costs on a charge of "abusing a police officer in the lawful execution of his duties."

Waite was taken into custody Thursday at 8:24 p. m. on Walnut St. by Patrolman Karl Samples after his auto struck the rear of a halted station wagon.

Waite was represented by Bernard Fineman, who entered a plea in mitigation before sentence was pronounced. The attorney told the court Waite is "a diabetic and a drink or two would hit him like a hammer." In asking consideration of a light fine, the attorney said his client is retired and would have to borrow money against future pension payments to pay the penalty. Fineman added that Waite had apologized to Samples for allegedly "abusing" the officer.

3 Pennsylvania Cars Involved In Mishap

Three Pennsylvania motorists were involved in an accident on Route 66 in Newell early Tuesday night.

Hancock County sheriff's deputies reported the mishap, in which no one was injured, occurred about 6:40 on Washington St.

A vehicle driven by Elijah R. Carter, 47, of 932 McDonald St., Pittsburgh, reportedly struck another car driven by John L. Bender, 25, of Edgewood Circle, Industry, from behind, shoving it into a third auto operated by Kenneth H. Bjers, 64, of Beaver.

Carter told officers his gas pedal stuck and he hit the two cars as they were stopped in a line of traffic.

Carter was charged with driving with defective equipment.

Reckman Amendment Adopted

State-Insured Loan Plan To Students Has Setback

By WILLIAM V. MERRIMAN
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — After sailing through the Ohio General Assembly with a unanimous push from the Senate, a bill co-sponsored by Sen. John Longsworth, R-Salem, to expand state - insured loans to college students hit rough water in the House Tuesday.

The big waves were stirred by State Rep. Robert F. Reckman, R-Hamilton, chief architect six years ago of machinery Longsworth and others were trying to modify.

The proposal finally passed without an opposing vote, but not before a Reckman amendment turned it off course and perhaps adrift.

TO MAKE the state - insured package more attractive to Ohio's lending institutions, sponsors wanted the state guarantee on the loans to students increased from its present 80 per cent to 100 per cent.

Arguing it would be a "bad idea to simply tell banks we'll bail you out" if a student defaults on his loan, Reckman succeeded without a vote to spare in persuading the House to set the guarantee at only 90 per cent.

Sponsors, apparently expecting the storm, received suport on the floor from Reps. Robert E. Levitt, R-Stark, and Kenneth B. Creasy, R - Delaware, but the countermove failed to head off Reckman's amendment, which passed 50-43.

Not in the habit of wasting words on the floor, Levitt simply had reminded the House the system hasn't been working because the majority of the state's financial institutions haven't participated.

EARLIER, Creasy cited figures showing that in the system's six years of operation, only 267 of the state's 555 banks made loans to students under the state program.

Further, he said, all but 10 savings and loan associations and 4 credit unions skirted the program.

Creasy contrasted the $13.6 million Ohio has underwritten in six years to $263 million underwritten in only nine years the New York system has been operating.

Sen. Ralph S. Regula, R-Navarre, chief sponsor of the bill, agreed after Tuesday's vote the bill's sponsors have two courses: To encourage the Senate to concur in the Reckman amendment or refuse, sending the bill into a conference committee.

The catch is a Friday deadline after which federal authorities can legally move into the student loan field to replace unworkable state programs.

Other revisions of the program under the bill would:

Extend the program to vocational and technical school students.

Increase the loan guarantee limits from $1,000 to $1,500 a year for graduate study. Undergraduate ceiling would remain $1,000 a school year.

Extend insurance to loans by credit unions and insurance companies.

Authorize the state to administer federal loan programs in Ohio.

Make all loan contracts subject to the Federal Civil Rights Act of 1964.

The bill also would change the system's name from the Ohio Higher Education Association to the Ohio Student Loan Association.

Shoemaker 'Bares His Sole' During Meeting At Chester

Introduced by Lloyd Mansfield, Tridico presented an interesting talk on the shoe repair field. He first opened his shop in Chester Dec. 3, 1923.

At the age of seven, Tridico started to school to learn the trade, at a time when hog bristles were used for needles in the manufacture of shoes and it was customary for the shoemaker to go to the home to measure the customer's feet, the same as a tailor did for a tailor-made suit.

Work shoes were made with hobnails that stuck out a quarter of an inch, with the nails guaranteed to stay in place for a year.

In modern shoe manufacturing, the leather for the upper part of the shoe is cut out by dies, Tridico explained, but the shoes still are assembled by hand, one shoe at a time. All half soles were hand - sewn originally, but now they are machine-sewn.

Tridico closed his talk with a quote known to all shoemen, "The first part of a shoe is the last."

A. Thayer Allison, president, presided and John William Boyd gave the invocation. Sixteen were present.

The club welcomed back Russ Davis and Eugene Boyce, members who have been ill.

225 Take Part In Reception Honoring Mrs. Wambaugh

The East Liverpool Business and Professional Women's Club hosted a reception Sunday afternoon at the Inn Town Motel honoring Mrs. Ethel Wambaugh, recently installed as president of the Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

About 225 attended, with out-of-town guests from Columbus, Youngstown, Lisbon, Salem, Canton, Dover, New Philadelphia, Cleveland and Washington, D. C.

In the receiving line with Mrs. Wambaugh were Mrs. Ethel Cowan of Xenia, immediate past state president, and state officers, Mrs. Naomi Carter of Mansfield, second vice president; Mrs. Esther Westgate of Akron, third vice president; Mrs. Elizabeth Yerian of Jackson, recording secretary, and Mrs. Virginia Nickell of Dennison, treasurer, and directors throughout the state, including Mrs. Evelyn Thomas of Youngstown, director of District 8, of which the local club is a member.

Mrs. Wambaugh received gifts from the local unit, the district and other friends.

Guests were greeted by officers of the Nike Club, the civic participation committee was in charge of registration and the current officers served as hostesses.

The buffet table was centered with "Nike" the Grecian symbol of winged victory. A floral arrangement of yellow roses, baby breath and mums was banked around the figurine. The buffet table was covered with a lace cloth and highlighted with silver candelabra, a tea service and punch bowl. Officers and past presidents presided.

The one man who encountered his neighbor was in his 40's and was about 5 foot 5. The other two were younger, one blond, the other dark - haired. They ran north on Wayne St. to escape.

Police said nothing was taken from the store, although there were three empty boxes on the floor which the trio had apparently planned to use to carry loot.

25 Attend Discussion

COLUMBIANA — Twenty - five attended a special meeting for 4-H saddle horse club members Tuesday evening at the Ronald Streng farm here.

Dr. Russell Stryffeler, local veterinarian, discussed the health and care of horses. Henry Long of Lisbon R. D. 5 showed a film, "They're Off and Running."

A similar meeting is planned for 8 p. m. Thursday at the Henry Long farm on County Rd. 414, north of Lisbon.

never did get out names; but, we got his."

MRS. SMITH said one of the women later got a telephone call from Chief Sheriff's Deputy Arnie Durham saying he and the sheriff had been in Charleston yesterday and conferred with the governor on the matter. "They told us they talked with the governor and to disperse on the main street," Mrs. Smith said, "and they promised something would be done"."

This morning, Durham said he and Sheriff Joe Rodak were in Charleston over the weekend attending the sheriff's convention and talked with State Road Commissioner Burl Sawyer relative to the Grant St. situation. "He promised us some action," Durham said today, "and apparently we got it since the crews are up there now."

During their picketing, the housewives pointed out that children have been hurt while bicycle riding, that cars have been taking a body beating and that elder residents of the streets have been afraid to walk along the roadway for fear of injury.

The demand for repairs also was spearheaded by Mrs. Pat Burcham, Mrs. Peggy McGrew and Mrs. Laura Ann Fabro.

They, along with the children, blocked off the entrance to the street near Clark Field and rerouted traffic from the Homer Laughlin China Co.'s Plant 6 when the shift changed yesterday afternoon.

THE WOMEN claimed the West Virginia State Road Commission provides the funds and it is the county's responsibility to maintain the streets in Newell.

Years ago, they pointed out, residents paid to have the street fixed, but the job was never completed.

The road has not been touched for two years, they claim.

Mrs. Louise Cubberly, 87, a resident of 53 years on the stretch, said she never has seen the road as bad as at present.

The women also have been incensed because there are no speed limit signs and no signs warning of the playground nearby. In addition, one declared the signs near Wells Junior High School call for a 30-mile-an-hour speed limit one way and 40 miles an hour in the other direction. A bulldozer working on a construction site near 6th and Washington Sts. tore one speed limit sign down, they claim.

Some of the signs carried read: "Will the street be fixed? Where has all the tax money gone? Not on Grant St."

"Do we have to ask for federal aid from the Poverty Program"?" "The race track roads are fixed."

"To travel the road you must be a toad." And, "Aren't we part of Hancock County? Aren't we within your boundary?" One sign carried a picture of a horseshoe, with the comment, "We've got a ringer of a commissioner."

Awarded Contract

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP) — W. G. Lochart of Akron has been awarded the contract to build the Lorain County Regional Airport west of Elyria, it was reported Tuesday. Lochart submitted a low bid of $559,682. Construction is to start in July, officials said.

Shoemaker 'Bares His Sole' During Meeting At Chester

Introduced by Lloyd Mansfield, Tridico presented an interesting talk on the shoe repair field. He first opened his shop in Chester Dec. 3, 1923.

At the age of seven, Tridico started to school to learn the trade, at a time when hog bristles were used for needles in the manufacture of shoes and it was customary for the shoemaker to go to the home to measure the customer's feet, the same as a tailor did for a tailor-made suit.

Work shoes were made with hobnails that stuck out a quarter of an inch, with the nails guaranteed to stay in place for a year.

In modern shoe manufacturing, the leather for the upper part of the shoe is cut out by dies, Tridico explained, but the shoes still are assembled by hand, one shoe at a time. All half soles were hand - sewn originally, but now they are machine-sewn.

Tridico closed his talk with a quote known to all shoemen, "The first part of a shoe is the last."

A. Thayer Allison, president, presided and John William Boyd gave the invocation. Sixteen were present.

The club welcomed back Russ Davis and Eugene Boyce, members who have been ill.

The East Liverpool Business and Professional Women's Club hosted a reception Sunday afternoon at the Inn Town Motel honoring Mrs. Ethel Wambaugh, recently installed as president of the Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

About 225 attended, with out-of-town guests from Columbus, Youngstown, Lisbon, Salem, Canton, Dover, New Philadelphia, Cleveland and Washington, D. C.

In the receiving line with Mrs. Wambaugh were Mrs. Ethel Cowan of Xenia, immediate past state president, and state officers, Mrs. Naomi Carter of Mansfield, second vice president; Mrs. Esther Westgate of Akron, third vice president; Mrs. Elizabeth Yerian of Jackson, recording secretary, and Mrs. Virginia Nickell of Dennison, treasurer, and directors throughout the state, including Mrs. Evelyn Thomas of Youngstown, director of District 8, of which the local club is a member.

Mrs. Wambaugh received gifts from the local unit, the district and other friends.

Reckman Amendment Adopted

State-Insured Loan Plan To Students Has Setback

By WILLIAM V. MERRIMAN
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — After sailing through the Ohio General Assembly with a unanimous push from the Senate, a bill co-sponsored by Sen. John Longsworth, R-Salem, to expand state - insured loans to college students hit rough water in the House Tuesday.

The big waves were stirred by State Rep. Robert F. Reckman, R-Hamilton, chief architect six years ago of machinery Longsworth and others were trying to modify.

The proposal finally passed without an opposing vote, but not before a Reckman amendment turned it off course and perhaps adrift.

TO MAKE the state - insured package more attractive to Ohio's lending institutions, sponsors wanted the state guarantee on the loans to students increased from its present 80 per cent to 100 per cent.

Arguing it would be a "bad idea to simply tell banks we'll bail you out" if a student defaults on his loan, Reckman succeeded without a vote to spare in persuading the House to set the guarantee at only 90 per cent.

Sponsors, apparently expecting the storm, received suport on the floor from Reps. Robert E. Levitt, R-Stark, and Kenneth B. Creasy, R - Delaware, but the countermove failed to head off Reckman's amendment, which passed 50-43.

Not in the habit of wasting words on the floor, Levitt simply had reminded the House the system hasn't been working because the majority of the state's financial institutions haven't participated.

EARLIER, Creasy cited figures showing that in the system's six years of operation, only 267 of the state's 555 banks made loans to students under the state program.

Further, he said, all but 10 savings and loan associations and 4 credit unions skirted the program.

Creasy contrasted the $13.6 million Ohio has underwritten in six years to $263 million underwritten in only nine years the New York system has been operating.

Sen. Ralph S. Regula, R-Navarre, chief sponsor of the bill, agreed after Tuesday's vote the bill's sponsors have two courses: To encourage the Senate to concur in the Reckman amendment or refuse, sending the bill into a conference committee.

The catch is a Friday deadline after which federal authorities can legally move into the student loan field to replace unworkable state programs.

Other revisions of the program under the bill would:

Extend the program to vocational and technical school students.

Increase the loan guarantee limits from $1,000 to $1,500 a year for graduate study. Undergraduate ceiling would remain $1,000 a school year.

Extend insurance to loans by credit unions and insurance companies.

Authorize the state to administer federal loan programs in Ohio.

Make all loan contracts subject to the Federal Civil Rights Act of 1964.

The bill also would change the system's name from the Ohio Higher Education Association to the Ohio Student Loan Association.

Wellsville Society

Miss Ruth Urie LE 2-2288

Six members of Wellsville Chapter 417, Order of Eastern Star, were presented 40-year pins during the birthday party Monday night in the Masonic Temple.

Present to receive pins were Mrs. Mary Mann, Mrs. Jennie Calhoun, Mrs. Verna Hammond and Mrs. Betty Hardman, who represented her mother-in-law, Mrs. Louise Hardman. Pins will be sent to Mrs. Hazel G. Smith and Mrs. Inez Bennett Bodenhiemer of Florida, who were unable to be present.

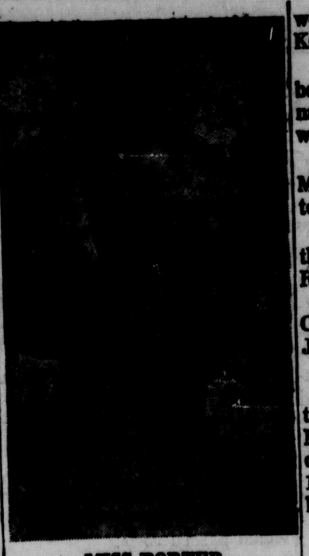

Mrs. Frances Dornick, worthy matron in 1921, was assisted in the presentation by Mrs. Eva McCombs, 50-year member. Those receiving pins wore red satin roses and Mrs. Dornick wore a white orchid, a gift of those initiated by her. Mrs. Nancy Palmer, worthy matron, and Robert Hays, worthy patron, presided.

Sixteen past matrons and one past patron were present. The initiation ceremony was exemplified for two candidates. The East was decorated by a hand-tooled backwards clock on a red, white and blue drape. This was a surprise gift for the worthy matron from her husband, Franklin Palmer. In the West was a mosaic of the United States flag in crepe paper in keeping with June as flag month.

The worthy matron, in celebrating the chapter's birthday of June 10, 1919, had all members present read a birthday addenda for months of the year. Each member received a gift from the worthy matron for her birthday month after which everyone sang "Happy Birthday" for the chapter's anniversary.

Mrs. Palmer announced the calendar for the summer. Aug.

MISS PORTER
Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Burford Koos of Armstrong Ln. announce the engagement of her daughter, Miss Candace Sue Porter, to Andrew Lewis Morrison.

The engagement was made known at a luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the Country Club given by Mrs. J. Nessly Porter and Mrs. James B. Nance, grandmother and aunt of the bride-to-be.

Miss Porter is the daughter of the late Winston A. Porter. A graduate of Duke University, he served as president of the Globe Brick Co.

A graduate of Kingswood School Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills, Mich., Miss Porter has just completed her sophomore year at Duke University and will transfer next year to Butler University, Indianapolis, Ind. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta national sorority.

Her fiance, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Morrison of Indianapolis, was graduated this year from Duke University, where he was affiliated with Phi Delta Theta national fraternity. He will continue his studies this fall at the Indiana University School of Medicine.

A late summer wedding is planned.

Miss Ruth Urie LE 2-2288

Six members of Wellsville Chapter 417, Order of Eastern Star, were presented 40-year pins during the birthday party Monday night in the Masonic Temple.

Present to receive pins were Mrs. Mary Mann, Mrs. Jennie Calhoun, Mrs. Verna Hammond and Mrs. Betty Hardman, who represented her mother-in-law, Mrs. Louise Hardman. Pins will be sent to Mrs. Hazel G. Smith and Mrs. Inez Bennett Bodenhiemer of Florida, who were unable to be present.

Mrs. Frances Dornick, worthy matron in 1921, was assisted in the presentation by Mrs. Eva McCombs, 50-year member. Those receiving pins wore red satin roses and Mrs. Dornick wore a white orchid, a gift of those initiated by her. Mrs. Nancy Palmer, worthy matron, and Robert Hays, worthy patron, presided.

Sixteen past matrons and one past patron were present. The initiation ceremony was exemplified for two candidates. The East was decorated by a hand-tooled backwards clock on a red, white and blue drape. This was a surprise gift for the worthy matron from her husband, Franklin Palmer. In the West was a mosaic of the United States flag in crepe paper in keeping with June as flag month.

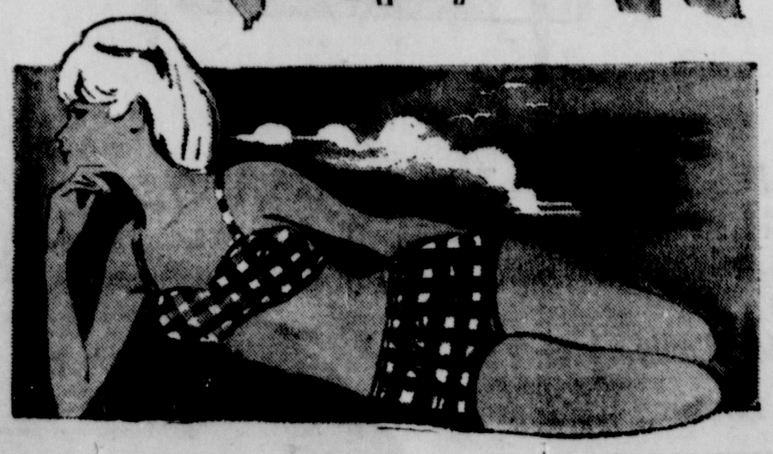

The worthy matron, in celebrating the chapter's birthday of June 10, 1919, had all members present read a birthday addenda for months of the year. Each member received a gift from the worthy matron for her birthday month after which everyone sang "Happy Birthday" for the chapter's anniversary.

Mrs. Palmer announced the calendar for the summer. Aug.

Couple Resides On Coast Following June 18 Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Steven Wayne Fickle have returned from a honeymoon at San Simeon and Yosemite, Calif., and are residing in Long Beach following their marriage June 18 in the Los Altos Methodist Church of Long Beach.

The bride was Miss Jo Ann Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Weaver of Long Beach. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leland Byron Fickle of Lakewood, former local residents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace designed with a square neckline and long, pointed sleeves. The bouffant overskirt of peau de soie was caught in scallop design by self roses revealing the lace skirt and chapel train.

A ROSE PETAL headpiece held her shoulder - length veil edged in Chantilly lace. She carried a white lace covered Bible, the gift of the bridegroom, topped with an arrangement of roses and stephanotis, centered with two white orchids.

In observing the traditions, she wore an heirloom necklace given to the bridegroom's mother by her late grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Barker Huffman of East Liverpool. The bride's father placed the "traditional last cent" in his daughter's shoe. The bridegroom wore a family heirloom ruby ring, belonging to his late grandfather, Clarence E. Huffman.

Miss Judy Rhodes of Inglewood, maid of honor, appeared in a full-length pink gown fashioned in Empire style. Her rose petal headpiece held a theater veil. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Don Roberts served as best man. Ushers were Thomas Weaver, brother of the bride, Bruce Vandenber and Thomas Bush. Charles Weaver, another brother of the bride, was acolyte.

The mother of the bride was attired in a beige lace dress and the bridegroom's mother, in pink lace. Both had corsages of hot pink rosebuds.

A RECEPTION for 250 followed in the social rooms, where Mrs. Sherri McDevitt Bergman, cousin of the bridegroom, served as an aide.

The bride is a registered nurse at the Long Beach Community Hospital. Her husband, who attended Glenmoor Elementary School, attends Long Beach City College and is employed by the Union Oil Co.

The bridegroom's parents entertained for the rehearsal dinner party. Aides were Mrs. Robert McDevitt and Mrs. Sarah Huffman, aunts of the bridegroom, Mrs. Virgil Burbick, his cousin, and Mrs. Dorla George.

Miss Susan Knapp Batey, John G. Starkey Are Wed

Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon Starkey are honeymooning in the Caribben Islands following their marriage Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

The bride was Miss Susan Knapp Batey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Willard Batey Jr. of Hill Blvd. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ellsworth Starkey of Henry Ave.

The Rev. H. Eugene Toot, assisted by the Rev. C. Marshall Muir of Sparta, N. J., uncle of the bridegroom, officiated for the double - ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

MISS BATEY chose a white embroidered silk organza gown, fashioned with a sleeveless, Empire - style bodice and jewel neckline. Venice lace edged the neckline, bodice and hemline. The controlled skirt had a removable train accented with lace. Her veil of silk illusion formed a snood pouf adorned with Venice lace appliques.

Miss Barbara Elizabeth Batey, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kathleen Powers Frisk of Meadville, Pa.; Miss Barrie Wuichet Smith, and Mrs. Lawrence Arthur Gilliland Jr. of Virginia Beach, sister of the bridegroom.

They were attired in floor - length dresses designed with white silk, sleeveless embroidered bodices, which featured high necklines and a contrasting gross - grain belt at the waistline. The A-line style skirts were of turquoise Saki. Their headpieces were Saki bows with bouffant veils.

Lt. Comdr. Lawrence Arthur Gilliland Jr. of Virginia Beach served as his brother-in-law's best man. Ushers were Gary Schreckengost and Charles Anthony Gerace of East Liverpool and John David Buzzard of Cleveland.

Crews Complete Repairs To Main, Turn To Hydrant

Repairs were completed Tuesday in a break in a 6-inch main and work was started this morning on a leaking hydrant at 13th St., according to Wellsville Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare.

The break in the main on the 1000-block of Main St. occurred when a check was being made of the hydrant at Main and Oak Alley at 10th St.

The bottom of the valve came loose, causing the water to halt and creating a shock which split the main.

The hydrant at 13th and Center Sts. failed to operate properly and in checking it the crew suddenly was faced with a torrent of water.

Both hydrants were plugged and repairs started immediately. The word on the second probably will be completed today.

Early inhabitants of Pennsylvania proclaimed that their state held together the great arch of the United States, extending from Georgia to Maine, hence the nickname "Keystone State."

Judge Sets Aside Jury's Verdict In Injury Action

LISBON — A jury verdict last March for the plaintiff in a traffic injury case was set aside by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard Monday in Common Pleas Court.

The court also vacated the $6,115 judgment entered for Joseph Hanko of Youngstown pursuant to the verdict and, on motion of defense counsel, entered judgment for the defendant, the Travelers Insurance Co., for its costs.

Judge Buzzard also sustained the defendant's motion for a new trial, but added "a new trial shall be had only in the event of a reversal of said judgment against the verdict."

Hanko's suit against the insurance company was his second attempt to recover damages for injuries received Oct. 20, 1961, in a collision between his car and a pickup truck driven by Collins James Bertram, formerly of Salem R. D. 4.

Hanko obtained a $5,835 default judgment against Bertram in a Common Pleas Court trial in May 1966, but was unable to collect anything.

His suit against Travelers was based on the fact that the truck, at the time of the collision, was titled in the name of Bud Shaffer Ford, Inc., of Salem and was under Travelers coverage.

Judge Bussard said, "The court finds that the defendant, the Travelers Insurance Co., is entitled by law to a judgment in its favor upon the evidence received at the trial."

Chester To Await State Opinion On Water Fund Step

Chester Mayor Burton Ward and Councilman Roy Cashdollar have held up on a trip to Charleston pending the state attorney general's opinion on fund procedure in the construction of a new emergency pump at the present east end pumping station.

The trip had been scheduled today following approval of the installation by the Water and Sewage Board during a meeting last week.

Ward and Cashdollar conferred with Edwin Flowers, the board's legal counsel, Tuesday afternoon and phoned the office of the sinking fund in Charleston, requesting approval of withdrawl of the money.

Ward said the attorney general's opinion is expected within a few days.

Among the diseases insects carry that are most harmful to man are typhoid, cholera, filariasis, sleeping sickness, dysentery and, possibly, even leprosy, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

SANDRA FALLORETTA
Engagement Revealed.

Wedding Plans Being Made By District Couple

Mrs. Eugenia Falloretta of Ambridge has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Sandra Falloretta, to Robert Dominici, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dominici of 403 Ohio Ave., Midland.

A graduate of Ambridge High School, Miss Falloretta received a bachelor of science degree this year at Clarion State College.

A 1961 graduate of Lincoln High School, her fiance is a 1966 graduate of Clarion State, where he also received a bachelor of science degree. He taught chemistry at Freedom High School last year and is presently a processing engineer at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

Miss Falloretta will teach in the Baden - Economy School District next term.

Slides Take Quota On Trip

Color slides of the West Coast and Hawaii were screened during the meeting of the Quota Club Tuesday night with Mrs. Margaret Locke of Broadview Circle.

H. Jud English, manager of the Columbiana County Motor Club, played the commentary he has taped, featuring a musical background. He was introduced by Mrs. Lucille Singer, program chairman.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Doris Locke, who is attending the international convention at Vancouver, British Colombia, Miss Selma Ladzinske, first vice president, presided.

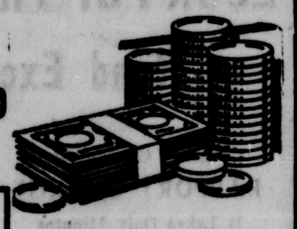

As chairman of the fall conference in Steubenville, Miss Ladzinske outlined plans and announced the preparation of a second "flyer" to be mailed to all members of District 6. She said Mrs. Peggy Mangano, chairman of "Fun Night," will call a meeting of her committee in the near future.

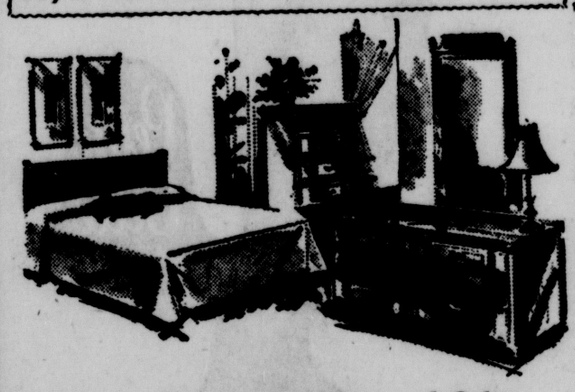

Refreshments were served 28 by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Mildred McKim. The buffet table was covered with a green scalloped cloth highlighted with green and white leaf appointments. The floral centerpiece, arranged in a wicker basket, was flanked by yellow, orange and beige tapers in silver candelabra. Miss Ladzinske poured at the silver punch bowl and Mrs. Jean Stoddard at the silver coffee service.

Mrs. Betty Harker Muccia of Jersey City, N. J., was a guest.

Plans for the annual picnic Aug. 22 will be announced.

The shell of the diatom, a tiny one - celled plant, is of silica, main ingredient of sand and glass. It consists of transparent halves, one fitting inside the other.

The court also vacated the $6,115 judgment entered for Joseph Hanko of Youngstown pursuant to the verdict and, on motion of defense counsel, entered judgment for the defendant, the Travelers Insurance Co., for its costs.

Judge Buzzard also sustained the defendant's motion for a new trial, but added "a new trial shall be had only in the event of a reversal of said judgment against the verdict."

Hanko's suit against the insurance company was his second attempt to recover damages for injuries received Oct. 20, 1961, in a collision between his car and a pickup truck driven by Collins James Bertram, formerly of Salem R. D. 4.

Hanko obtained a $5,835 default judgment against Bertram in a Common Pleas Court trial in May 1966, but was unable to collect anything.

His suit against Travelers was based on the fact that the truck, at the time of the collision, was titled in the name of Bud Shaffer Ford, Inc., of Salem and was under Travelers coverage.

Judge Bussard said, "The court finds that the defendant, the Travelers Insurance Co., is entitled by law to a judgment in its favor upon the evidence received at the trial."

Chester To Await State Opinion On Water Fund Step

Chester Mayor Burton Ward and Councilman Roy Cashdollar have held up on a trip to Charleston pending the state attorney general's opinion on fund procedure in the construction of a new emergency pump at the present east end pumping station.

The trip had been scheduled today following approval of the installation by the Water and Sewage Board during a meeting last week.

Ward and Cashdollar conferred with Edwin Flowers, the board's legal counsel, Tuesday afternoon and phoned the office of the sinking fund in Charleston, requesting approval of withdrawl of the money.

Ward said the attorney general's opinion is expected within a few days.

Among the diseases insects carry that are most harmful to man are typhoid, cholera, filariasis, sleeping sickness, dysentery and, possibly, even leprosy, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Slides Take Quota On Trip

Color slides of the West Coast and Hawaii were screened during the meeting of the Quota Club Tuesday night with Mrs. Margaret Locke of Broadview Circle.

H. Jud English, manager of the Columbiana County Motor Club, played the commentary he has taped, featuring a musical background. He was introduced by Mrs. Lucille Singer, program chairman.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Doris Locke, who is attending the international convention at Vancouver, British Colombia, Miss Selma Ladzinske, first vice president, presided.

As chairman of the fall conference in Steubenville, Miss Ladzinske outlined plans and announced the preparation of a second "flyer" to be mailed to all members of District 6. She said Mrs. Peggy Mangano, chairman of "Fun Night," will call a meeting of her committee in the near future.

Refreshments were served 28 by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Mildred McKim. The buffet table was covered with a green scalloped cloth highlighted with green and white leaf appointments. The floral centerpiece, arranged in a wicker basket, was flanked by yellow, orange and beige tapers in silver candelabra. Miss Ladzinske poured at the silver punch bowl and Mrs. Jean Stoddard at the silver coffee service.

Mrs. Betty Harker Muccia of Jersey City, N. J., was a guest.

Plans for the annual picnic Aug. 22 will be announced.

The shell of the diatom, a tiny one - celled plant, is of silica, main ingredient of sand and glass. It consists of transparent halves, one fitting inside the other.

subsidy included in the Steubenville firm's proposal. Several meetings were held in a vain quest for funds. Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper advised Council on several occasions that no contract could be awarded unless the required funds were "on hand or in the process of collection."

The next concrete development came Monday night, when Council reversed its earlier tentative decision and voted, 5-2, to grant a contract to the Lynn Ambulance Co. of East Liverpool, of which Mrs. Patricia Walker is president. The Lynn company's proposal called for a $600-a-month subsidy. No formal action has been taken to award a contract to the Lynn concern.

The mayor said the letter from the Steubenville law firm will be referred to the solicitor.

The attorney wrote in part:

"It appears to us that your City Council approved granting Ambulance Service, Inc., a franchise for ambulance service in your community on June 9, 1967, and based upon said granting of this franchise, Mr. D'Anniballe had purchased additional equipment and incurred added expense in an attempt to prepare his company in carrying out the duties which said franchise warranted.

"It is our opinion that the franchise granted to Mr. D'Anniballe's company on June 9, 1967, is valid and that the actions by the City Council granting said franchise to an additional company are illegal. We feel that we should be given an opportunity to discuss this matter more fully before instituting any legal action against the City of East Liverpool for violation of the contract and for expenses incurred, based upon the granting of said franchise.

"We trust that your legal representative or the proper committee will contact us immediately to discuss this matter."

Hancock Case Upheld By W. Va. High Court

CHARLESTON (AP) — The West Virginia Supreme Court Tuesday upheld a verdict in which Hancock County Circuit Court awarded a West Liberty man a $9,500 judgement against the Pennsylvania Railroad for injuries suffered in a 1959 switching accident.

The award was won by Henry R. Sommerville, then a Weirton Steel Co. mill employe. He was eating lunch in a wooden fire shanty at Weirton Steel when malfunction of a switch caused a freight car to hit the shanty.

The Supreme Court split 4-1 in affirming the judgment, with Judge Fred H. Caplan writing the opinion for the majority. Judge Harlan M. Calhoun dissented then reserved the right to file a dissenting opinion.

The next concrete development came Monday night, when Council reversed its earlier tentative decision and voted, 5-2, to grant a contract to the Lynn Ambulance Co. of East Liverpool, of which Mrs. Patricia Walker is president. The Lynn company's proposal called for a $600-a-month subsidy. No formal action has been taken to award a contract to the Lynn concern.

The mayor said the letter from the Steubenville law firm will be referred to the solicitor.

The attorney wrote in part:

"It appears to us that your City Council approved granting Ambulance Service, Inc., a franchise for ambulance service in your community on June 9, 1967, and based upon said granting of this franchise, Mr. D'Anniballe had purchased additional equipment and incurred added expense in an attempt to prepare his company in carrying out the duties which said franchise warranted.

"It is our opinion that the franchise granted to Mr. D'Anniballe's company on June 9, 1967, is valid and that the actions by the City Council granting said franchise to an additional company are illegal. We feel that we should be given an opportunity to discuss this matter more fully before instituting any legal action against the City of East Liverpool for violation of the contract and for expenses incurred, based upon the granting of said franchise.

"We trust that your legal representative or the proper committee will contact us immediately to discuss this matter."

Hancock Case Upheld By W. Va. High Court

CHARLESTON (AP) — The West Virginia Supreme Court Tuesday upheld a verdict in which Hancock County Circuit Court awarded a West Liberty man a $9,500 judgement against the Pennsylvania Railroad for injuries suffered in a 1959 switching accident.

The award was won by Henry R. Sommerville, then a Weirton Steel Co. mill employe. He was eating lunch in a wooden fire shanty at Weirton Steel when malfunction of a switch caused a freight car to hit the shanty.

The Supreme Court split 4-1 in affirming the judgment, with Judge Fred H. Caplan writing the opinion for the majority. Judge Harlan M. Calhoun dissented then reserved the right to file a dissenting opinion.

Pirates Bat Out Of Order As Mets Bat Out 5-2 Win

The first act proved more profitable. At least several of the Pirates earned $100 each for it. They didn't get anything for the second act except a lot of confusion and a 5-2 loss to the New York Mets.

In the pre-game festivities, the Pirates and Mets acted out a triple play for a scene in the movie, "The Odd Couple," which stars Matthau as a sloppy sports writer and Lemmon as his roommate who is obsessed with cleanliness.

In the scene, Bill Mazeroski—subbing for Roberto Clemente who rejected the $100 role—hits into the triple play.

In the game, the bizarre festivities centered around the part of the Pirate line-up that followed Mazeroski, the No. 5 hitter in the batting order.

In less zany National League games San Francisco blanked St. Louis 6-0, Atlanta clobbered Houston 13-5, Los Angeles whipped Cincinnati 9-0 and Philadelphia stopped Chicago 4-2.

The odd incident in the Pirate-Met gane came in the third inning after Jose Pagan cut the New York lead to 5-2 with a two-run double. As Jim Pagliarone stepped into the batter's box, Mets Manager Wes Westrum emerged from the dugout.

"He did?" Barlick asked, somewhat surprised.

"Yes," Westrum coolly replied.

Indeed Pagan had batted out of turn. So had Gene Alley, who preceded Pagan with the second out in the inning.

As the puzzle became unraveled, the participants learned that in the official line-up handed Barlick and Westrum before the game, Pagan was listed as the sixth batter and Alley the seventh. But in the line-up listed on the scoreboard, Alley was No. 6 and Pagan No. 7.

And, unfortunately for the Pirates, they were following the scoreboard even though the correct, official line-up was posted in their dugout.

How did the scoreboard happen to be wrong? It seems a Pirate broadcaster asked Walker before the game for his line-up, and Walker reeled off—as it turned out, incorrectly—a batting order with Pagan following Alley.

"There were six million people asking me for my line-up," Walker said afterward. "I'll never give it out that way again."

The broadcaster, in the course of conversation, relayed the line-up to the man responsible for putting it on the scoreboard. So there it was.

Met coach Sheriff Robinson caught the discrepancy, but Westrum let it go through the first two innings when the reversal of Alley and Pagan did the Mets no harm.

The turn of events enabled the Mets to hold onto the victory behind a four-run first-inning outburst, capped by Ron Swoboda's three-run homer.

Sutton Told To 'Throw The Ball,' And He Did

CINCINNATI (AP) — They told Don Sutton to stop worrying about his delivery and just throw the ball. And, boy, is he throwing it.

The 22-year-old righthander made only 110 pitches Tuesday night as he led the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 9-0 victory over the faltering Cincinnati Reds. John Roseboro drove in four runs with a pair of doubles and the Dodgers cracked a total of 13 hits.

"This was the best game I have pitched this year," Sutton said after his second shutout of the season. "It's hard to say when I was faster and hard to say why I was faster. I just don't know."

"I was told to forget the follow-through and forget about form and just throw the ball. It's been working."

Sutton struck out 11 Reds and gave up just two hits—a first-inning single by Floyd Robinson and a fifth-inning single through the box by Tommy Helms. Nobody else got on base.

"I wasn't trying for strikeouts. I was trying to stay relaxed and get ahead of every batter," explained Sutton.

The victory boosted Sutton's record to 5-9. It was the second time in a row the Reds have been shut out. The Reds have now lost 10 of their last 13 games, while the Dodgers are riding a four-game winning streak.

Sutton got plenty of help from his teammates. The Dodgers loaded the bases in the first on a single, a double and a walk. Starter Sammy Ellis (5-4) then walked in a run and Roseboro knocked in three runs with a double to right center.

The Los Angeles catcher doubled again with two on in the third, but Ron Fairly was thrown out at the plate after running all the way from first base.

Lawyers Lose On 11 Errors To Seiferth's

The Lawyers committed 11 errors to open the door for Seiferth's which scored an 8-5 victory Tuesday in the Colt League.

Both teams scored three runs in the first inning but the errors caught up to the Lawyers in the second frame when Seiferth's scored three more then added two in the seventh.

Bernie Lovejoy was the winning pitcher but the Lawyers outhit Seiferth's 6 to 4. Bruce Diddle was the losing pitcher and the victim of the shabby fielding. Eckles had two hits for the Lawyers.

Al Kaline Breaks Hand; Robinson, Weis Among Other AL Players Hurt

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Yastrzemski had the sniffles today after returning to the Boston Red Sox' lineup in Tuesday night's 3-2 victory over Minnesota. But Al Kaline and Frank Robinson, the other two-thirds of the AL All-Star outfield, were far less fortunate.

Kaline, Detroit's injury-prone superstar, all but knocked himself out of the July 11 classic when he broke his right hand in a rare fit of temper during the slumping Tigers' 0-1 loss to Cleveland.

In Tuesday night's other AL games the Washington Senators drubbed California 9-4 and the New York Yankees edged Kansas City 2-1 after losing their doubleheader opener 10-2.

Kaline, struck out by Cleveland's Sam McDowell in the sixth inning, returned to the dugout and slammed his bat into the bat rack, fracturing a metacarpal bone in his hand. He'll be out two or three weeks, according to Dr. Russell Wright, the Tigers' physician.

The 32-year-old outfielder, who led All-Star balloting with 242 of a possible 247 votes, was hitting .328, with 15 homers and 53 runs batted in. His freak injury, coupled with Detroit's month-long slump, dampens Tiger hopes for their first pennant since 1945.

McDowell scattered eight hits and Chico Salmon drove in four runs with two doubles and a homer as the Indians extended Detroit's losing string to four games.

Robinson and Weis were injured when the Baltimore star slid into second base, breaking up a double play in the fourth inning. Robinson lay unconscious for five minutes. Both players then were sent to Baltimore's Sinai Hospital for X rays.

Robinson suffered a concussion and contusions over his left eye brow. He had trouble recalling the collision and was hospitalized overnight as a precautionary measure. He will be held out of the Orioles' line-ups for at least two days.

Weis was to fly back to Chicago today for immediate surgery. His injuries were diagnosed as a torn medial collateral ligament and a torn anterial cruciate ligament, both in the left knee.

"This takes away the taste of victory," Manager Eddie Stanky said after Joe Horlen, 9-1, had checked the Orioles on five hits. "I'd rather lose five games and have Weis."

Rookie Gary Wanlewski posted his first victory in the majors, collaborating with reliever John Wyatt on a four-hitter as the Red Sox slipped past the Twins. Yastrzemski played 5⅓ innings after missing Monday night's game because of his heavy cold.

Tony Conigliaro clubbed a two-run homer off loser Dean Chance in the first inning and the Red Sox added a run in the seventh on singles by Jerry Adair, Bob Tillman and Reggie Smith. Tony Oliva homered for Minnesota in the second inning and singled across another run in the ninth against Wyatt.

Ken McMullen's three - run homer and a pair of bases-empty blasts by rookie Mike Epstein powered the Senators' 17-hit attack against the Angels. Paul Casanova had a single, double and triple for Washington as the AL tailenders ended right-hander Jim McGlothlin's winning string at five.

Jim "Catfish" Hunter pitched a three-hitter and Danny Cater drove in four runs with a single and double as the A's snapped New York's four-game victory streak in the opener at Kansas City.

The Yankees rebounded behind the five-hit pitching of Joe Verbanic and three relievers to gain a split. Horace Clarke and Dick Howser stroked run-scoring singles and left-hander Steve Hamilton stopped a KC comeback with 1 1-3 innings of clutch relief.

Grand Slam Was No. 11 In Hank Aaron's Career

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Hank Aaron has hit more grand-slam homers than any other active major leaguer, but the four-run blasts come so rare even for the Atlanta slugger that he couldn't remember when he hit his 10th.

"I don't remember whether I hit one last year or not," Aaron said after his bases-loaded clout ignited the Braves' 13-5 conquest of Houston Tuesday night.

The third-inning shot, 423 feet into the center field stands, was the 11th grand-slam of Aaron's career, breaking him out of a tie for the active player's lead with Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs.

Aaron added a two-run shot in the eighth inning, giving him the National League lead in homers with 20 for the season.

"I think maybe I hit a grand-slam against Pittsburgh last year, but I'm not sure," Aaron said. "I don't keep up with those things."

A check of the records showed that the 10th four-run blow by Aaron was June 8, 1966, against the New York Mets, when he also hit a two-run homer.

"Homers come like that, in streaks," said Aaron, who probably will be named to the National League All-Star team for the 13th straight year.

"You don't get very many chances for grand-slam homers, that's why even the good hitters have so few in their career," Aaron said. "I imagine I only come up four of five times a season with the bases loaded."

Told that he still has less than half of the all-time high of 23 set by the late Lou Gehrig of the New York Yankees, Aaron said "I'll never catch him. There's no way I could get that many. There just isn't enough opportunities."

Aaron's two homers and an infield single boosted his batting average to .327 and gave him 53 runs batted in, one behind Houston's Jim Wynn.

Win Is First For McDowell In Four Weeks

DETROIT (AP) — Tuesday night's opener of a three-game series in Detroit was a morale-booster for the Cleveland Indians and a morale-buster for the Tigers, who lost 8-1.

The lift for the Indians was the performance of Sam McDowell, who went all the way, fanned nine and walked only one in winning his first game in four weeks.

The blow to the Tigers was linked to Sam's success — the loss of the Tigers' best hitter, Al Kaline, with a fractured right hand.

Kaline was a McDowell strikeout victim twice, as was Detroit's other all-star representative, Bill Freehan. After his sixth-inning whiff, Kaline slammed his bat into the dugout rack, and his hand struck the rack.

McDowell, now 4 - 6, needed about 30 fewer pitches than his norm, using only 134. Detroit got its only run in the second inning. Willie Horton singled, moved to third on a wild pitch and ground out, and scored on Norm Cash's single.

With his first home run of the year in the eighth against reliever Hank Aguirre and a pair of doubles, Chico Salmon drove in half of the Indians' eight runs.

Singles by Fred Whitfield and Max Alvis opened a four-run second inning for the Indians. Whitfield scored on a wild pitch, and Alvis got to third when Freehan threw wild to Wilson at the plate. A walk to Duke Sims then set the stage for Salmon's two-run double, and Chico made it around later on a passed ball and Larry Brown's sacrifice.

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Yastrezemski had the sniffles today after returning to the Boston Red Sox' lineup in Tuesday night's 3-2 victory over Minnesota. But Al Kaline and Frank Robinson, the other two-thirds of the AL All-Star outfield, were far less fortunate.

Kaline, Detroit's injury-prone superstar, all but knocked himself out of the July 11 classic when he broke his right hand in a rare fit of temper during the slumping Tigers' 0-1 loss to Cleveland.

In Tuesday night's other AL games the Washington Senators drubbed California 9-4 and the New York Yankees edged Kansas City 2-1 after losing their doubleheader opener 10-2.

Kaline, struck out by Cleveland's Sam McDowell in the sixth inning, returned to the dugout and slammed his bat into the bat rack, fracturing a metacarpal bone in his hand. He'll be out two or three weeks, according to Dr. Russell Wright, the Tigers' physician.

The 32-year-old outfielder, who led All-Star balloting with 242 of a possible 247 votes, was hitting .328, with 15 homers and 53 runs batted in. His freak injury, coupled with Detroit's month-long slump, dampens Tiger hopes for their first pennant since 1945.

McDowell scattered eight hits and Chico Salmon drove in four runs with two doubles and a homer as the Indians extended Detroit's losing string to four games.

Robinson and Weis were injured when the Baltimore star slid into second base, breaking up a double play in the fourth inning. Robinson lay unconscious for five minutes. Both players then were sent to Baltimore's Sinai Hospital for X rays.

Robinson suffered a concussion and contusions over his left eye brow. He had trouble recalling the collision and was hospitalized overnight as a precautionary measure. He will be held out of the Orioles' line-ups for at least two days.

Weis was to fly back to Chicago today for immediate surgery. His injuries were diagnosed as a torn medial collateral ligament and a torn anterial cruciate ligament, both in the left knee.

"This takes away the taste of victory," Manager Eddie Stanky said after Joe Horlen, 9-1, had checked the Orioles on five hits. "I'd rather lose five games and have Weis."

Rookie Gary Waslewski posted his first victory in the majors, collaborating with reliever John Wyatt on a four-hitter as the Red Sox slipped past the Twins. Yastrzemski played 5½ innings after missing Monday night's game because of his heavy cold.

Tony Conigliaro clubbed a two-run homer off loser Dean Chance in the first inning and the Red Sox added a run in the seventh on singles by Jerry Adair, Bob Tillman and Reggie Smith. Tony Oliva homered for Minnesota in the second inning and singled across another run in the ninth against Wyatt.

Ken McMullen's three - run homer and a pair of bases-empty blasts by rookie Mike Epstein powered the Senators' 17-hit attack against the Angels. Paul Casanova had a single, double and triple for Washington as the AL tailenders ended right-hander Jim McGlothlin's winning string at five.

Jim "Catfish" Hunter pitched a three-hitter and Danny Cater drove in four runs with a single and double as the A's snapped New York's four-game victory streak in the opener at Kansas City.

The Yankees rebounded behind the five-hit pitching of Joe Verbanic and three relievers to gain a split. Horace Clarke and Dick Howser stroked run-scoring singles and left-hander Steve Hamilton stopped a KC comeback with 1 1-3 innings of clutch relief.

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Hank Aaron has hit more grand-slam homers than any other active major leaguer, but the four-run blasts come so rare even for the Atlanta slugger that he couldn't remember when he hit his 10th.

"I don't remember whether I hit one last year or not," Aaron said after his bases-loaded clout ignited the Braves' 13-5 conquest of Houston Tuesday night.

The third-inning shot, 423 feet into the center field stands, was the 11th grand-slam of Aaron's career, breaking him out of a tie for the active player's lead with Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs.

Aaron added a two-run shot in the eighth inning, giving him the National League lead in homers with 20 for the season.

"I think maybe I hit a grand-slam against Pittsburgh last year, but I'm not sure," Aaron said. "I don't keep up with those things."

A check of the records showed that the 10th four-run blow by Aaron was June 8, 1966, against the New York Mets, when he also hit a two-run homer.

"Homers come like that, in streaks," said Aaron, who probably will be named to the National League All-Star team for the 13th straight year.

"You don't get very many chances for grand-slam homers, that's why even the good hitters have so few in their career," Aaron said. "I imagine I only come up four of five times a season with the bases loaded."

Told that he still has less than half of the all-time high of 23 set by the late Lou Gehrig of the New York Yankees, Aaron said "I'll never catch him. There's no way I could get that many. There just isn't enough opportunities."

Aaron's two homers and an infield single boosted his batting average to .327 and gave him 53 runs batted in, one behind Houston's Jim Wynn.

Win Is First For McDowell In Four Weeks

DETROIT (AP) — Tuesday night's opener of a three-game series in Detroit was a morale-booster for the Cleveland Indians and a morale-buster for the Tigers, who lost 8-1.

The lift for the Indians was the performance of Sam McDowell, who went all the way, fanned nine and walked only one in winning his first game in four weeks.

The blow to the Tigers was linked to Sam's success — the loss of the Tigers' best hitter, Al Kaline, with a fractured right hand.

Kaline was a McDowell strikeout victim twice, as was Detroit's other all-star representative, Bill Freehan. After his sixth-inning whiff, Kaline slammed his bat into the dugout rack, and his hand struck the rack.

McDowell, now 4 - 6, needed about 30 fewer pitches than his norm, using only 134. Detroit got its only run in the second inning. Willie Horton singled, moved to third on a wild pitch and ground out, and scored on Norm Cash's single.

With his first home run of the year in the eighth against reliever Hank Aguirre and a pair of doubles, Chico Salmon drove in half of the Indians' eight runs.

Singles by Fred Whitfield and Max Alvis opened a four-run second inning for the Indians. Whitfield scored on a wild pitch, and Alvis got to third when Freehan threw wild to Wilson at the plate. A walk to Duke Sims then set the stage for Salmon's two-run double, and Chico made it around later on a passed ball and Larry Brown's sacrifice.

Junior Champ Defeats Foe In Opening Round

Playing the 6,258-yard Possum Run Golf Club course, Colla defeated Dick Mast of Bluffton 1 up.

The field was cut to 160 golfers after opening round play. Two 18-hole rounds were scheduled today.

Bob Moock of Canton, last Friday's medalist, defeated Roy Pressler of Akron 4 and 3. Hartzell "Spike" Jones of Cadiz, Monday's co-medalist, bested Jeff Thompson of Lima 6 and 4.

Monday's other co - medalist, Lorin Dickinson of Niles, was tripped up in the opening round. He lost 2 and 1 to Paul Finley of Uniontown.

Canadian Open Next Challenge Of Golfers

By BOB GREEN
)))sociated Press Sports Writer

MONTREAL (AP) — The Canadian Open Golf Championship, carrying a beefed up value of $200,000 and increased prestige, begins Thursday with Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus the co-favorites.

The site is the Montreal Muknicipal Course, 6-800-yard, par 71 layout and one of the very few municipal courses the pros see on their regular tour.

It has been refurbished and toughened for the tournament but remains flat and waterless and should pose few problems for the elite field.

"The course seems to be in good shape, but it could be better," said Jim Ferrier, a former PGA champ, long-time campaigner in this tournament and the last man to win consecutive Canadian titles, in 1950-51.

"There are still some bare spots on the greens, but they shouldn't cause any major problems. The biggest problems are going to be those little ridges and gullies," he said.

Ferrier was one of a handful of the top names to play a practice round Tuesday, with most of the major touring pros just checking in.

Among the late arrivals were Palmer, who claimed his first professional title in the Canadian Open in 1955; Billy Casper and Julius Brosos, each a two-time former U.S. Open champ; Nicklaus, the current U.S. Open king, and Kel Nagel, the former British Open champ.

Casper, Boros and young Frank Beard also rank as top challengers for the $30,000 first prize, with Nagel and Gary Player of South Africa heading the non-American foreign field. Don Massengale is the defending champion.

Al Balding and George Knudson are the major threats in a field of 26 Canadians. Balding, coming back from a shoulder operation, has been very impressive in recent outings. Knudson is the current Canadian top individual champion.

The field of 156 will cut to the low 70 and ties for the final two rounds Saturday and Sunday. If a playoff is necessary it will be over 18 holes Monday.

Canfield Sets July 4 Card

Stock car racing, fireworks, a tournament of thrills and a big destruction derby will feature a heavy program at Canfield Speedway during the July 4 holiday weekend.

On Saturday night, late models and the stock division will compete in 12 events. Heading the card will be two feature events, a 30-lapper for the late models and 20 laps for the stock division. To climax the Saturday session, Canfield will stage its annual fireworks display. Aerial bombs and beautiful colored displays will be the highlight.

All of the leading area pilots will be on hand for the stock events and drivers will be out to overhaul the point leaders, Frank Choura in the late model division, and Bobby Stambaugh of Niles in the stock division. Time trials are at 6:30 p. m. and first race at 8.

On Tuesday night, July 4, the 1967 tournament of thrills is scheduled to appear with a group of the nation's top stunt men displaying their skill and daring.

The 20 - event program features the Mustang Auto Daredevils, and every stunt possible in the way of daredevil driving will be attempted in the 2-hour show.

Highlight of the show will be the jumping of a new Mustang some 85 feet through the air, ramp-to-ramp. Action gets under way at 7:30 p.m. on July 4.

Parnelli Jones Feels Group Acted Unfairly

TORRANCE, Calif. (AP) — Race driver Parnelli Jones declared Tuesday the United States Auto Club acted unfairly in adopting a new formula for gas turbines such as the one which almost powered him to victory in the recent Indianapolis 500-mile classic.

Jones said he volunteered to testify before the USAC in its lengthy study of the controversial Turbocar. But, he said, despite his experience in the car, as well as vast experience with almost every other type of racing car, he was not invited to appear at the USAC sessions in Indianapolis, Ind.

"I have no ax to grind. I've driven the car. I've been paid," Jones said.

USAC's action, announced in Indianapolis Monday, restricts the air intake area from 25 to 15 inches and cuts the horsepower from 600 to 480.

Jones reiterated that horse power was not the factor. He pointed out that the other cars at Indy were faster than his on the straightaways and into the turns, but his vehicle by its handling did not have to slow down going into the turns and came out of them faster.

Jones' was within four laps of winning the 500 when he was forced out by gear box trouble.

Welsh Hurls 3-Hitter For Woodbine

The three-hit pitching of Rick Welsh gave Woodbine a 7-0 victory over Litten's in one Pony League contest while Burbick's whipped Sevy's 11-1 in a game called after six innings and played under protest from the second inning.

Welsh fanned eight batters in going the route while his teammates backed him with seven hits including a home run by Rick Lockhart and two hits by McHenry.

Woodbine scored twice in the first inning, three in the third and two in the sixth.

John Lockhart blasted a home run, double and single to drive in five runs in Burbick's victory over Sevy's as umpires stopped the game after six innings because of strong protests from Sevy's.

Burbick's soored once in the first inning then came up with five runs in the second frame. Seevers was the winning pitcher and limited Sevy's to four hits.

Gilchrist Is Included In Denver-Miami Trade

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Seven players went into an American Football League dice cup Tuesday, and when they stopped rolling Miami acquired three and four were traded to Denver, including the controversial fullback Cookie Gilchrist.

Gilchrist resigned from the Broncos last year in a huff over disagreements with management. The Broncos then traded him to Miami in midseason.

Gilchrist came to Denver from Buffalo—and was traded to the Broncos by then Buffalo coach Lou Saban, now head coach and general manager at Denver.

Saban said he expects no trouble from the often troublesome Cookie — "Cookie will have a job to do, and it will be his responsibility to do it."

In Miami, Wilson's father, the Dolphin coach, said he thinks the trade will give his son "more of an opportunity to show himself as a quarterback at Denver without being under the handicap of having his dad as his coach."

Saban said young Wilson is "a gutty fellow, the scrambling type who ran the ball 27 times for 137 yards last year, and will be given every opportunity to be our No. 1 quarterback in what will be a wide-open battle between a half dozen candidates."

Buckpasser Syndicated For Record

NEW YORK (AP) — Buckpasser, the 1966 thoroughbred Horse of the Year, has been syndicated for a record $4.8 million for stud duty in 1968.

Ogden Phipps, owner of the famed 4-year-old colt who has won more than $1.3 million, said 16 of 32 shares had been sold to prominent owners and breeders for $150,000 per share. Phipps said he was retaining the other 16 shares, or half interest.

The syndication will not become effective until the son of Tom Fool-Busanda passes a fertility test. He is scheduled to stand at the Claiborne farm of Arthur "Bull" Hancock in Lexington, Ky.

temporarily. Hal Lanier struck the big blow, a two-run double with the bases loaded in the fifth inning.

Hank Aaron smashed his 19th and 20th homers, a grand slam and a two-run blast, for Atlanta. Houston starter Wade Blasingame, a Brave until recently, walked three men before Aaron connected in the third.

Don Sutton set down Cincinnati on two hits and received solid support from batterymate John Roseboro, who drove in four runs with a pair of doubles.

The Phillies snapped Chicago's winning streak at seven games. Don Lock's three-run homer in the third did the heavy damage to the Cubs, and Rick Wise stymied them on three hits before needing relief help from Dick Hall in the seventh.

Laughlin, Searight Lead Hookstown Win

Sam Laughlin struck 13 batters and only gave up four hits as Hookstown defeated Hanover 8-3 in the South Side Senior League Tuesday.

Pirates Sign 4 More Of Free Agent Draft

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Four more players picked in the recent free agent draft have been signed by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Signed were right-handed pitcher Bob Buriegemma, 18, of San Francisco; infielder Tyrone Hines, 18, of Schenectady, N.Y.; outfielder Richard Zisk, 18, of Parsippany, N.J.; and first baseman Kenneth Stith, 19, of Westfield, N.J., the club said Tuesday.

Canadian Open Next Challenge Of Golfers

By BOB GREEN
)))sociated Press Sports Writer

MONTREAL (AP) — The Canadian Open Golf Championship, carrying a beefed up value of $200,000 and increased prestige, begins Thursday with Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus the co-favorites.

The site is the Montreal Muknicipal Course, 6-800-yard, par 71 layout and one of the very few municipal courses the pros see on their regular tour.

It has been refurbished and toughened for the tournament but remains flat and waterless and should pose few problems for the elite field.

"The course seems to be in good shape, but it could be better," said Jim Ferrier, a former PGA champ, long-time campaigner in this tournament and the last man to win consecutive Canadian titles, in 1950-51.

"There are still some bare spots on the greens, but they shouldn't cause any major problems. The biggest problems are going to be those little ridges and gullies," he said.

Ferrier was one of a handful of the top names to play a practice round Tuesday, with most of the major touring pros just checking in.

Among the late arrivals were Palmer, who claimed his first professional title in the Canadian Open in 1955; Billy Casper and Julius Brosos, each a two-time former U.S. Open champ; Nicklaus, the current U.S. Open king, and Kel Nagel, the former British Open champ.

Casper, Boros and young Frank Beard also rank as top challengers for the $30,000 first prize, with Nagel and Gary Player of South Africa heading the non-American foreign field. Don Massengale is the defending champion.

Al Balding and George Knudson are the major threats in a field of 26 Canadians. Balding, coming back from a shoulder operation, has been very impressive in recent outings. Knudson is the current Canadian top individual champion.

The field of 156 will cut to the low 70 and ties for the final two rounds Saturday and Sunday. If a playoff is necessary it will be over 18 holes Monday.

Canfield Sets July 4 Card

Stock car racing, fireworks, a tournament of thrills and a big destruction derby will feature a heavy program at Canfield Speedway during the July 4 holiday weekend.

On Saturday night, late models and the stock division will compete in 12 events. Heading the card will be two feature events, a 30-lapper for the late models and 20 laps for the stock division. To climax the Saturday session, Canfield will stage its annual fireworks display. Aerial bombs and beautiful colored displays will be the highlight.

All of the leading area pilots will be on hand for the stock events and drivers will be out to overhaul the point leaders, Frank Choura in the late model division, and Bobby Stambaugh of Niles in the stock division. Time trials are at 6:30 p. m. and first race at 8.

On Tuesday night, July 4, the 1967 tournament of thrills is scheduled to appear with a group of the nation's top stunt men displaying their skill and daring.

The 20 - event program features the Mustang Auto Daredevils, and every stunt possible in the way of daredevil driving will be attempted in the 2-hour show.

Highlight of the show will be the jumping of a new Mustang some 85 feet through the air, ramp-to-ramp. Action gets under way at 7:30 p.m. on July 4.

Parnelli Jones Feels Group Acted Unfairly

TORRANCE, Calif. (AP) — Race driver Parnelli Jones declared Tuesday the United States Auto Club acted unfairly in adopting a new formula for gas turbines such as the one which almost powered him to victory in the recent Indianapolis 500-mile classic.

Jones said he volunteered to testify before the USAC in its lengthy study of the controversial Turbocar. But, he said, despite his experience in the car, as well as vast experience with almost every other type of racing car, he was not invited to appear at the USAC sessions in Indianapolis, Ind.

"I have no ax to grind. I've driven the car. I've been paid," Jones said.

USAC's action, announced in Indianapolis Monday, restricts the air intake area from 25 to 15 inches and cuts the horsepower from 600 to 480.

Jones reiterated that horse power was not the factor. He pointed out that the other cars at Indy were faster than his on the straightaways and into the turns, but his vehicle by its handling did not have to slow down going into the turns and came out of them faster.

Jones' was within four laps of winning the 500 when he was forced out by gear box trouble.

Aaron Belts

temporarily. Hal Lanier struck the big blow, a two-run double with the bases loaded in the fifth inning.

Hank Aaron smashed his 19th and 20th homers, a grand slam and a two-run blast, for Atlanta. Houston starter Wade Blasingame, a Brave until recently, walked three men before Aaron connected in the third.

Don Sutton set down Cincinnati on two hits and received solid support from batterymate John Roseboro, who drove in four runs with a pair of doubles.

The Phillies snapped Chicago's winning streak at seven games. Don Lock's three-run homer in the third did the heavy damage to the Cubs, and Rick Wise stymied them on three hits before needing relief help from Dick Hall in the seventh.

Laughlin, Searight Lead Hookstown Win

Sam Laughlin struck 13 batters and only gave up four hits as Hookstown defeated Hanover 8-3 in the South Side Senior League Tuesday.

Pirates Sign 4 More Of Free Agent Draft

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Four more players picked in the recent free agent draft have been signed by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Signed were right-handed pitcher Bob Buriegemma, 18, of San Francisco; infielder Tyrone Hines, 18, of Schenectady, N.Y.; outfielder Richard Zisk, 18, of Parsippany, N.J.; and first baseman Kenneth Stith, 19, of Westfield, N.J., the club said Tuesday.

Welsh Hurls 3-Hitter For Woodbine

The three-hit pitching of Rick Welsh gave Woodbine a 7-0 victory over Litten's in one Pony League contest while Burbick's whipped Sevy's 11-1 in a game called after six innings and played under protest from the second inning.

Welsh fanned eight batters in going the route while his teammates backed him with seven hits including a home run by Rick Lockhart and two hits by McHenry.

Woodbine scored twice in the first inning, three in the third and two in the sixth.

John Lockhart blasted a home run, double and single to drive in five runs in Burbick's victory over Sevy's as umpires stopped the game after six innings because of strong protests from Sevy's.

Burbick's scored once in the first inning then came up with five runs in the second frame. Seevers was the winning pitcher and limited Sevy's to four hits.

Gilchrist Is Included In Denver-Miami Trade

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Seven players went into an American Football League dice cup Tuesday, and when they stopped rolling Miami acquired three and four were traded to Denver, including the controversial fullback Cookie Gilchrist.

Gilchrist resigned from the Broncos last year in a huff over disagreements with management. The Broncos then traded him to Miami in midseason.

Gilchrist came to Denver from Buffalo—and was traded to the Broncos by then Buffalo coach Lou Saban, now head coach and general manager at Denver.

Saban said he expects no trouble from the often troublesome Cookie — "Cookie will have a job to do, and it will be his responsibility to do it."

In Miami, Wilson's father, the Dolphin coach, said he thinks the trade will give his son "more of an opportunity to show himself as a quarterback at Denver without being under the handicap of having his dad as his coach."

Saban said young Wilson is "a gutty fellow, the scrambling type who ran the ball 27 times for 137 yards last year, and will be given every opportunity to be our No. 1 quarterback in what will be a wide-open battle between a half dozen candidates."

Buckpasser Syndicated For Record

NEW YORK (AP) — Buckpasser, the 1966 thoroughbred Horse of the Year, has been syndicated for a record $4.8 million for stud duty in 1968.

Ogden Phipps, owner of the famed 4-year-old colt who has won more than $1.3 million, said 16 of 32 shares had been sold to prominent owners and breeders for $150,000 per share. Phipps said he was retaining the other 16 shares, or half interest.

The syndication will not become effective until the son of Tom Fool-Busanda passes a fertility test. He is scheduled to stand at the Claiborne farm of Arthur "Bull" Hancock in Lexington, Ky.

"Thunderbolt" is not a racing tire, but a high performing quality tire that delivers dependable, "right-now" response plus reassuring safety at turnpike speeds – for all cars.
• 6 husky ribs and a deeper tread than comes on most new car tires
• Triple-tempered nylon cord for strength, durability and bruise resistance
• Goodyear's famous Tufsyn rubber for long mileage and extra tough body
• Sizes to fit compacts, standard and big cars

Potters, First National Claim Close Victories

First National Bank and Potters Bank & Trust won one-run decisions while Tri - State Appliance scored a 13-4 victory over Potters Savings & Loan in Minor League games Tuesday.

First National came up with a six-run fourth inning to gain an 11-10 edge over T. S. &T. with Carr the winning pither. Gene Bell led the winners with two hits. Reed and Huff had two hits each for T.S. & T.

Potters Bank & Trust rallied for four runs in the last of the sixth to post an 18-17 victory over M & A Motors. Mike Arthur was the winning hurler and Wolf the loser.

Jeff Laughlin's triple in the last inning provided the winning margin for Potters. Chuck Kitteridge and Tom Piatt had two doubles each for M & A.

Tigers Edge Dodgers

Bruce McIntosh had a perfect five-for-five night at the plate and was the winning pitcher as the No. 16 Tigers edged the Salineville Dodgers, 18-17, Tuesday in the HIHS League.

Chester Tops Newell

Chester scored an 11-7 victory over Newell in a Recreation Baseball League Tuesday. Rick Mountjoy was the winning pitcher and Don Carpenter and Rick Aaron paced the hitting attack. Ralph Martin homered and smacked two doubles for Newell.

Burbick's, Vernon Dell, Travelers Win LL Games

Burbick's outlasted the Medics for an 11-10 victory, Travelers Hotel blasted Golden Star, 13-3 and Vernon Dell was awarded a forfeit victory over Veteran Plate Glass in Tuesday's Little League games.

Clutter's double and three singles plus three hits by Rudy Jones and Ron Brown led Burbick's hitting attack. Burbick's outhit the Medic's 15-6 but only won by the slim margin.

Lockhart homered for the Medics while Williams and Moore had a double and single each.

Campbell was the winning pitcher for Travelers as he limited Golden Star to five hits. Travelers collected 11 hits including two each by Briggs and Boughner. Lomasters was the losing pitcher. Coplin had two hits for Golden Star.

Newell Man Wins Waterford Golf Title

Burkle received a trophy from Harry Besselink, pro at the course.

The tournament was the first conducted over the new Waterford golf course which opened earlier this month.

Yesterday's Stars

BATTING — Hank Aaron, Braves, hit a grand-slam homer and a two-run homer to take the National League lead with 20 and lead Atlanta to a 13-5 romp over Houston.

PITCHING — Don Sutton, Dodgers, checked Cincinnati on two hits and struck out 11 in a 9-0 victory over the Reds.

Clarke Sets World Mark For 2 Miles

VAESTERAAS, Sweden (AP) —Ron Clarke, Australia's durable track star, set a world record of 8:19.8 here Tuesday night. Now he plans to attempt to break his world mark of 3:16.6 for the 5,000 meters at Stockholm next week.

Clarke, a lean 29-year-old Aussie who was the first to crack the 28-minute barrier for the 10,000 meters and the 13-minute barrier for the three miles, was surprised after he learned of his record time in the two mile.

"Really?" he exulted. "It's fantastic. Of course I tried for a new world record, but I did not think I could manage it after some stomach ache earlier in the day." He blew kisses to the crowd of 5,000 and started a triumphant jog around the track.

Clarke's remarkable last lap of 59.8 seconds enabled him to break the listed world mark of 8:22.6 set by Michael Jazy of France in 1965. He finished far ahead of Lars Bergqvist, the runnerup timed in 8:56.5.

Clarke now holds six world records. In addition to the two-mile and 5,000 meters, he holds the three-mile at 12:50.4, the six miles at 26:47.0, the 10,000 at 27:39.4 and the 10 miles at 47:12.8.

1966 Champion Wins 1st Match In Women's Golf

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. John B. Whittacre of Canton, the defending champion, faced tough competition today going into the second round of the Women's Ohio State Golf Association Invitational Championship.

Mrs. Whitacre took the first step in defending her title Tuesday in the 44th annual affair by defeating Mrs. James Pickrel of Dayton, 1 up.

Today she was paired against Mrs. Frank Stranahan of Toledo, who dumped Sunny Moss of Cleveland, 4 and 2 in Tuesday's play over the rugged 5,979 - yard Scioto Country Club course.

Other Tuesday results and the Wednesday lineup:

Mrs. Betty Dillahunt, Springfield, defeated Mrs. H. A. Schwab Jr., Dayton, 2 and 1. Lida (fee Fee) Matthews, Portsmouth, defeated Jane Polli, Columbus, 2 and 1. Mrs. Dillahunt vs. Miss Matthews.

Mrs. John Fitton, Hamilton, defeated Pam Higgins, Columbus, 1 up in 19 holes. Carol Diringer, Tiffin, defeated Rose-Ann Schwartz, Cleveland, 2 and 1. Mrs. Fitton vs. Miss Diringer.

Mrs. Ned Oldham, Cleveland, defeated Mrs. C. W. Brewer, Columbus, 7 and 7. Anne Richardson, Columbus, defeated Mrs. N.S. Glauber, 5 and 4. Mrs. Oldham vs. Miss Richardson.

Giovenco's Loft Wins First Three Places

The East Liverpool Pigeon Club held its final race of the season, a distance of 500 miles from Vandalia, Ill. with the loft of Victor Giovenco winning the first three places.

Vickey was the winner with Guardrail second and Chicago Rambler third.

The young bird season will start Aug. 19.

The annual picnic will be held July 9 at East Palestine City Park.

Cornell's Crewmen Launch Regatta Bid

HENLEY-ON-THAMES (AP) — Cornell University, strongest American challenger, was to race Kingston Rowing Club of England today at the start of the four-day Henley Royal Regatta.

British rowing experts rate the powerful Cornell crew as favorite to retain the Thames Cup for the United States.

Harvard lightweights won last year, but have not returned to defend the title.

BATTING — Hank Aaron, Braves, hit a grand-slam homer and a two-run homer to take the National League lead with 20 and lead Atlanta to a 13-5 romp over Houston.

PITCHING — Don Sutton, Dodgers, checked Cincinnati on two hits and struck out 11 in a 9-0 victory over the Reds.

Clarke Sets World Mark For 2 Miles

VAESTERAAS, Sweden (AP) —Ron Clarke, Australia's durable track star, set a world record of 8:19.8 here Tuesday night. Now he plans to attempt to break his world mark of 3:16.6 for the 5,000 meters at Stockholm next week.

Clarke, a lean 29-year-old Aussie who was the first to crack the 28-minute barrier for the 10,000 meters and the 13-minute barrier for the three miles, was surprised after he learned of his record time in the two mile.

"Really?" he exulted. "It's fantastic. Of course I tried for a new world record, but I did not think I could manage it after some stomach ache earlier in the day." He blew kisses to the crowd of 5,000 and started a triumphant jog around the track.

Clarke's remarkable last lap of 59.8 seconds enabled him to break the listed world mark of 8:22.6 set by Michael Jazy of France in 1965. He finished far ahead of Lars Bergqvist, the runnerup timed in 8:56.5.

Clarke now holds six world records. In addition to the two-mile and 5,000 meters, he holds the three-mile at 12:50.4, the six miles at 26.47.0, the 10,000 at 27:39.4 and the 10 miles at 47:12.8.

1966 Champion Wins 1st Match In Women's Golf

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. John B. Whittacre of Canton, the defending champion, faced tough competition today going into the second round of the Women's Ohio State Golf Association Invitational Championship.

Mrs. Whitacre took the first step in defending her title Tuesday in the 44th annual affair by defeating Mrs. James Pickrel of Dayton, 1 up.

Today she was paired against Mrs. Frank Stranahan of Toledo, who dumped Sunny Moss of Cleveland, 4 and 2 in Tuesday's play over the rugged 5,979 - yard Scioto Country Club course.

Other Tuesday results and the Wednesday lineup:

Mrs. Betty Dillahunt, Springfield, defeated Mrs. H. A. Schwab Jr., Dayton, 2 and 1. Lida (fee Fee) Matthews, Portsmouth, defeated Jane Poili, Columbus, 2 and 1. Mrs. Dillahunt vs. Miss Matthews.

Mrs. John Fitton, Hamilton, defeated Pam Higgins, Columbus, 1 up in 19 holes. Carol Diringer, Tiffin, defeated Rose-Ann Schwartz, Cleveland, 2 and 1. Mrs. Fitton vs. Miss Diringer.

Mrs. Ned Oldham, Cleveland, defeated Mrs. C. W. Brewer, Columbus, 7 and 7. Anne Richardson, Columbus, defeated Mrs. N.S. Glauber, 5 and 4. Mrs. Oldham vs. Miss Richardson.

Giovenco's Loft Wins First Three Places

The East Liverpool Pigeon Club held its final race of the season, a distance of 500 miles from Vandalia, Ill. with the loft of Victor Giovenco winning the first three places.

Vickey was the winner with Guardrail second and Chicago Rambler third.

The young bird season will start Aug. 19.

The annual picnic will be held July 9 at East Palestine City Park.

Cornell's Crewmen Launch Regatta Bid

HENLEY-ON-THAMES (AP) — Cornell University, strongest American challenger, was to race Kingston Rowing Club of England today at the start of the four-day Henley Royal Regatta.

British rowing experts rate the powerful Cornell crew as favorite to retain the Thames Cup for the United States.

14 More Clubs Added To County 4-H Setup

LISBON — Columbiana County's 4-H program, which had 94 in 1966, has added 14 new clubs this year, according to Robert Lewis, county extension agent for 4-H work.

Nine of the new units are for girls, two for boys and three are mixed groups. Lewis said they were organized by county leaders, VISTA representatives, parents and other adults interested in promoting new forms of educational and recreational experiences for youth of the county.

Additional clubs will be organized during the summer, Lewis said.

Girls

Itchy Stitches — Mrs. Timothy Schaffer and Mrs. Marianne Board, both of Beloit R. D. 2.

Sunny Supremes — Mrs. Betty Goss, 1247 Erie St., and Mrs. W. H. Osborne, 1338 Etruria St., both of East Liverpolo.

Those Girls — Mrs. Oliver Spencer, 1234 Pennsylvania Ave., and Mrs. Daniel Barton, 1729 Holliday St., both of East Liverpool.

Three other girls' clubs were organized in East Liverpool and Wellsville, but have not yet selected names. Some of the advisers helping with the three are Mrs. R. E. Swogger, 1616 Holliday St.; Mrs. Lewis E. Browne, 1176 Harker Ave., and Mrs. Miriam Eckert, 954 St. George St., all of East Liverpool.

Boys

West Point Boys Club — Alva Thornhill, Lisbon R. D. 2.

Mixed Clubs

Quaker Valley Rangers—Mrs. James Redmond, Rogers R. D. 1.

Verbal Clash Breaks Out During Meeting In Hancock

Dr. Eli Weller, a board member, and Ronald Wilson, director of the Community Action, Council, were involved.

The exchange was touched off following Wilson's plea that the school continue a "Head Start" program.

Dr. Weller asked Wilson what he meant by the statements attributed to him following a recent meeting concerning de facto segregation.

Wilson said it is a "positive fact most Negroes attend Dunbar School and that this is a serious social and educational problem." Wilson further hinted he has received reports that some white students were attending Cove Elementary, when they should be attending Dunbar. He added hastily he has no proof of this, but if this is the case, it is wrong.

He did agree with Dr. Weller's contention that this is a geographical problem, but said, nevertheless, it should be remedied. Wilson said the "bussing" of some Dunbar students to other schools might solve the racial imbalance.

Dr. Weller pointed out to Wilson this does not concern the school board as the imbalance is a residential problem caused by geography and he does not think the bussing of students is an appropriate solution.

At this point, John Paul Jones, board president, called for the discussion to end. He further noted he has been made aware of this problem, but added he did not think this was the time or place to discuss it and suggested a separate meeting involving more than just those present should be held.

Dr. Weller interrupted, asserting he was only trying to get to the bottom of the supposed statements and he reiterated it was not a board problem, but one of geography.

Jones replied the board was not prepared to discuss the matter and then told Dr. Weller, "You have placed me in an embarrassing position as well as every member of the board." He also said he believed Dr. Weller should apologize to both the board members and the press.

Dr. Weller said he saw no need to apologize for what he had said.

Girl, 19, Waits Arraignment In Slaying Of Two

FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—Sandra Bourne, 19, of Sandusky is in jail awaiting arraignment on four counts of murder in the shooting deaths of two persons last New Year's.

Everett Lloyd Johns, 27, of Sandusky also is charged with the slaying of Mrs. Anna Mae Kuhns, 53, of Clyde, and Galen Lorenz, 39, of Fremont.

Johns and Miss Bourne were indicted secretly by the Sandusky County Grand Jury for first-degree murder and first-degree murder with intent to commit robbery in each death.

Miss Bourne and Johns were taken to Lucas County Jail in Toledo from Dade County Jail in Miami, Fla., and then were transferred to the Sandusky County Jail here. Miss Bourne arrived here Tuesday. Johns has been here since June 16. They were arrested in Florida on forgery and auto theft charges.

Lorenz and Mrs. Kuhns were seen alive last New Year's Eve at a tavern near Clyde, officers said. They were found New Year's day in a ditch near Clyde. Both had been shot in the head.

Three More Ohioans Victims Of Viet War

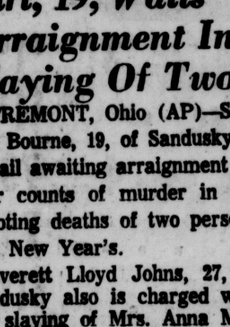

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Department of Defense listed Tuesday three Ohioans as casualties in the Vietnam War.

Killed in action were Army Pfc. Stephen A. Mika, husband of Mrs. Janice A. Mika, 443 River Rd., Willoughby, and Marine Lance Cpl. Michael D. Perkins, son of Mrs. Mary J. McCall, Columbus.

Previously listed as missing and now known to have died as the result of hostile action was Army Spec. 4 Robert J. Jindra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Jindra, 30005 Regent Rd., Wickliffe.

Girl, 19, Waits Arraignment In Slaying Of Two

FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—Sandra Bourne, 19, of Sandusky is in jail awaiting arraignment on four counts of murder in the shooting deaths of two persons last New Year's.

Everett Lloyd Johns, 27, of Sandusky also is charged with the slaying of Mrs. Anna Mae Kuhns, 53, of Clyde, and Galen Lorenz, 39, of Fremont.

Johns and Miss Bourne were indicted secretly by the Sandusky County Grand Jury for first-degree murder and first-degree murder with intent to commit robbery in each death.

Miss Bourne and Johns were taken to Lucas County Jail in Toledo from Dade County Jail in Miami, Fla., and then were transferred to the Sandusky County Jail here. Miss Bourne arrived here Tuesday. Johns has been here since June 16. They were arrested in Florida on forgery and auto theft charges.

Lorenz and Mrs. Kuhns were seen alive last New Year's Eve at a tavern near Clyde, officers said. They were found New Year's day in a ditch near Clyde. Both had been shot in the head.

Three More Ohioans Victims Of Viet War

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Department of Defense listed Tuesday three Ohioans as casualties in the Vietnam War.

Killed in action were Army Pfc. Stephen A. Mika, husband of Mrs. Janice A. Mika, 443 River Rd., Willoughby, and Marine Lance Cpl. Michael D. Perkins, son of Mrs. Mary J. McCall, Columbus.

Previously listed as missing and now known to have died as the result of hostile action was Army Spec. 4 Robert J. Jindra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Jindra, 30005 Regent Rd., Wickliffe.

No One Injured In Area Mishaps

No one was injured in a sideswipe mishap on the Freeway extension north of the city at 1 a. m., the Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

George Edward Grafton, 63, of 460 14th St., Wellsville, was headed south in a 1961 station wagon and attempted to overtake and pass a tractor - trailer rig operated by Sam Bert, 51, of Washington, Pa.

Hawkins was headed south when his car collided with an oncoming auto driven by Richard J. Loshinsky, 18, of Lisbon R. D. 4.

Utility Workers End Strike At Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Utility Workers Local 270 ended its 58-day - old strike against the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. Tuesday by ratifying a contract 1,076 to 772.

Operating, maintenance and construction employes were due back on their first regularly scheduled shifts today, a CEI spokesman said.

The work stoppage started May 1 and affected 2,300 employes. The only previous strike against CEI lasted a week in 1957.

Agreement was reached Saturday after a 16-hour bargaining session with federal mediators. The agreement calls for hourly raises of from 17 to 25 cents.

$1.6 Million Released For Cleveland Marina

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Funds for construction of a $1.6 million marina in Cleveland were released Tuesday by the State Controlling Board.

The Ohio Department of Natural Resources will provide $767,457 for the East 55th Street Marina project—the largest of its type in the state's history—while the city of Cleveland will contribute $840,747.

Construction is to begin July 15. Target date for completion is next May.

The initial construction program will include a protected small boat harbor and docking facilities for 276 boats.

Eventually it will have berths for 450 boats, a 500-car parking lot, boat repair and maintenance facilities, boat storage building and restaurant.

Father And Son Event Held, Lisbon Senior Citizens Meet

LISBON — Forty attended the father-son coverdish dinner at St. Jacob's United Church of Christ Monday night.

Women of the church served.

Howard Wilhelm presided when recognition was accorded:

Merle McPherson, oldest father present; Ed Mitchell, youngest; Jeff Ring, 5-year-old son of the Rev. and Mrs. William Ring, youngest son present; Delbert Sitler, Oland Baker and Richard Hill, tied for the father with the most sons present.

60 At Senior Citizens Event

Guests included Mrs. Maude Murphy, Mrs. Catherine Pile and Mrs. Lillian Beaver of East Palestine, Mrs. Pearl Metz of Cumberland, Md., and Ollie Campbell of East Liverpool.

Mrs. Velva Hively, president, conducted the business session when plans were made for the July 10 picnic at Willow Grove Park and a report of the Tri-County Senior Citizens meeting at Youngstown last week was given by Mrs. Thomas Tucker.

The program, arranged by Mrs. Bessie Cullison, included: Reading, "Who Will Take Care of Grandma?" Mrs. Lillian Haught, "Thirty Years A Shrew," Thomas Tucker; quartet selections by Lou McKenna, Tucker, Clyde McDevitt and Montroe Freshley; mixed quartet, Freshley, McKenna, Mrs. Betty Mowery and Mrs. Haught, accompanied by Mrs. Ben Wilson, sang; reading, "Kids Say the Darndest Things," Mrs. Bessie Flugan; reading, Mrs. Cullison, and skit, assisted by Mrs. Ora Coen, and chorus selections.

Prayer was led by Mrs. Ruth Willis, chaplain.

The next meeting will be Monday at 1 p. m.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Ethel Close, Mrs. Coen and Mrs. Louella Testerman.

Cigarette Seen Cause Of Blaze In Industry

A brush fire near the Barclay overpass bridge on Route 68 in Industry Tuesday has been blamed on a cigarette tossed from a car window by a passing motorist, Industry Police Chief Ray Hendershot said today.

Twenty firemen were called out at 6 p.m. and two trucks were taken to the site after the alarm was given by another driver. The fire, which burned along the hillside, was extinguished in about 20 minutes, Chief Hendershot said.

HEDRICK HONORED. John Hedrick, right, director of the East Liverpool Academic Center of Kent State University who is to become associate director of Civic Education at Akron University, was presented a Kent seal and silver cup by Vicki Deshler of East Liverpool, secretary of the center's Student Senate, and Thomas E. Jones of Toronto, student representative, on behalf of the students Tuesday.

Lamb Addresses Rotary

Growth Of Center Aired; Hedrick Takes New Post

The spiraling growth of the Kent State Academic Center here was reviewed by Thomas Lamb, assistant dean of academic centers at the university, when he addressed the Rotary Club Tuesday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Lamb also praised John Hedrick, the local center's director, who will leave the area June 30 to accept a position at Akron University.

LAMB SAID original expectations were that only 100 students would register here for classes. Instead, 276 signed up, "the greatest opening of any center in the state at that time," he pointed out.

Even more remarkable, he continued, was the fact that 80 per cent of the students were enrolled full time. Again, officials anticipated most of the work done locally would be "one of two courses to be taken at night."

No significant difference has been noted between students here and those at other extensions or on the main campus, Lamb pointed out, except a financial distinction in some cases.

LAMB SAID the university is anxiously awaiting the high school building donated to it by the East Liverpool Board of Education and has plans for renovating the structure.

Associate degrees in the technical fields, four in engineering and one in nursing are also foreseen, along with additional upper division academic work, Lamb added.

"East Liverpool area students will be able to remain near their homes as productive citizens," he concluded.

Hedrick has accepted a post as associate director of the Civil Education Institute at Akron University.

He came here in 1965 as the center's first director.

He is a former Marine and holds degrees from Kent and Notre Dame universities.

He is married and resides in North Canton.

'Youth Corps' Work Begins

Eight young people — six boys and two girls — have started work in East Liverpool under a summer Neighborhood Youth Corps program, Mayor George E. Willshaw said today.

Four of the young men are working with the street department and two are employed at Thompson Park. The two girls are working at the high school. The project was set up in cooperation with the Community Action Council of Columbiana County, Inc. Payrolls are being met with federal funds, the mayor said.

The program calls for employment of young men and women 16-21 from low - income families who intend to return to school in the fall. They will work 30 hours weekly for a total of six weeks. The pay scale is $1.25 hourly. Paydays fall every two weeks. The young workers are covered by Social Security and Workmen's Compensation.

The program is designed primarily to give the youths work experience and provide them with funds needed to continue their education. Don Lowe of Wellsville is the project director.

The four boys working with the street department have been assigned initially to cutting weeds in the vicinity of highway guardrails that are unaccessible to the city's mowing machine.

New Cumberland Plant Entered; Nothing's Taken

NEW CUMBERLAND—Would-be burglars fled without loot this morning at the Hancock Manufacturing plant when apparently frightened away by a plant superintendent.

Entrance to the plant, on S. Chester St., apparently was made between 3 and 5:30 a.m.

George Weigel of 908 S. Chestnut St., New Cumberland, superintendent, said the company's office was ransacked and a nail keg was loaded with articles ready to be taken away when he arrived. He said the only thing he found missing was a flashlight. "But, they made a mess in the office," he added, "dumping out the drawers on the floor."

The company employs six men and is involved primarily with pickling steel.

Hearing Slated In Theft Of Car

LISBON — The 15-year-old Clarkson youth apprehended with a stolen car Monday at Beaver is being held in dentention at Columbiana County Jail for a hearing next week in Juvenile Court.

Judge Louis Tobin is in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., attending a conference of the National Council of Juvenile Court Judges and will return to the bench July 5.

The boy has been charged here with delinquency in the theft of a sedan Monday afternoon from the St. Clair Plaza parking lot at Calcutta.

Beaver police took him into custody on suspicion before the stolen car report was broadcast. The car had been parked by Patricia Brooks of Christian Pl., East Liverpool R. D. 3, who works at Hill's store at the Plaza.

Ohio Man Bound To Grand Jury

A Toronto man was bound to the September term of the Hancock County Grand Jury during a hearing Tuesday before Squire John D. Herron at New Cumberland.

Newell Gault, 26, is in jail under $500 bond charged with breaking and entering.

Two were bound to Juvenile Court.

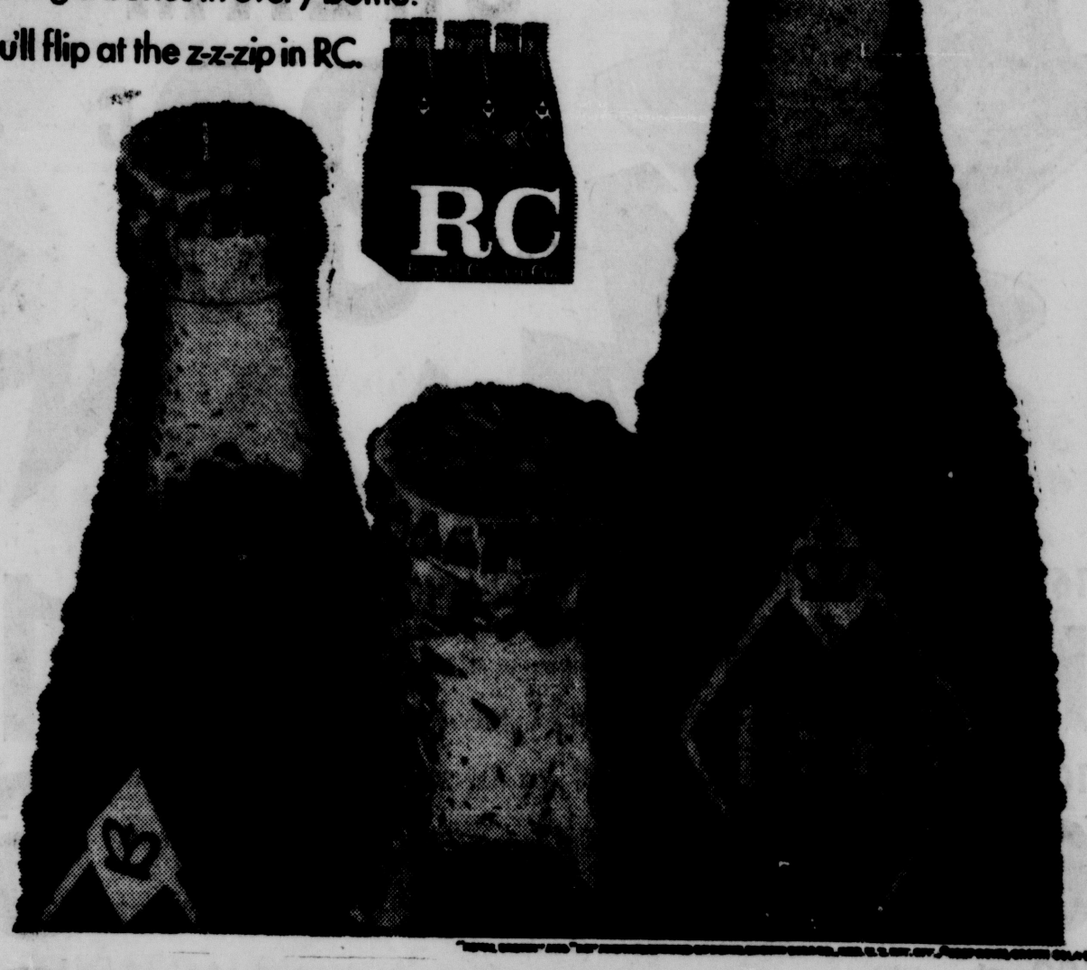

In addition, Gault was fined $100 or sentenced to 60 days for contributing to the delinquency of minors. The three were arrested last Thursday by Constable William Webster and sheriff's deputies. They are charged with entering the home of Richard Peppler on Ridge Ave., in New Cumberland.

The two juveniles were turned over to John Grossi, juvenile officer.

Lamb Addresses Rotary

Growth Of Center Aired; Hedrick Takes New Post

The spiraling growth of the Kent State Academic Center here was reviewed by Thomas Lamb, assistant dean of academic centers at the university, when he addressed the Rotary Club Tuesday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Lamb also praised John Hedrick, the local center's director, who will leave the area June 30 to accept a position at Akron University.

LAMB SAID original expectations were that only 100 students would register here for classes. Instead, 276 signed up, "the greatest opening of any center in the state at that time," he pointed out.

Even more remarkable, he continued, was the fact that 80 per cent of the students were enrolled full time. Again, officials anticipated most of the work done locally would be "one of two courses to be taken at night."

No significant difference has been noted between students here and those at other extensions or on the main campus, Lamb pointed out, except a financial distinction in some cases.

LAMB SAID the university is anxiously awaiting the high school building donated to it by the East Liverpool Board of Education and has plans for renovating the structure.

Associate degrees in the technical fields, four in engineering and one in nursing are also foreseen, along with additional upper division academic work, Lamb added.

"East Liverpool area students will be able to remain near their homes as productive citizens," he concluded.

Hedrick has accepted a post as associate director of the Civil Education Institute at Akron University.

He came here in 1965 as the center's first director.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Reviving An Old One For TV

There isn't likely to be much of a new look about TV next season,even though 30 or more new weekly series will be premiering in September.

Hal Humphrey

One new series — ABC's "Good Company" — may seem new because it hasn't been done for seven years. It's a takeoff on the late Ed Murrow's old "Person to Person" series which ran on CBS from 1953 to 1960.

On "Good Company" there will be only one personality visited each week in his or her home, instead of the two visits Murrow made in the half hour. F. Lee Bailey, the criminal attorney whose star has been burning bright of late, will be the visitor and interviewer, and he actually will go to the person's home.

Among those personages already lined up for visit with Bailey on "Good Company" are California's Gov. Ronald Reagan, Harry Belafonte, Lee Radziwill, Ed Sullivan, John Glenn and Vice President Hubert Humphrey.

JOHN AARON, who created "Person to Person" with the late Jesse Zousmer, is producing "Good Company" for David Susskind's Talent Associates company.

"I tried to get CBS interested in doing 'Person to Person' again, since they had bought the property from Jesse and me five years after we started it for Murrow, but nothing happened," says Aaron. "There were some negotiations with Jack Paar about it, but he wanted ownership."

Charles Collingwood had taken over "Person to Person" in its final year on CBS, but Aaron and Zousmer were running dry on candidates for his visits after doing some 700, and it was decided to fold the series.

"BUT NOW there is a whole new generation of people coming to the forefront, and since we're doing only one a week, there should be plenty to draw from," Aaron says.

"I admit I was surprised when Susskind suggested Bailey, who really has had no TV experience, but then I think I got as intrigued with the idea of his doing it as Bailey himself did."

Many critics thought Murrow was out of place on "Person to Person" when it first went on the air, but as the series caught on, Murrow warmed to it and the various couplings of his two guests each week seemed to overshadow Murrow's sometimes inept manner on occasion.

MARILYN MONROE, for example, shared half of a "Person to Person" with Sir Thomas Beecham, and Noel Coward was on the same show with scientist Vannevar Bush. Fighter Rocky Graziano and Yehudi Menuhin were a parlay on another "Person to Person."

The biggest rating Murrow ever got was with Mike Todd, who then (in 1957) was married to Liz Taylor. Mark Van Doren, the Pulitzer Prize poet and father of Charles Van Doren of quiz show fame, was paired with the Todds at that time.

On his "Good Company" series Aaron will tape Bailey's visits two weeks in advance, but do them in one take, as if it were a "live" show. He will confine his subjects to those who are married and live in permanent quarters (either a house or apartment) because Aaron doesn't believe a half hour could be filled with a single person.

BAILEY FLIES his own jet plane, so even when he's involved in a court case he can take the weekend to go wherever his visit is scheduled, tape it and be back in court Monday morning.

"That's the trouble with TV today, however. The economics have forced everyone into wanting to know the first few weeks if a show is a success or not. When we first started 'Person to Person,' only 17 stations gave us clearance, and the first several ratings were lousy."

Aug. 19 Deadline In Both Divisions Of Photo Contest

In the black - and - white category, photos must be 11 by 14 inches, mounted, and in one of the five classes: scenic, human interest, still life, architecture and portrait, officials said.

Color shots must by 8 by 10, mounted, and can be entered in the portrait, scenic or human interest categories.

The junior show, for photographers 15 and under and of junior high school age, will offer a two - year membership in the club for the shot judged best and one - year memberships for first - place winners.

Black - and - white pictures also must be mounted, but should be 5 by 7 inches in size. The categories are the same as in the senior group.

The location of scenes and the identification of subjects must accompany all shots. Entrants must list their first and second choice of categories.

Readings Given For Meeting Of Fairview Grange

Mrs. Hilda Allison and Mills reported on the grange camp which they attended June 16-18 at Cedar Lake, near Ripley, W. Va.

Mrs. Jennie Mills, home economic chairman, was in charge of the program. The centennial candle was lighted by Mrs. Mills in commemoration of Home Economic Month.

Presenting readings were Mrs. Agnes Herron, "Grange 100 Years Ago;" Mrs. Edith Johnston," "What the Grange Means To Me;" Mrs. Mills, "What Is a Grange?" Mrs. Ina Birkhimer, "The Oath of Service," and Mrs. Odessa Jones, "Mother's Doughnuts."

A quiz on "Women In History" was conducted by Mrs. Mills. Lunch was served 16 by Mrs. Marie Pugh and Mrs. Johnston.

Early Payday Slated For City's Employes

Auditor Lawrence J. Zollinger and Treasurer Bert A. Dawson said today they are preparing for the traditional early payday for city employes prior to the July 4th holiday.

Checks for the pay period ending June 30 will be distributed next Monday at 2 p. m. at the office in City Hall, provided department heads turn in their payrolls by 5 p. m. today, the officials said. The payday ordinarily would fall on next Wednesday, July 5.

If any department's payroll is not turned in by the deadline today, checks for the affected employes cannot be issued until Thursday, July 6, at 2 p. m., the officials said. The early payday is traditional in order to assure that city workers will have funds for the holiday, Dawson and Zollinger said.

Welfare Head Seeks Mayor Post In Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — William J. Ensign, 43, director of the Lucas County Welfare Department, is in the running for the Democratic nomination for mayor of Toledo.

Deadline Due For Petitions On Surfacing

Petitions must be filed by Friday by neighborhood groups seeking to participate in the city's annual low - cost summer street - surfacing program, Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey reminded today.

Forty - seven groups have obtained petitions at Vodrey's office to seek the surfacing jobs, but only 17 have been returned to date.

The cutoff date will allow the administration time to advertise for contractors' bids and let a contract so that the work can be completed before threatening fall weather, the director pointed out.

The city pays 50 per cent of the cost of each project, plus the expense of surfacing intersections. Householders pay the other half on the basis of foot frontage.

The rule of thumb is to multiply the frontage of the property owner's lot by the width of the street and then multiply the result of one cent. For instance, a lot with 30 feet of frontage and 20 feet wide would cost 20 cents per lineal foot, or a total of $6. Measurements are made by the city to determine the exact costs.

In addition to applying the surfacing, the city will provide a seal coat for some streets surfaced in previous years. The seal coat is applied entirely at the city's expense.

The surfacing program has been set up annually for approximately six years.

German immigrants of the 1880s introduced both the hamburger and frankfurter into the United States.

W. Va. Pageant Contestant Denies Acting Improperly

CHARLESTON (AP) — Saying Miss West Virginia pageant judges failed to display good taste, Anna Marie Minehart denied Tuesday that she acted improperly.

Miss Minehart, first runner-up to Miss Carolyn Morgan of Lewisburg, said, "You can't expect me not to be upset and a little disturbed, but I don't think I acted improperly."

She was reported to have tossed her bouquet of flowers into a trash can and carried her trophy as if it were a toy.

Miss Minehart denied this. But she did criticize the judges, saying she "never had felt she (Miss Morgan) was my greatest competition."

"I did not feel that I was the obvious winner, but I thought I stood a good chance" to win, she added.

She also stated that having all judges from West Virginia enabled "emotion and opinions to enter into their decision."

Thomas R. Cooper Jr., state pageant executive director, said he was "a little aghast at the whole business" and that the judges had "a professional as well as a personal reputation above reproach."

He also stated that "we don't contemplate any action against Miss Minehart at the present time."

Late Senator's Home Will Be Torn Down

JEFFERSON, Ohio (AP) — The mansion of U.S. Sen. Benjamin F. Wade, who died in 1878, probably will be torn down to make room for a parking lot. The home, owned by the Jefferson Savings & Loan Co., has to be removed before the land can be used.

William Jamison, president of the Benjamin F. Wade Memorial Association, said Tuesday that a fund drive to move the hose to another site failed.

BAILEY FLIES his own jet plane, so even when he's involved in a court case he can take the weekend to go wherever his visit is scheduled, tape it and be back in court Monday morning.

"I think if we're given enough weeks we can get a sizable audience for 'Good Company'," says Aaron.

"That's the trouble with TV today, however. The economics have forced everyone into wanting to know the first few weeks if a show is a success or not. When we first started 'Person to Person,' only 17 stations gave us clearance, and the first several ratings were lousy."

The pipe, ancestor of our present pipe organ and all other wind instruments, is said to be the oldest of musical instruments.

The senior competition, for photographers 16 and over, will feature a $10 prize for best picture in the show and a $5 prize for first - place winners.

In the black - and - white category, photos must be 11 by 14 inches, mounted, and in one of the five classes: scenic, human interest, still life, architecture and portrait, officials said.

Color shots must by 8 by 10, mounted, and can be entered in the portrait, scenic or human interest categories.

The junior show, for photographers 15 and under and of junior high school age, will offer a two - year membership in the club for the shot judged best and one - year memberships for first - place winners.

Black - and - white pictures also must be mounted, but should be 5 by 7 inches in size. The categories are the same as in the senior group.

Color photographs must be 5 by 7, mounted, with the categories portrait or scenic.

The location of scenes and the identification of subjects must accompany all shots. Entrants must list their first and second choice of categories.

Readings Given For Meeting Of Fairview Grange

Mrs. Hilda Allison and Mills reported on the grange camp which they attended June 16-18 at Cedar Lake, near Ripley, W. Va.

Mrs. Jennie Mills, home economic chairman, was in charge of the program. The centennial candle was lighted by Mrs. Mills in commemoration of Home Economic Month.

Presenting readings were Mrs. Agnes Herron, "Grange 100 Years Ago;" Mrs. Edith Johnston," "What the Grange Means To Me;" Mrs. Mills, "What Is a Grange?" Mrs. Ina Birkhimer, "The Oath of Service," and Mrs. Odessa Jones, "Mother's Doughnuts."

A quiz on "Women In History" was conducted by Mrs. Mills. Lunch was served 16 by Mrs. Marie Pugh and Mrs. Johnston.

Early Payday Slated For City's Employes

Auditor Lawrence J. Zollinger and Treasurer Bert A. Dawson said today they are preparing for the traditional early payday for city employes prior to the July 4th holiday.

Checks for the pay period ending June 30 will be distributed next Monday at 2 p. m. at the office in City Hall, provided department heads turn in their payrolls by 5 p. m. today, the officials said. The payday ordinarily would fall on next Wednesday, July 5.

If any department's payroll is not turned in by the deadline today, checks for the affected employes cannot be issued until Thursday, July 6, at 2 p. m., the officials said. The early payday is traditional in order to assure that city workers will have funds for the holiday, Dawson and Zollinger said.

Welfare Head Seeks Mayor Post In Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — William J. Ensign, 43, director of the Lucas County Welfare Department, is in the running for the Democratic nomination for mayor of Toledo.

Deadline Due For Petitions On Surfacing

Petitions must be filed by Friday by neighborhood groups seeking to participate in the city's annual low - cost summer street - surfacing program, Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey reminded today.

Forty - seven groups have obtained petitions at Vodrey's office to seek the surfacing jobs, but only 17 have been returned to date.

The cutoff date will allow the administration time to advertise for contractors' bids and let a contract so that the work can be completed before threatening fall weather, the director pointed out.

The city pays 50 per cent of the cost of each project, plus the expense of surfacing intersections. Householders pay the other half on the basis of foot frontage.

The rule of thumb is to multiply the frontage of the property owner's lot by the width of the street and then multiply the result of one cent. For instance, a lot with 30 feet of frontage and 20 feet wide would cost 20 cents per lineal foot, or a total of $6. Measurements are made by the city to determine the exact costs.

In addition to applying the surfacing, the city will provide a seal coat for some streets surfaced in previous years. The seal coat is applied entirely at the city's expense.

The surfacing program has been set up annually for approximately six years.

German immigrants of the 1880s introduced both the hamburger and frankfurter into the United States.

W. Va. Pageant Contestant Denies Acting Improperly

CHARLESTON (AP) — Saying Miss West Virginia pageant judges failed to display good taste, Anna Marie Minehart denied Tuesday that she acted improperly.

Miss Minehart, first runner-up to Miss Carolyn Morgan of Lewisburg, said, "You can't expect me not to be upset and a little disturbed, but I don't think I acted improperly."

Earlier, two minor pageant officials sought to disqualify her because of her actions following selection of Miss Morgan as Miss West Virginia.

She was reported to have tossed her bouquet of flowers into a trash can and carried her trophy as if it were a toy.

Miss Minehart denied this. But she did criticize the judges, saying she "never had felt she (Miss Morgan) was my greatest competition."

"I did not feel that I was the obvious winner, but I thought I stood a good chance" to win, she added.

The judges, Miss Minehart did "a great deal of arguing" which she claimed "wasn't in good taste."

She also stated that having all judges from West Virginia enabled "emotion and opinions to enter into their decision."

Thomas R. Cooper Jr., state pageant executive director, said he was "a little aghast at the whole business" and that the judges had "a professional as well as a personal reputation above reproach."

He also stated that "we don't contemplate any action against Miss Minehart at the present time."

Late Senator's Home Will Be Torn Down

JEFFERSON, Ohio (AP) — The mansion of U.S. Sen. Benjamin F. Wade, who died in 1878, probably will be torn down to make room for a parking lot. The home, owned by the Jefferson Savings & Loan Co., has to be removed before the land can be used.

William Jamison, president of the Benjamin F. Wade Memorial Association, said Tuesday that a fund drive to move the hose to another site failed.

Don't forget to stock up on Coneys. Your family will thank you. Because they know what tastes good to them. And you know what's good for them. Because Coneys are all meat and very high in protein, mildly seasoned and made from U.S. Government inspected veal, beef and pork. Coneys will stay fresh longer. Because Sugardale vacuum packs them. So all the good taste of Coneys your family likes will be right there the moment you open them up. Sugardale—the people who package fresh ideas for your table.

Win a G.E. Dishwasher, Chrysler Outboard Motor, Spalding golf clubs, or a pair of AMF bicycles. Play Sugardale's Summer Fun Sweepstakes. Rules and entry blanks at your grocer's.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

The Value Of Good Posture

"What can middle-aged woman do to keep in shape if she is unable to take calisthenics?" a reader inquires.

Ida Jean Kain

The practice of good posture, carried into everyday movements affords the best possible continuous exercise. You stand, walk, sit, work and move all the while, so it makes sense to get into the habit of making every movement count for muscle toning. Once good posture and the correct way of moving become habitual, they require no extra effort or attention, and far less energy is expended.

Aim for a self-supporting posture. The body is designed so that the various bones mutually support each other. In correct alignment, muscles and ligaments have an easier time holding the structure together.

AT ONE TIME I interviewed Martha Graham on this vital subject. She explained that posture is a result of the way we think and feel inside. The body is quick to register discouragement, fear and a feeling of "what's the use." It is just as responsive to a feeling of courage and confidence. Posture reflects the spirit within.

Posture correction, then, must begin from within. When you catch that quickening of the spirit you want to stand up and move well. Correction is not entirely a mechanical thing. . . first it is a feeling.

In the figure lineup, correction begins in the middle. The abdomen has mighty muscles, four layers deep. These girdle muscles run perpendicularly, horizontally, and come in on the bias.

The action of the long front muscles is an uplift. It is these muscles you use when you pull up to your full height. The action of the side-front muscles exerts an in-pull. So when you pull up and pull in, you are toning the important middle muscles. Let the up come first. Think up-and-in slim, with shoulders riding easy.

HEAD CARRIAGE is important, too. Cultivate the habit of holding your head high. Keep that line at the back of your neck almost straight and, the chin held level. That head posture helps to prevent a "dowager's hump" and to kiss a double chin goodbye!

How about rocking chair action? Rock for 15 to 30 minutes during a TV session. Sit well back in the rocker, pull up and in with middle muscles, and push vigorously with your feet. Rocking is surprisingly effective exercise.

If you cannot take weight - bearing exercise, sit on a heavy desk, and swing your legs freely back and forth. This is an excellent circulation rouser.

Of the three violent weather extremes — tornadoes, floods and hurricanes — tornados are by far the most lethal. During the five - year period of 1962-1966, tornados claimed the lives of 530 persons in the United States, excluding Alaska and Hawaii.

Shareholders Okay Merger Of 3 Firms

The combination started with the approval of stockholders of the merger with Draper, a Hopewell, Mass., company that makes textile machinery. That will take place June 30.

Then approval was given to the Rockwell and North American merger. But the Department of Justice has objected because both produce executive aircraft. Both companies said they expected to overcome the objections.

Rockwell - Standard's shareholders, meeting here approved the merger with Draper by a 98.2 per cent margin. They approved the merger with North American by 94 per cent.

Lively Bidding Seen On Cincinnati Stadium

CINCINNATI (AP)—City officials expect some lively bidding on the $44 million riverfront stadium that is expected to serve as home for the Cincinnati Reds and an American Football League team.

Sets of plans and specifications for the big doughnut-shaped structure became available Tuesday and almost 20 of them were promptly picked up —at $250 apiece.

Bids for the 55,000-seat stadium will be opened Aug. 15 and 16. The completion date is now set for the spring of 1969.

Indian Officials Get 'Gimmick' From Rusk

BOMBAY, India (AP) — U. S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk has given Indian officials a "gimmick" for popularizing and speeding up this country's family planning program, according to Health Minister Sripati Chandraskekhar.

Chandrasekhar told newsmen Rusk was rushed by helicopter to the funeral ceremony of Jawaharlal Nehru in 1964 and that many thousands of peasants in the crowd watched, fascinated by the aircraft.

The cabinet officer theorizes that movement of family planning teams of rural villages by 'copter would not only attract many villagers, but would also enable the teams to cover more villages.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: Make your own bridal veil for just pennies. . .

Take two plain white embroidery hoops and twine satin ribbon around them. Then center the hoops on the desired amount of nylon netting, placing one underneath and the other one on top of it and lock them together — just as if you were going to embroider.

The netting will flare out in a graceful fashion. (A heavier effect can be obtained by using several pieces of netting of various sizes.)

If you are going to leave the material in the crown, make small pleats over this area before locking the hoops. Then your pleats will be permanently pressed.

A READER.

And may all weddings be lovely!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: My small daughter despised her liquid vitamins and never drank her breakfast juices without a fuss.

PAT TYSON.

Thanks for a real "cool" idea, Pat.

HELOISE.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: As we in the Middle West say when informed that our slip is showing, "So what? It's pretty, clean and paid for."

Of course, with the new short fashions we can cut costs by simply adding a ruffle to the bottom of our bra. Would that make it a petti-bra or a mini-bra?

KANSAN.

DEAR HELOISE: I felt sure I could never duplicate my large picture grouping when I had to move . . . but I had a bright idea.

I took down the pictures, taped together enough wrapping paper to cover the old space, then gently pressed the paper over the nails, puncturing it in the proper places. Then I carefully removed and rolled up the paper.

When I got to the new apartment I simply taped the paper to the wall and placed nails where the holes were, thereby duplicating the same arrangement and spacing I formerly had.

DEAR HELOISE: My two young daughters love to go swimming. As you know, all children look alike at a distance with only their head and shoulders out of the water.

So I painted my girls' names on their bathing caps with bright red nail polish and I could spot them in a second.

When the lifeguard yelled, "Kathy, don't do that," she was one surprised young lady!

MRS. E. O'GRADY.

DEAR HELOISE: How wonderful these adhesive-backed papers are!

I covered my old beat-up washer with a solid white variety. It now looks brand new and is so easy to wipe clean.

My real delight is with the transparent kind. I cut this into strips and covered the cracks between washer and dryer, base cabinet and stove, refrigerator and sink, etc.

The grand feature is that once on, the plastic paper cannot be noticed and no crumbs fall between the appliances.

DOLORES O'KEEFE.

Dolores, you're a real crackerjack to think of this! While you're at it, why not put a strip all along the metal edge of your formica drainboard (if you have the kind of strip that soils your clothes) to keep from getting black marks across your tummy? Love you.

DEAR HELOISE: Perhaps many young wives haven't discovered how to keep stuffed peppers from tipping over in the pan. If they'll cut the bottoms off just a bit, the peppers will remain upright and full.

'The Typical New Yorker'

Great American Myth

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the great American myths is "the typical New Yorker."

By tradition, the typical New Yorker is a sophisticated fellow who hobnobs with celebrities, dwells in a penthouse, reads all the latest best sellers, eats only at the fanciest restaurants, spends his evenings at night clubs, gets daily inside tips on what to buy in Wall Street, and knows whom to call at City Hall if he wants to get a traffic ticket fixed.

He's a "guy in the know," and compared to him anybody who dwells west of the Hudson River is a hinterland hayseed.

Ah, me, if life were only like that!

After 30 years of dwelling in O. Henry's fabled Baghdad on the Subway, I've decided that when it comes to "the typical New Yorker" of romantic legend, there probably ain't no such animal.

The "typical New Yorker," if you do happen to meet one, usually turns out to be an out-of-towner here for a lark on a Texas-sized expense account.

"I don't see how you stand the pace here," he says, leaving for home after a week or two spent trying to paint the big city a vivid crimson. "It would get me down."

Such remarks make a real New Yorker want to slit the out-of-towner's throat quietly. For the real New Yorker, like most of his brethren across the country, has to make do on a pretty tight budget. He doesn't see as much of the high-living side of the city in a year as a fast-buck visitor sees in a few nights.

There has been a steady exodus of middle-class white people from the city for several decades. Now the middle-class Negroes and Puerto Ricans are doing the same thing. As soon as they can afford to, they also are moving out to the suburbs in Westchester County and Long Island.

It isn't the mass of natives who keep the $20-a-meal glitter spots and the big expensive Broadway musicals running. New York is a work city, rather than "Fun City," to them.

Your real New Yorker is a Wall Street stenographer who pays more than she can afford for a tiny dark walkup apartment in Greenwich Village building that would probably be condemned in Vermont as an eyesore.

But they all share that same big dream: to earn enough so they can move away to somewhere cleaner and less noisy and less expensive.

Then they can come back occasionally as tourists and enjoy the big city in the way that only the out-of-towner can, pockets loaded with butter-and-egg money burning to be spent.

Vote Board Delegation To Attend Conference

The Columbiana County Election Board will send three delegates to the annual Ohio conference on elections Thursday through Saturday at the Netherland Hilton Hotel in Cincinnati.

They are G. William Brokaw of East Liverpool and Charles A. Pike of Lisbon, both members of the board, and Miss Rebecca Resnick of East Liverpool, director of elections.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown and his staff will be in charge of the program, which will concentrate on the effect of new legislation; election procedures and planning for the Nov. 7 general election. Speakers at a luncheon Friday will include Charles F. Kurfess, speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives, and Mayor Walton Bachrach of Cincinnati. State Auditor Roger Cloud and Brown will speak Friday morning.

If the human body is without oxygen, the brain tissue begins to die in four minutes, the heart stops beating in nine minutes.

Nationalists Win Most Offices In W.Va. Boys State

JACKSON'S MILL (AP) — Nationalist Party members captured five offices and at least two supreme court seats in Mountaineer Boys State elections Tuesday night.

Barry Louden of Parkersburg, a Nationalist, was elected governor over John Wooten of Beckley, 219-230, in the annual state government exercise for high school seniors sponsored by the American Legion.

Other Nationalist ticket winners were Steve Cruikshank, Parkersburg, secretary of state; Bill Gray, Beckley, attorney general; David Earehart, Beckley, treasurer; Randy Farmer, Cabin Creek, commissioner of agriculture, and Mike Gant, Huntington; Vincent Justice, New Martinsville; Stan Kaczkowski, Dunbar, all to the supreme court.

The 176-170 victory of Nationalist Bill Chambers of Paden City over Andy Levey of Parkersburg for the supreme court was contested late Tuesday by the Federalist party.

West End Crash Damages 2 Cars

Two cars were damaged in a collision Tuesday at 3:15 p. m. in West End, police reported.

The crash on W. 8th St. at the junction of a ramp leading off the Freeway involved a 1964 sedan driven by Ford S. Ball, 74, of 959 Riverside Ave., Wellsville, and a 1966 model auto operated by Leo Michael Tomallo, 43, of Cleveland, oficers said.

The crash caused heavy damage to the right side of Ball's car and the left front fender and bumper of Tomallo's auto, owned by the Carter Wood Specialty Co. of Cleveland.

Ball told Patrolman Howard Frontz he was driving west on W. 8th St. about 15 miles an hour when Tomallo's car, emerging rom the ramp, struck his auto. Tomallo told the officer he had pulled off the ramp and halted when Ball's car struck his auto.

Women Speakers Conduct Meeting

Charter membership is still open, Mrs. Ruby Coleman, president of the Toastmistress Club, said during a meeting Monday night at the Ohio Valley Gas Co. office.

Mrs. June Davis was toastmistress and Mrs. Jackie McVay was table topics mistress. Speeches were made by Mrs. Mary Clement and Mrs. Edna Kiernan.

Francis House and S. Leslie Jones of the Toastmasters Club were guests. Eleven were present.

Area women interested in joining the club are invited to attend a meeting July 10 at the gas office.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: Make your own bridal veil for just pennies. . .

Take two plain white embroidery hoops and twine satin ribbon around them. Then center the hoops on the desired amount of nylon netting, placing one underneath and the other one on top of it and lock them together — just as if you were going to embroider.

The netting will flare out in a graceful fashion. (A heavier effect can be obtained by using several pieces of netting of various sizes.)

If you are going to leave the material in the crown, make small pleats over this area before locking the hoops. Then your pleats will be permanently pressed.

If you prefer an open crown, just cut out the material, leaving an inch to be stitched underneath.

And may all weddings be lovely!

DEAR HELOISE: My small daughter despised her liquid vitamins and never drank her breakfast juices without a fuss.

On one of my "bright" days I made fruit juice popsicles and put the vitamins right in them.

PAT TYSON.

Thanks for a real "cool" idea, Pat.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: As we in the Middle West say when informed that our slip is showing, "So what? It's pretty, clean and paid for."

Of course, with the new short fashions we can cut costs by simply adding a ruffle to the bottom of our bra. Would that make it a petti-bra or a mini-bra?

West Beaver Schedule Set

Next week's recreation program for the Western Beaver County School District has been announced by Dan Sekeres, director of recreation.

Monday from 1 to 6 p.m. there will be a free swim for all students of the Western Beaver area who have registered for swimming passes. The playground will be closed on Monday and Tuesday, however. Swimming passes may not be used Tuesday, Sekeres said.

On Wednesday, arts and crafts will be held at the Logan School playground and baton lessons at the Snyder School playground. Swimming lessons for grades one and two will be held from 1 to 4 p. m. at the Willows Motel in Industry.

On July 6, storytelling will be featured at Logan, with arts and crafts and baton lessons at Snyder. Swimming lessons again will be held for grades one and two from 1 to 4 p.m.

Zoo night will be featured Thursday. Entries that are permissible include turtles, frogs, butterflies, crickets, all kinds of insects, non - poisonous snakes and animals "that are not messy," Sekeres said. Not allowed are domestic pets such as dogs, cats, rabbits, chickens, ducks, etc.

A Chinese checkers tournament also will be held Thursday night.

On July 7, there will be baton lessons at Logan and arts and crafts at Snyder, with swimming lessons for grades one and two from 1 to 4 p.m.

On July 8, swimming lessons will be given to those in grades one and two from noon to 1 p.m. Children must provide their own transportation this day.

The gym will be open from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday for weight lifting and summer recreation basketball. The gym also will be open Friday from 10 a. m. until noon, Sekeres said.

During the American Revolution, it was often hard to tell an officer from an enlisted man in the Continental Army. Gen. George Washington wore only a light blue ribbon across his chest. Other officers wore different - colored ribbons. The colonel's eagle did not appear until 50 years later, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

LEGAL NOTICES

ORDINANCE NUMBER 17, 1967.
AN ORDINANCE DETERMINING THE COST AND EXPENSE FOR THE YEAR 1967-68 FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF CERTAIN DESIGNATED STREETS IN THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, BETWEEN CERTAIN TERMINI BY LIGHTING WITH FLUORESCENT LAMPS, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, this Council by Ordinance No. 26, 1963, passed on the 12th day of July, 1963, levied special assessments for the improvement of certain designated streets in the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, between certain termini by lighting with fluorescent lamps, which ordinance provided that assessments thereby levied for years after the first year are to be adjusted at the beginning of each such succeeding year, in accordance with a formula set forth in Section 1 of said Ordinance; and

WHEREAS, this Council is now able to determine the cost and expense of said improvement of the fourth year thereof.

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO:

SECTION 1. That in connection with the levying of special assessments for the year 1967-68 for the improvement of certain designated streets of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, between certain termini by lighting the same with fluorescent lamps, and in accordance with the provisions of Section 1 of Ordinance No. 26, 1963, it is hereby found and determined that the cost and expense of said improvement for the year 1967-68 amounts to the aggregate to $7,800.29, and that by application of the formula for determining the adjusted rate of assessment per front foot for the year 1967-68 as set out in Section 1 of said Ordinance, the assessments for said year 1967-68 are at the rate of $1.359 per front foot, which rate does not exceed $1.68 per front foot, the limit provided in said Ordinance, and which rate shall be applied to each assessable front foot to determine the 1967-68 assessment for each of the lots and lands assessed by the aforesaid Ordinance.

SECTION 2. That the assessment against each lot or parcel of land shall be payable in cash within 30 days after July 1, 1967, and all assessments and installments thereof remaining unpaid at that time shall be certified by the Clerk of this Council to the County Auditor as provided by law to be placed by him on the tax duplicate and collected as other taxes are collected.

SECTION 3. That the Clerk of this Council shall forthwith compute the assessments for the year 1967-68 and shall then place the same on file with this Council and thereafter cause a notice of the passage of this ordinance and the filing of such 1967-68 assessments to be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in this City and to continue on file in his office said list of assessment for the year 1967-68.

SECTION 4. That the Clerk of the Council is hereby directed to deliver a certified copy of this ordinance to the County Auditor within twenty (20) days after its passage.

SECTION 5. That this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety and for the further reason that it is immediately necessary to make payable the assessments herein determined in order that the affected property owners will be afforded the full 30 days from and after July 1, 1967, for the paying thereof in cash as contemplated by assessing ordinance No. 26, 1963, passed July 12, 1963, and thus avoid the penalties concomitant with the collection thereof by the County Auditor; wherefor, this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and immediately after its passage and approval by the Mayor.

Passed this 19th day of June, 1967.
ERNEST A. LOWE

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1. That the Code of the City of East Liverpool, 1951, be and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto Section 688-6, which section is hereby ordained to read as follows:

Section 688-6. POSITION OF CLERK - SECRETARY OF THE SEWERAGE AND WATER DEPARTMENTS CREATED.

There is hereby created the position of Clerk - Secretary in the Sewerage and Water Departments. Said position shall be filled by appointment of the Board of Public Utilities. Said appointee shall have the duties of a clerk and secretary in the two departments and the compensation of the appointee shall be divided between said departments.

SECTION 2. The Clerk - Secretary shall receive $338.00 per month, payable semi - monthly.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall take effect from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Passed this 19th day of June, 1967.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 19, 1967.
AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING THE SALARY OF THE ZONING INSPECTOR.

WHEREAS, Ordinance Number 14, 1967, established the position of Zoning Inspector but provided no compensation therefor.

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1. That the Zoning Inspector shall receive for his compensation an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the fees received by the City for zoning certificates, payable monthly.

SECTION 2. That this Ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall take effect immediately upon passage and approval. Said emergency lies in the fact that no zoning inspector's pay is established and the zoning inspector begins his duties without which needed construction, charges, conversions or enlargements of buildings in the City cannot be made and this action is therefore necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety of said City and its citizens.

Rep. Green Nearing Victory Against Office Of Education

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., appears on the verge of another triumph over the Office of Education in her fight to enlarge the role of states in federal education programs.

The Senate is expected to give approval today to a bill redirecting the Teacher Corps along lines laid down by Mrs. Green in the House Education and Labor subcommittee she heads. On Tuesday, the House overwhelmingly supported the new look for the Teacher Corps.

Coming less than a month after the House backed her effort to shift a major elementary school program from the Office of Education to the states, the latest move stamps Mrs. Green as one of the most powerful women ever to serve in the House.

When the Teacher Corps was launched two years ago, the U.S. commissioner of education recruited, trained and assigned corps members. Under Mrs. Green's amendments, state and local authorities take over all these responsibilities.

The significance of the change was summed up neatly by one of the amendments, which changed the name of the program from National Teacher Corps to Teacher Corps.

"It is now a local program carried out by local authorities to meet local needs," Mrs. Green told the House Tuesday. The bill including the Teacher Corps was passed 311 to 88, and no attempt was made to restore the commissioner's lost authority.

House leaders and administration supporters on the Education and Labor Committee learned not to tangle with Mrs. Green, tagged by one colleague as "the gentlelady from Oregon," when the elementary school bill was on the floor last month.

Backed by Republicans and Southern Democrats, she routed her foes and put through several amendments that could alter other programs if the Senate goes along with the House.

The final surrender came after an eyeball-to-eyeball confrontation between Mrs. Green and Education Commissioner Harold Howe II in the House Office Building. It lasted four hours, and it was Howe who blinked. His allies on the committee accepted her changes and the bill was approved.

It is said that fat black caterpillars are a gustatory treat in the Congo.

Water And Powder To Make Mayonnaise

Interest in dehydrating food ingredients through the spray drying method is growing. This method gives products longer shelf life and helps reduce packaging costs.

Transportation savings can be considerable too. A truckload of conventional shortening shipped from Chicago to New York would cost about $375. In powdered form it would occupy only about one-half a truckload.

Periods of play in a polo game are called chukkers.

OWN ONE

SUNSET DRIVE, CALCUTTA. Modern one story three bedroom home, hardwood floors, wood burning fireplace, another fireplace in the recreation room, modern separate dining room, tiled bath, huge storage closets, oil furnace, garage, lot 90 x 200. Priced right too. $15,500.

1115 POPE AVENUE. As close to the new school as you could want, two bedrooms, living room, enclosed porch, and an excellent basement, newly refinished, single garage. $7,800.

233-235 W. 4TH STREET. It's always nice to have a good double house downtown, either to live in one part—or as an investment. This one has three bedrooms on either side, birch kitchen, full basement, and a tremendous yard — to the alley. Reduced to $8,500.

346 E. 8TH. Almost downtown, a three bedroom home, hardwood floors downstairs, nicely decorated, neat kitchen and bath, full cemented basement, gas furnace — and attached garage. Must sell to settle estate. Worthwhile for $8,900.

957 HIGH STREET. Privacy is the word here, and a nice attractive clean home with a yard and a view. It sets rather high above the area, and is just a quiet place to live and relax. Only $5,900.

Junior Editors Quiz on SHOOTING FISH

QUESTION: Can any fish shoot?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Fish have an amazing variety of accomplishments. There are fish that fly, fish that walk on their fins, fish that climb trees, fish that fish for other fish, and yes—there are fish which shoot. Our picture shows such a fish shooting. It is the remarkable archer fish of India and the Malay Archipelago. This little hunter is able to see from just below the surface and draw a bean on some insect crawling on a leaf or stem over the water. Then, splat! he shoots a stream of water at it, knocking it down to the surface where it can be grabbed easily. These fish can shoot up to 11 feet and rarely miss their victims. We show another wonder of the fish world, the four-eyed fish. It's large eye is divided across by a strip of skin; when the water level is just at this point, the upper part of the eye looks into the air and the lower part into the water. The angler fish grows a fishing rod from his nose with what looks like bait at the end. Small fish grabbing at the bait find themselves grabbed instead.

Welfare—The Losers

Young Couple 2 Affected In New York Dispute

By JEAN HELLER

NEW YORK (AP) — The young man and his wife sat on the wooden chairs in the sterile gray and green room and held hands. He was 22 and she was 18. They had been married four months. They were being evicted from their apartment and hadn't eaten in three days.

They were losers—two of the 650,000 persons on the city's welfare rolls.

This month many of them are losers—caught in the middle of a situation they didn't want, didn't cause and don't need.

It started 10 days ago when about 80 per cent of the Department of Welfare's case workers began refusing to do their assigned tasks in a demonstration to underscore a contract dispute with the city.

To avoid breaking a state law prohibiting strikes by public employes, they went to work but did no work, meeting in seminars instead.

A few days later, the city decided that if the case workers wanted to hold seminars, they could hold them just as well on the sidewalk, and permitted only those willing to perform "assigned work" to enter the welfare centers.

At some of the city's 33 centers, those willing to work under the specified conditions numbered only two or three of a normal staff of 100 or more. Supervisory personnel and office help were brought in to replace missing case workers.

It hasn't been enough. Welfare Department spokesmen say that the temporary setup has been sufficient to maintain at least emergency services.

Some doubt it.

"This is our third day here," the young husband said. "Each time we come about 10 in the morning and at 4 in the afternoon they give us carfare and tell us to come back tomorrow. They give us numbers to keep us in order. Today I got number 87. About 12:30 they called number 45. They haven't called another number since."

It was then 2 p.m.

"We owe 3½ weeks rent," the man said. "This morning the landlord told us he couldn't wait any more. They've got to help us today."

Outside, six members of the Social Service Employes Union marched back and forth.

"We feel awful about those people in there," said Michael McKain.

"But I'll quit before I go back in there if the city doesn't honor its promises to us," McKain declared.

The SSEU contract expired last Jan. 15. At that time, the contract dispute precipitated a three-day walkout that ended when the city said it would send the wage issue to fact-finding, open direct negotiations on "other issues" and later send still - unresolved problems to fact-finding.

The city, through its director of labor relations, Herbert Haber, now says there are some issues which are "not bargainable"—demands by the union for control of what the city considers management prerogatives.

According to SSEU President Judith Mage, the city promised in January to allow fact-finders to decide what was bargainable and what was not and is therefore now going back on a promise.

One of the issues, she said, is whether the contract should provide for a fund to pay case workers full salary while they are recuperating from injuries sustained on the job. This, she said, the city has termed unbargainable.

The union's action now threatens to spread to the city's three children's shelters, the institutions run to care for children whose mothers cannot be with them during the day.

One of the welfare recipients affected by the dispute says he couldn't care less which side is right or who will win. All he knows is that he is losing.

There was one man who had to plead with a policeman to put him on a subway free so he could ride 54 blocks to his center to sit all day and hope someone would give him money for a small dinner and train fare home.

No one did.

Another man had been waiting for a welfare check two weeks overdue. He had been living for two weeks on handouts from friends. Tuesday, he said, "I ran out of friends."

The administrators who have continued working, and the office people filling the gaps, are distressed by the dispute.

"What are you going to do?" one working administrator said. "My people aren't striking for money. They're out fighting for protection for when they have to go into slum areas on field calls. They deserve the protection. But 650,000 people also deserve to eat and sleep with a roof over their heads.

Funeral Services Set For Kaiser's Ex-Aide

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP) — Funeral services will be held Friday for Mrs. Alwine Rostowick, said by her family to have been the private secretary of German Kaiser Wilhelm during World War I.

Mrs. Rostowick, 79, died Tuesday in Greene County Memorial Hospital after a lingering illness.

Her family said she became secretary to the German Royal family in 1910 following her graduation from Bonn University. She married an American physician after the war and came to this country.

She leaves two daughters in this country and three sisters and a brother in Germany.

Welfare—The Losers

By JEAN HELLER

NEW YORK (AP) — The young man and his wife sat on the wooden chairs in the sterile gray and green room and held hands. He was 22 and she was 18. They had been married four months. They were being evicted from their apartment and hadn't eaten in three days.

They were losers—two of the 650,000 persons on the city's welfare rolls.

This month many of them are losers—caught in the middle of a situation they didn't want, didn't cause and don't need.

It started 10 days ago when about 80 per cent of the Department of Welfare's case workers began refusing to do their assigned tasks in a demonstration to underscore a contract dispute with the city.

To avoid breaking a state law prohibiting strikes by public employes, they went to work but did no work, meeting in seminars instead.

A few days later, the city decided that if the case workers wanted to hold seminars, they could hold them just as well on the sidewalk, and permitted only those willing to perform "assigned work" to enter the welfare centers.

At some of the city's 33 centers, those willing to work under the specified conditions numbered only two or three of a normal staff of 100 or more. Supervisory personnel and office help were brought in to replace missing case workers.

It hasn't been enough. Welfare Department spokesmen say that the temporary setup has been sufficient to maintain at least emergency services.

Some doubt it.

"This is our third day here," the young husband said. "Each time we come about 10 in the morning and at 4 in the afternoon they give us carfare and tell us to come back tomorrow. They give us numbers to keep us in order. Today I got number 87. About 12:30 they called number 45. They haven't called another number since."

It was then 2 p.m.

"We owe 3½ weeks rent," the man said. "This morning the landlord told us he couldn't wait any more. They've got to help us today."

Outside, six members of the Social Service Employes Union marched back and forth.

"We feel awful about those people in there," said Michael McKain.

"But I'll quit before I go back in there if the city doesn't honor its promises to us," McKain declared.

The SSEU contract expired last Jan. 15. At that time, the contract dispute precipitated a three-day walkout that ended when the city said it would send the wage issue to fact-finding, open direct negotiations on "other issues" and later send still - unresolved problems to fact-finding.

Mayor John V. Lindsay has called the nonworking case workers "a small irresponsible group that caused trouble for everybody."

The city, through its director of labor relations, Herbert Haber, now says there are some issues which are "not bargainable"—demands by the union for control of what the city considers management prerogatives.

According to SSEU President Judith Mage, the city promised in January to allow fact-finders to decide what was bargainable and what was not and is therefore now going back on a promise.

One of the issues, she said, is whether the contract should provide for a fund to pay case workers full salary while they are recuperating from injuries sustained on the job. This, she said, the city has termed unbargainable.

The union's action now threatens to spread to the city's three children's shelters, the institutions run to care for children whose mothers cannot be with them during the day.

One of the welfare recipients affected by the dispute says he couldn't care less which side is right or who will win. All he knows is that he is losing.

There was one man who had to plead with a policeman to put him on a subway free so he could ride 54 blocks to his center to sit all day and hope someone would give him money for a small dinner and train fare home.

No one did.

Another man had been waiting for a welfare check two weeks overdue. He had been living for two weeks on handouts from friends. Tuesday, he said, "I ran out of friends."

The administrators who have continued working, and the office people filling the gaps, are distressed by the dispute.

"What are you going to do?" one working administrator said. "My people aren't striking for money. They're out fighting for protection for when they have to go into slum areas on field calls. They deserve the protection. But 650,000 people also deserve to eat and sleep with a roof over their heads.

Funeral Services Set For Kaiser's Ex-Aide

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP) — Funeral services will be held Friday for Mrs. Alwine Rostowick, said by her family to have been the private secretary of German Kaiser Wilhelm during World War I.

Mrs. Rostowick, 79, died Tuesday in Greene County Memorial Hospital after a lingering illness.

Her family said she became secretary to the German Royal family in 1910 following her graduation from Bonn University. She married an American physician after the war and came to this country.

She leaves two daughters in this country and three sisters and a brother in Germany.
